Special Lincoln Edition Will Be Published Nov. 19; Unique Style Presentation

Many advance orders for The Gettysburg Times' 100th anniversary edition of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address have been received by the Times.

The edition will present a distinct style, completely unlike newspaper makeup and will be attractive and newsworthy in every respect. This type of commemorative edition has never before been published in Gettysburg, and perhaps in most of the country.

The special edition will be published Nov. 19, the 100th anniversary of Lincoln's Address at ceremonies re-dedicating the Gettysburg National Cemetery. It will contain many fine photographs of important documents associated with Lincoln and the Gettysburg Address and scores of items of particular interest to students of the Civil War and President Lincoln.

The edition will not include commercial advertisements. However, many Civil War Round Table groups, Lincoln Fellowship and others in this area and throughout the country have presented individual tributes to Lincoln for publication in the edition.

The editorial matter includes the daily log of the warden at the Federal prison, where the conspirators were held for execution after Lincoln's assassination. This material has never been published before and The Times is honored to have the privilege of publishing it for the first time.

Regular Times subscribers will receive a copy of the commemorative edition with their regular delivery November 19. Additional copies are 25 cents each, and the Times will mail single copies anywhere in the U.S. for 50 cents and abroad for 75 cents.

The number of extra copies will be limited, and persons wishing to receive the edition are advised to reserve their copies now.

Committee For New College Has Breakfast With General

The founding committee of a new liberal arts college at Seneca Falls, N.Y., met in Gettysburg this morning for breakfast with General Dwight D. Eisenhower, for whom the college will be named.

Eisenhower College will be the first Presbyterian-affiliated college in New York state and will have an enrollment of 1,200 to 1,500 men and women students.

The 18-man committee has been in close contact with General Eisenhower since December, 1961, when the plan was first advanced, on policy, purpose and progress, but met him for the first time this morning in the Hotel Gettysburg. Seventeen members of the committee attended the breakfast and spent nearly an hour with the general.

GENERAL PLEASED

The general expressed his enthusiasm for the project and stressed the expediency of emphasizing in public schools the importance of the individual in the world beyond his local community.

In June, the general told the group:

"The founding of a small, private liberal arts college, dedicated to quality teaching of the liberal arts in a moral setting, is a significant development, and the fact that the institution will bear my name is, of course, gratifying to me. I can think of no other undertaking to which I could give more enthusiastic encouragement for, in a very real sense, the destiny of our nation is inextricably bound up with the expanding, quality educational opportunities. I commend those who have given of their time to bring the college into being and I wish them every success in the further development of the institution."

ADVANCE STUDIES

The aim of Eisenhower College will be to provide a broad education to young men and women prior to advance studies. Dr. Earl J. McGrath, former U. S. commissioner of education and executive officer of the Institute of Higher Learning, Teachers College, Columbia University, is educational consultant to Eisenhower.

JURY "HUNG" ON "DEAD MAN'S RULE" HERE

A "hung" jury Wednesday afternoon ended the trial of damage action brought by C. Robert Brothers, administrator of the estate of Edna B. Brothers against Dennis C. and Lester Cluck, Littlestown R. D.

Judge W. C. Sheely dismissed the jury as unable to reach a decision when it so reported to the court at 5:38 o'clock Wednesday evening after several hours of deliberation.

The suit stems from an accident in 1958 at an intersection in New Oxford between a car operated by the late Miss Brothers and a stone-laden truck operated by Dennis Cluck and owned by his father, Lester Cluck.

The jury which heard the case included Horace W. Baker, East Berlin; Gilbert Evans Jr., Taneytown R. 1; Howard Hawbaker, Gettysburg R. 5; Mrs. Janet Heuser, Hampton; Ernest Hollabaugh, York Springs R. 2; Mrs. Dyson Kennedy, Bendersville; Mrs. William Lentz, 700 Fairview Ave.; Mrs. Della Rahn, Hanover R. 4; Clarence M. Sadler, 109 Springs Ave.; Raymond T. Smith, New Oxford R. 1; Mrs. Louella Starry, York Springs, and Paul Topper, McSherrystown.

Testimony in the case was limited because Miss Brothers is dead and thus under the "dead man's rule" of court, Dennis Cluck, the other driver, was also barred from testifying.

The suit wound up trials for this week. Two more civil suits are scheduled, one to be heard Monday and other next Wednesday.

Chicken House Is Damaged By Fire

At 10 o'clock this morning Fairfield firemen were called to the McClellan farm by Mrs. Dora Herzing who reported a chimney fire.

STOCKS RECOVER

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market weathered some further selling and recovered enough to show a mixed pattern early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional.

In the morning most of the blue chips which fell in Wednesday's correction continued to yield ground but, as time went by, many began to climb above their lows and some canceled losses.

A variety of secondary stocks showed considerable strength.

Short One Foot Of Rain Here This Year After Rainless Month Of Oct.

Weather records closed today on the driest month in Gettysburg in 61 years. None can be dryer.

No measurable rain fell here in the 31-day period. The last rain was on Sunday morning, September 29.

The rainless month of October left this year more than one foot short of rain. The exact figure is 12.71 inches below normal.

October was the eighth month this year that was short of rain. The 1963 rainfall shortage has been felt more acutely because last year was five inches short of rain and 1961 was two inches short.

Philip Murren Places First At Beef Show

Eleven-year-old Philip Murren's "grand champion" steer brought him approximately $700 Wednesday afternoon at the annual York-Adams 4-H Baby Beef Club Show and Sale at the York Livestock Market, Thomasville.

The 1,110-pound steer entered by Murren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Murren, Hanover R. 4, was sold for 69 cents a pound to J. Fred Fisher, York.

Murren's steer won first place in the heavyweight Angus division before going on to the grand championship of the show. It sold for 29 cents a pound to Sterner's Meat Market, Hanover. Third place was awarded to the 1,060-pound steer of David Almonee, New Oxford, which was sold to Burrall Meat Market, York, at 27 1/2 cents a pound. ## LOW RATE OF REACTIONS TO TB TEST HERE

The Adams County Tuberculosis Society reported today on the results of the Mantoux testing of more than 2,000 public and parochial school children in the county.

The Mantoux test for tuberculosis was offered to the 2,472 First and Tenth Grade pupils in all of the schools of the county. Parental permission was required and a total of 2,220 took the test.

There were 41 positive reactors from the total tested and Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, president of the county tuberculosis society, said this rate of 1.8 per cent is "very low" and "much lower than the state average."

All but two of the 41 reactors have had X-ray examinations.

901 GET X-RAYS

Nurses from the county health center contacted the families of the 41 reactors and provided serum, syringes and other materials so that all members of the families could take the Mantoux test. Twenty-seven of the families took advantage of the opportunity and in 11 of the families other reactors were found. In the case of some of the other families, members already were clinic visitors.

Mrs. Harold Ecker, the county society's executive secretary, reported today that the mobile X-ray unit sent here by the state for two days this week, X-rayed countians at the rate of more than one a minute during the hours the unit was in operation here. A total of 901 persons were X-rayed here and in Biglerville.

Both of the tuberculosis prevention projects were conducted under the sponsorship of the county society.

During the two-year period, religious services were conducted in the post chapel by area clergymen, for personnel assigned to, and residing on the reservation.

A 1933 graduate of Emmitsburg High School, Emmitsburg, Chaplain Eyler entered active military service in January, 1943, and served in an enlisted status for two years. On April, 1945, he received an appointment as a second lieutenant in the Chemical Corps while stationed in Europe.

$54,200 In Cash Is Found Near Eternal Light Peace Memorial By School Teacher

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—A high school teacher who had to have another look at the Gettysburg battlefield got the glorious news today—that "moldy stuff" he scooped up last June is worth $54,200.

"I feel sick. My legs are still shaking. Wow."

And then, "I'm waiting for some confirmation."

That was George C. Rapport's response when told by a newsman that the cache of mutilated currency he turned in to the Secret Service in New York last July has a redemption value that the Treasury sets at $54,200.

Rapport has been waiting since then to hear from the government. The Massapequa Park, N.Y., man said that except for his wife Ruth, he has told nobody else about his find.

Toured Field

"It would just be my luck to run into something and get into trouble," said Rapport, 46, a social studies teacher at a Bellmore, N.Y., high school.

Last June 28 the vacationing Rapports and their two children, Eileen 17, and Jack, 13, visited the Gettysburg battlefield in Pennsylvania.

They toured the Civil War site, but Rapport said: "You know how it is on a tour. Things go so fast you can't appreciate everything. So we went back."

Next day Rapport was walking by the Eternal Light Peace Memorial at the Gettysburg National Military Park. His wife and two children were in their car nearby.

ROTTED BUNDLE

On the ground lay a rotted bundle.

"There was no one around," Rapport recalls. He picked it up—"I had no idea what was inside"—and placed it in the trunk of the car.

BURGLARS IN UPPER ADAMS STEAL $800

Burglars, breaking into two upper county business places over night, took about $800 in cash and articles and did extensive damage to property in making the entrances.

State police were summoned this morning to the Arendtsville Planning Mill and the Biglerville Warehouse Co. where entrances were made during the night. In both places doors were broken by the burglars.

At the warehouse the burglars broke open a safe, apparently with some type of tool, which made it impossible for the door to be closed this morning. A repairman has been summoned to determine whether the forced mechanism of the safe can be repaired. The cash drawer was ripped out of the cash register but repairmen were able to effect a repair of the cash register later this morning.

Between "$300 and $400" in cash and checks was taken from the warehouse. The burglars also took several packs of cigarettes owned by employees there. Otherwise they apparently took nothing, although they broke open a rear door to enter the warehouse proper and broke a door to a nearby building of the warehouse, but apparently took nothing there.

At Arendtsville Planning Mill the loss was estimated at about $400. The burglars broke a door to enter, then took cash and hand and portable tools including a new sander and jig and a number of chains.

Castro Claims Capture Of Several CIA Agents And 2 Canadian Pilots; May Die

By DANIEL HARKER
Associated Press Staff Writer
HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said Wednesday night his government has captured several agents of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, including two Canadian pilots, who were sent into Cuba on sabotage missions after Hurricane Flora.

He indicated they may face death sentences.

He said several prisoners from a CIA ship called the Rex would appear on television to tell their stories. He did not say when they would appear or give details of their capture but said the Rex was a 150-foot diesel craft flying the Nicaraguan flag and based in West Palm Beach, Fla.

REX TIED UP

In West Palm Beach, port manager Joel Wilcox said the Rex was tied up in Palm Beach.

In his three-hour radio-television speech, Castro accused the CIA of "stepping up its activities against Cuba in the wake of the devastation caused by Hurricane Flora."

Castro accused the CIA of murdering workers, landing weapons and infiltrators in Cuba, hiring saboteurs and using postal packages to send dynamite and other explosives into Cuba.

In Washington, the CIA declined to comment on Castro's charges.

CHARGE SMUGGLING

Castro said the two Canadians—identified as Ronald Patrick Lee and William David—were arrested in Havana Oct. 24 as they tried to smuggle in 18 cans of explosives concealed inside foam rubber.

Castro said the pair had piloted a Canadian commercial plane into Havana on several occasions. He said their last trip aroused suspicion when it was discovered they were transporting mail from the United States.

Castro accused the CIA of systematically raiding Cuba and linked the Oct. 21 strafing of the American freighter J. Louis near Cuban waters with a CIA foray he said was taking place at the same time.

Castro said that Cuban fighters strafed the J. Louis because it was thought the freighter was a mother ship from which coastal raiders in small boats were being launched.

No measurable rain fell here in the 31-day period. The last rain was on Sunday morning, September 29.

The rainless month of October left this year more than one foot short of rain. The exact figure is 12.71 inches below normal.

October was the eighth month this year that was short of rain. The 1963 rainfall shortage has been felt more acutely because last year was five inches short of rain and 1961 was two inches short.

28 INCHES SHORT
Gettysburg Times weather records show that, in the 10-year period from 1953 through 1962, Gettysburg had a rainfall shortage of 16 inches. Adding the current 1963 shortage becomes more than 28 inches.

The driest year on record here was 1930 when the total rainfall was 23.63 inches but in 1929 there was a four-inch surplus.

Total precipitation so far this year in the form of rain or melted snow totals 22.95 inches. Normal rainfall for October is 3.3 inches.

Rainfall here in other Octobers has ranged from a tenth of an inch in 1924 to 9.34 inches in 1927. All other Octobers have come in between those extremes excepting this month.

MONTH WAS WARM

The only day on which rain was recorded here this month was at noon last Monday when there was a brief, light shower but not enough rain to measure.

The Weather Bureau records such showers as "traces" of rain.

October was warmer than normal and only the chilly weather at the end of the month prevented some records from being set in that direction. The average temperature for the month was 58.97 degrees. Normal is 56.1 degrees.

The range for the month was from a high of 87 degrees on the afternoon of October 7 to a low of 33 on October 14. September had seen colder weather here this year than October.

PHILIP MURREN PLACES FIRST AT BEEF SHOW

Eleven-year-old Philip Murren's "grand champion" steer brought him approximately $700 Wednesday afternoon at the annual York-Adams 4-H Baby Beef Club Show and Sale at the York Livestock Market, Thomasville.

The 1,110-pound steer entered by Murren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Murren, Hanover R. 4, was sold for 69 cents a pound to J. Fred Fisher, York.

Murren's steer won first place in the heavyweight Angus division before going on to the grand championship of the show. The division was practically an "all-Adams County show" as far as the top honors went. Second place was won by the 1,040-pound entry of Donald Bair, Littlestown. It sold for 29 cents a pound to Sterner's Meat Market, Hanover. Third place was awarded to the 1,060-pound steer of David Almoney, New Oxford, which was sold to Burrall Meat Market, York, at 27 1/2 cents a pound. Fourth place was won by the entry of Stephen Murren. That 1,090-pound steer was sold for 27 1/2 cents a pound to Stonebrook Meat Market, York.

Castro Claims Capture Of Several CIA Agents And 2 Canadian Pilots; May Die

By DANIEL HARKER

Associated Press Staff Writer HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said Wednesday night his government has captured several agents of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency, including two Canadian pilots, who were sent into Cuba on sabotage missions after Hurricane Flora.

He indicated they may face death sentences.

He said several prisoners from a CIA ship called the Rex would appear on television to tell their stories. He did not say when they would appear or give details of their capture but said the Rex was a 150-foot diesel craft flying the Nicaraguan flag and based in West Palm Beach, Fla.

REX TIED UP

In West Palm Beach, port manager Joel Wilcox said the Rex was tied up in Palm Beach. In his three-hour radio-television speech, Castro accused the CIA of "stepping up its activities against Cuba in the wake of the devastation caused by Hurricane Flora."

Castro accused the CIA of murdering workers, landing weapons and infiltrators in Cuba, hiring saboteurs and using postal packages to send dynamite and other explosives into Cuba.

In Washington, the CIA declined to comment on Castro's charges.

CHARGE SMUGGLING

Castro said the two Canadians—identified as Ronald Patrick Lee and William David—were arrested in Havana Oct. 24 as they tried to smuggle in 18 cans of explosives concealed inside foam rubber.

Castro said the pair had piloted a Canadian commercial plane into Havana on several occasions. He said their last trip aroused suspicion when it was discovered they were transporting mail from the United States.

Castro accused the CIA of systematically raiding Cuba and linked the Oct. 21 strafing of the American freighter J. Louis near Cuban waters with a CIA foray he said was taking place at the same time.

Castro said that Cuban fighters strafed the J. Louis because it was thought the freighter was a mother ship from which coastal raiders in small boats were being launched.

LOW RATE OF REACTIONS TO TB TEST HERE

The Adams County Tuberculosis Society reported today on the results of the Mantoux testing of more than 2,000 public and parochial school children in the county.

The Mantoux test for tuberculosis was offered to the 2,472 First and Tenth Grade pupils in all of the schools of the county. Parental permission was required and a total of 2,220 took the test.

There were 41 positive reactors from the total tested and Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, president of the county tuberculosis society, said this rate of 1.8 per cent is "very low" and "much lower than the state average."

All but two of the 41 reactors have had X-ray examinations.

901 GET X-RAYS

Nurses from the county health center contacted the families of the 41 reactors and provided sera, syringes and other materials so that all members of the families could take the Mantoux test. Twenty-seven of the families took advantage of the opportunity and in 11 of the families other reactors were found. In the case of some of the other families, members already were clinic visitors.

Mrs. Harold Ecker, the county society's executive secretary, reported today that the mobile X-ray unit sent here by the state for two days this week, X-rayed counties at the rate of more than one a minute during the hours the unit was in operation here. A total of 901 persons were X-rayed here and in Biglerville.

Both of the tuberculosis prevention projects were conducted under the sponsorship of the county society.

REV. EYLER IS CHAPLAIN AT INDIANTOWN

Chaplain (Major) Mervin S. Eyler, formerly of Gettysburg, has assumed his duties as chaplain for the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, and the XXI U. S. Army Corps Headquarters at Indiantown Gap. Chaplain Eyler becomes the first chaplain to be permanently assigned to the post in the past two years.

During the two-year period, religious services were conducted in the post chapel by area clergymen, for personnel assigned to, and residing on the reservation.

A 1933 graduate of Emmitsburg High School, Emmitsburg, Chaplain Eyler entered active military service in January, 1943, and served in an enlisted status for two years. On April, 1945, he received an appointment as a second lieutenant in the Chemical Corps while stationed in Europe.

Released from service the same year, he began his studies at the University of Baltimore shortly afterward, and was graduated from that institution in June, 1949, with a Bachelor's of Science degree. He was graduated from the Lutheran Seminary here and ordained in May, 1952.

OVERSEAS DUTY

Once again entering the active Army, Chaplain Eyler was transferred in grade to first lieutenant, Chaplains' Corps, and assigned

6,000 VIEW FINE SPOOK PARADE HERE

An estimated 6,000 persons viewed what many observers believed was the best Halloween parade ever held in Gettysburg.

The floats displayed a wide variety of imagination and ingenuity and the marchers also reached a new high in their selection of costumes.

The "beauty" float division was an added attraction and resulted in a $225 deficit but committee members feel that the money can be obtained in a continuation of the fund drive.

FIRST PRIZE

First prize of $75 in the beauty floats went to the Marilyn Ruth Baton School of Spring Grove. Its entry included marchers and a train, including a locomotive with bell, whistle and a smoking stack; a passenger car, filled with passengers and a caboose from which the conductor leaned to direct the proceedings.

Second in the beauty division went to the blue and white canopied float with queens entered by the Marion, Pa., teen-center. It won $45. Third prize was awarded the Adams County apple blossom queen float entered by the Fruit-growers Association of Adams County. It included the queen and her court and "King Apple" and won $20.

OTHER WINNERS

The pirate sailing ship of Cub Pack 160, sponsored by Christ Lutheran Church, won the $45 first prize for junior floats. The second award, $25, went to the "Haunted House" entered by Cub Pack 79 sponsored by St. James Lutheran Church. Third award, $15, was won by the Youth Center Junior High School group entry.

First prize of $50 in the senior Halloween floats went to the entry of the York Academy of Art with its depiction of two ghosts with huge brushes engaged in painting, aided by some human elves. Second prize, $30, was won by the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce with an entry depicting Ichabod Crane's wild ride pursued by the "Headless Horseman." Girl Scout Troop

WENKSVILLE CHURCH PLANS DEDICATION

The Wenksville Methodist Church will dedicate its 10-room educational unit and renovated church sanctuary Sunday evening with special services at which the Rev. Dr. Edgar A. Henry, superintendent of the Harrisburg District, will speak.

The act of dedication will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry and Donald Wenk, representing the building committee, will present the building to Dr. Henry for dedication.

The theme of the dedicatory sermon will be "The Chapel in Your Soul."

PASTORS RETURNING

The combined Junior and Senior choirs under the direction of Mrs. Max Cook, the pastor's wife, will sing. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn Tuckey at the organ and Jeffrey Tuckey at the piano.

A former pastor, the Rev. Eugene Steiner, now pastor of a Methodist Church in Harrisburg, will read the scripture and the Rev. Norman Marden, Shamokin, also a former pastor at Bendersville, will offer prayer.

Immediately after the dedication service there will be fellowship hour in the social hall of the education building. Women of the church will serve refreshments.

FOUNDED IN 1844

The steering committee for the dedication includes the pastor, the Rev. Max B. Cook; Maurice Pitzer Jr., chairman of evangelism; Donald Wenk, lay leader, and Maurice Black, Sunday School superintendent.

Services for the day will begin at 9 a.m. when the pastor will speak on the theme, "The Salt and the Light." The Sunday School hour will begin at 10 a.m. The dedicatory service in the evening will be at 7:30 o'clock. The history of the Wenksville (Continued On Page 3)

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Staff Writer WASHINGTON (AP)—A high school teacher who had to have another look at the Gettysburg battlefield got the glorious news today—that "moldy stuff" he scooped up last June is worth $54,200.

"I feel sick. My legs are still shaking. Wow."

And then, "I'm waiting for some confirmation."

That was George C. Rapport's response when told by a newsman that the cache of mutilated currency he turned in to the Secret Service in New York last July has a redemption value that the Treasury sets at $54,200.

Rapport has been waiting since then to hear from the government. The Massapequa Park, N.Y., man said that except for his wife Ruth, he has told nobody else about his find.

TOURED FIELD
"It would just be my luck to run into something and get into trouble," said Rapport, 46, a social studies teacher at a Bellmore, N.Y., high school.

Last June 26 the vacationing Rapports and their two children, Eileen 17, and Jack, 13, visited the Gettysburg battlefield in Pennsylvania.

They toured the Civil War site, but Rapport said: "You know how it is on a tour. Things go so fast you can't appreciate everything. So we went back."

Next day Rapport was walking by the Eternal Light Peace Memorial at the Gettysburg National Military Park. His wife and two children were in their car nearby.

ROTTED BUNDLE
On the ground lay a rotted bundle.

"There was no one around," Rapport recalls. He picked it up—"I had no idea what was inside"—and placed it in the trunk of the car.

BURGLARS IN UPPER ADAMS STEAL $800

Burglars, breaking into two upper county business places over night, took about $800 in cash and articles and did extensive damage to property in making the entrances.

State police were summoned this morning to the Arendsville Planning Mill and the Biglerville Warehouse Co. where entrances were made during the night. In both places doors were broken by the burglars.

At the warehouse the burglars broke open a safe, apparently with some type of tool, which made it impossible for the door to be closed this morning. A repairman has been summoned to determine whether the forced mechanism of the safe can be repaired. The cash drawer was ripped out of the cash register but repairmen were able to effect a repair of the cash register later this morning.

Between "$300 and $400" in cash and checks was taken from the warehouse. The burglars also took several packs of cigarettes owned by employees there. Otherwise they apparently took nothing, although they broke open a rear door to enter the warehouse proper and broke a door to a nearby building of the warehouse, but apparently took nothing there.

At Arendsville Planning Mill the loss was estimated at about $400. The burglars broke a door to enter, then took cash and hand and portable tools including a new sander and jig and a number of chains.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Lt. Col. John H. Eddy, professor of military science at Gettysburg College, is attending a two-day conference at Indiantown Military Reservation, where 38 officers assigned to Army ROTC programs in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia are studying administrative policies and procedures.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

Donald Hubbard, Gettysburg R. 1, was admitted Monday as a patient in the Carlisle Hospital where he will undergo surgery for a spinal condition. He expects to be in the hospital about 12 days.

SAY FAMILY'S BUDGET WILL NOT BE UPSET

By STERLING F. GREEN

Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Housewives, relax—for the time being anyway.

The government's economists see no danger that the autumn outbreak of price boosts in a dozen industries will unbalance the family budget.

Increases on items ranging from steel and aluminum to carpets and black pepper—was followed—perhaps by coincidence—by revival of a New York federal grand jury probe into steel-pricing policies.

UNDERScore HARMONY
Coincidental or not, that Justice Department move underscored President Kennedy's warning that Uncle Sam is "watching with concern" any price trend that might start an inflationary spiral.

Kennedy's Consumer Advisory Council, set up last year to give consumers a lobby in Washington, announced a special study of recent increases in steel, electrical equipment, aluminum and chemicals.

The council said it wants to find out whether the increases "appear to be justified from the consumer point of view."

MAY BE DECLINE
Arnold E. Chase, price chief for the Bureau of Labor Statistics, told an interviewer: "The wholesale price index for October may show a decline instead of an increase."

The increases on several steel products, even if passed all along the line to consumers, will be like those of last spring, Chase predicted: a few dollars on a car or tractor, a few dimes on a washer or refrigerator, but no measurable impact on the over-all cost of living.

Satellite Boosted Toward Polar Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force says a satellite vehicle was boosted toward polar orbit from this West Coast missile base, but refused to say whether orbit was achieved.

The space shot Tuesday used a Thor-Agena D combination rocket.

The thrust of the intermediate range, liquid-fuel Thor was increased to 330,000 pounds by three solid-fuel rockets strapped to its sides.

Such satellites frequently carry photographic equipment being developed for the Samos space spy system.

NO "REMATCH" OF ONE-PUNCH SOLONS' FIGHT

By GEOFFREY GOULD

Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep.

Henry Gonzalez is ready to fight, either "Marquis of Queensberry rules or alley

opponent, Rep. Ed Foreman, says "as far as I'm concerned

it's over with."

So no rematch of Tuesday's one-punch fight just off the floor of the House of Representatives is in prospect.

"DISERVICE"

Gonzalez and Foreman are both Texans. Foreman is 29 and husky. He's a Republican who espouses conservative causes.

Gonzalez is 47 and a Democrat who espouses liberal causes.

Foreman said, "I didn't call Gonzalez a pinko or a Communist. What I did say was that his ultra-liberal leftwing voting record was a disservice to the Constitution of the United States and furthers the Socialist-Communist cause."

Gonzalez was angered by a news story that quoted Foreman as calling him a pinko, and confronted his fellow Texan Tuesday on the House floor.

What happened next is in some dispute, but in the speaker's lobby just outside the House chamber Gonzalez gave Foreman a single punch on the shoulder.

"I'd still like to have it out with him man to man, but he's a Joto—that's Spanish for a yellow-livered sissy," Gonzalez said.

Foreman, discussing the incident later in his office, said "I played four years of college football. I'm 6-foot-4 and 200 pounds and I exercise regularly."

Gonzalez said he weighed in at 174 1/2.

Rate Boost Asked By Phone Company

HARRISBURG (AP)—The United Telephone Co. of Carlisle is seeking a $2,100 a year rate increase for its Howard exchange in Centre County.

The company asked the Public Utility Commission Tuesday to authorize the increase, effective Dec. 23.

The boost would range from 40 cents to $1 from the 403 subscribers in the exchange.

The company also asked to eliminate a 15-cent toll to the Bellefonte exchange of the Bell Telephone Co., a move expected to save United subscribers $2,500 a year. Bell already has asked permission to end tolls in the opposite direction.

GIRL SCOUTS ARE PLANNING 2 BUS TRIPS

Girl Scout Troop 786, sponsored by St. Francis Xavier Church, is engaged in a variety of activities, the most ambitious of which is the planning of a trip to New York City at the close of the current school year. Mrs. Hallette P. Harding, leader, has announced that the bus trip for the 19 members and their chaperones will be made on June 8, 9, and 10 and will include a tour of the United Nations building, attendance at a television program, and a visit to the New York World's Fair.

On Saturday the girls will travel to Washington, D.C., where they will visit the National Shrine, and Camp Rockwood in Bethesda, Md., national Girl Scout camp, and dine at a Japanese restaurant. The trip to the shrine is a partial fulfillment of requirements for the Marion Award, Catholic service award for Scouts, toward the earning of which the members are being instructed by Mrs. Romeo Capozzi, who will accompany the girls with Mrs. Lawrence Eckert Jr., Mrs. James Sneeringer, Mrs. Stanley Rogers, and Mrs. Harding.

RAISING FUNDS
Funds needed for the New York trip are being raised in part by a rummage sale to be held Nov. 8 and 9, in Xavier school, and a bake sale on Nov. 9. The sale will offer potted plants and white elephants as well. Posters advertising the sale were prepared by the troop members for distribution to local merchants and were judged for prizes by Mrs. Glenn Guise, proprietor of the Jack and Jill Shop. Awards were made to Pamela Eckert, Kay Sneeringer, Linda Oylar, and Donna Asper.

At their regular meeting Tuesday the troop participated in a Halloween costume party which featured ducking for apples and telling fortunes. Costume prizes were awarded by Mrs. Leo McDermitt, judge, as follows: Prettiest, Noreen Lovett; ugliest, Freda Hankey; and most original, Maxine Hess.

METEOR PIECES FOUND BY BOY

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Bright, blue fragments found in North Coudersport, Pa., probably came from a meteor, a physics professor said today.

If so, said Dr. Lyle Borst of the State University of New York at Buffalo, they would be of "great scientific value" in obtaining information on radiation levels outside the atmosphere.

Borst said he would have to test the fragments to determine definitely whether they were spewed to earth from a meteor.

"There's a 3-1 chance that it's a meteor," he said.

The objects were found Friday night by 10-year-old Scotty Stafford as he walked on a road alongside the home of Mrs. Donald Kelsey, Borst said.

They had "a strange and remarkable bright blue color that is almost unbelievable," the professor said.

He said he saw three or four pieces, the largest of which was about the size of a walnut. Stafford had given several other fragments to friends, Borst said.

If they came from a meteor, they probably fell to earth Friday because they were in a well-traveled location and would have been discovered quickly, Borst said.

BABY WALKS AT TWO WEEKS

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—"Of course he can't walk. He's too young," said the doctor. So Roger Eric Beutel stood up and walked across the bed, at the age of 2 weeks.

The baby's grandmother, Mrs. Jenny Nelson, said Wednesday the young youngster can support his own weight standing, needing an adult hand only to steady him. He walks with a slight stoop and leans into an adult arm across his chest, she said.

Roger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Beutel, took the matter in stride. They say their two other children, now 6 and 3, also walked at 2 weeks.

A Long Beach hospital said the earliest verified account of a baby's walking was at 27 weeks, or 6½ months. A pediatrician said he'd never heard of

COUNCIL OKAYS MODERN ART IN NEW CHURCHES

By BENNET M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted today to encourage the use of modern art forms in Roman Catholic Church construction and decoration.

But the document approved by the council warned against "some abstractions (in painting and sculpture) that are externally incomprehensible to Christian people and alien to their religious feeling."

The document, final chapter in the council's schema on public worship, also cautioned against excessive costliness in church construction and excessive decoration with statues and images.

FUTURE VOTES

Council fathers voted 1,838 to 9 to approve the chapter, which deals with sacred art and furnishings. Another 94 fathers approved, with reservations.

With today's vote in St. Peter's Basilica, the council fathers all but completed work on the public worship, or liturgy, schema. They still must vote on several amendments as a result of reservations expressed in votes earlier this month. But it appears likely they and Pope Paul VI will be able to promulgate the schema, with its wide reforms in Catholic worship, at a plenary session before the council recesses Dec. 4.

This would make the liturgy schema the council's first decree, and would give the green light for national bishops' conferences to carry out the reforms.

Among these are the use of modern languages, in place of Latin, in the Mass and in the sacraments, such as baptism and marriage.

4 TOP ELEVENS FACE HAZARDS OF ROAD TILTS

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

The dangers of the road face four of the nation's Top Ten college football teams this week and Navy Coach Wayne Hardin has turned psychologist in an effort to beat the hazard this Saturday at Notre Dame.

Fourth-ranked Navy, 5-1-0, is a favorite over the thrice-beaten Irish, 2-3-0, but the slick-talking coach wouldn't mind if it was the other way around. Underdogs have a way of coming up for these traditional battles.

Probably in the hopes of preventing a letdown by his Mid-dies, following their 24-12 conquest of all-conquering Pitt last Saturday, Hardin has painted a gloomy picture of what it means to be a visiting team playing in the shadow of the Golden Dome.

"DISADVANTAGE"
"It's a definite disadvantage to play on that campus," said Hardin Wednesday.

"You're looking for The Gipper (legendary halfback George Gipp) Knute Rockne, and others that you know aren't really there. But it still bothers you."

The coach may have been a little fanciful about South Bend, but his players are fully aware of the extra pressures of playing away from home. Only a few weeks ago, lightly regarded Southern Methodist tumbled the Mid-dies, 32-28, at Dallas.

Texas, 6-0-0, the Nation's No. 1 team and one of the four major college all-winners, faces the same SMU Mustangs in the Dallas Cotton Bowl. Third-ranked Mississippi, 4-0-1, invades the lair of the Louisiana State Tigers, 5-1-0, at Baton Rouge, La., and eight-ranked Wisconsin, 4-1-0, journeys to East Lansing, Mich., for a joust with the resurgent Spartans, 3-1-1.

ILLINI VS. PURDUE

The other six members of the elite Top Ten are at home this week, and tickled silly the schedule gives them the break.

That's especially true for Illinois, 4-0-1, the No. 2 team which entertains Purdue, 3-2-0; fifth-ranked Auburn, 5-0-0, which has Florida, 3-2-1, as its guest; seventh-ranked Alabama, 5-1-0, which has Mississippi State, 4-1-1, coming for a visit; and 10th-ranked Pitt, 4-1-0, which has plenty of trouble heading its way from the traveling Orangemen of Syracuse.

Ninth-ranked Ohio State, 3-1-1, probably doesn't need the advantages of home cooking against Iowa, 2-2-1, but isn't complaining. Sixth-ranked Oklahoma, 4-1-0, appears to have a softy this year in Colorado, 2-4-0, but still is glad it doesn't have to take on the Buffs in the thin air of the Rockies.

MAY ACQUIRE SHIPYARDS

NEW YORK (AP)—General Dynamics Corp. said today there have been some preliminary discussions with Bethlehem Steel Co. regarding the steel company's Quincy, Mass. shipyards.

However, a General Dynamics spokesman emphasized that the talks were "in their earliest stages" and that he couldn't even say whether they concerned a lease or some other arrangement.

"I don't think we are interested in the entire Shipbuilding Division of Bethlehem at Quincy," he added. His comment on a report that GD would like to buy the division for $150 million was, "I would like to know what we had that much money around."

The spokesman added that nothing firm had come out of the preliminary talks and that he was not sure the talks were still under way.

The Electric Boat Division of GD makes nuclear submarines. Bethlehem's New York office had no immediate comment.

World News

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Baghdad Radio claimed today that Kurdish rebels in North Iraq are surrendering in increasing numbers to the Iraqi army.

The rebels have been waging war for self-rule for two years.

PARIS (AP)—A two-stage French rocket has been fired to an altitude of 310 miles from a base in the Algerian Sahara. Gaston Palewski, minister of state for scientific research, announced today.

Palewski said the firing Wednesday was another test in an expanding French space program.

Pitchers Stan Williams and Hal Reniff of the New York Yankees are California residents. Williams was born in Enfield, N. H., and Reniff in Warren, Ohio.

Chicago Haircuts Increased To $2.25

CHICAGO (AP)—The price of haircuts in Chicago starting Nov. 18 probably will be one of the nation's highest—$2.25 daily except Saturday when a clipping will cost $2.50.

The Masters Barbers Association, by a vote of more than 3 to 1, agreed to hike the price of haircuts 25 cents, the first raise in the Chicago area since 1959.

An associate spokesman said he did not expect any decline in the barbers' business because of the raise, stating: "It is the American way to be neat and clean."

ROUT FRANKSTERS

One of the busiest spots in town Wednesday evening during the parade was Grant's Store on Chambersburg St. where boys on the roof of the building added to the excitement by dropping eggs and water on spectators below. Borough police were able to disperse the trouble-makers, but not before they had jammed the store's night buzzer with toothpicks to cause it to ring continuously.

Crash Follows Code Violation

Damages totaled $800 shortly after midnight Wednesday night when a Newville driver failed to stop at a blinker light at the intersection of Carlisle St. and Lincoln Ave.

Mark Danner, 33, Newville R. 1, operating an automobile owned by Richard Rupp, Camp Hill, was traveling west on Lincoln Ave., failed to stop for the traffic light and struck a car operated by Harry L. Reaver, Biglerville, driving north on Carlisle St. Danner was treated at the Warner Hospital for cuts of the face and arms and was discharged. Rupp, a passenger, was unhurt.

Reaver's car, a 1955 Buick sedan, was demolished. The Rupp car, a 1962 Chevrolet, was damaged to the extent of $500.

BAND PRIZES

Band prizes of $100 first, $75 second, and $50 third went to Delone Catholic High School, Chambersburg High School and Biglerville High School, respectively. $25 awards went to other bands. Among the other bands were the New Oxford High School, Fairfield High School, Taneytown High School, Smithsburg, Md., High School and Gettysburg Senior High School. The Gettysburg High School Band as per usual custom was not entered in the competition.

The ninth band in the procession caused the judges some debate as to what classification it should have, although all agreed that it was outstanding. The "Untouchables" played the music from the "Untouchables" TV show, while "secret service men" with sub machine guns "raked down gangsters" in a getaway car from which from time to time "bodies" dropped in the continuing gun battle between the gangsters and law enforcement men.

SORORITY WINS

Members of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, dressed as packs of cigarettes, won the $40 first prize for senior costumed groups. Girl Scout Troop 762 with a "Harvest Moon" group won the second award, $25, and the Fairfield Amvets Auxiliary with a "Hillbilly Wedding" was third, winning $15.

Four prizes were given for junior costumed groups. $30 first award went to Donna's Twirlettes; $25 to Girl Scout Troop 968; $15 to Girl Scout Troop 788, and $5 to Girl Scout Troop 757.

The $5 first prize for small decorated vehicles went to "A Touch of Autumn," a decorated beach boardwalk wheelchair with youngsters in it, wheeled by Cynthia Bollinger, Hanover; $4 second went to Terry Hankey, 125 W. ## Trawler Catches Dead Elephant ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP)—This is a fishing tale to top a lot of them—a trawler that caught an elephant.

The crew of the trawler Feithle returned to port today after a fishing trip in the North Sea and told of hauling up one of their nets with a dead elephant in it. A spokesman for the trawler owners said:

"We can only suppose that the elephant either fell from some ship that was taking it to a zoo somewhere, or that being taken to a zoo the animal died aboard some ship and was thrown overboard."

The Feithle dumped the elephant's body back into the sea.

Deep Snow And Cold Balk Rescuers Searching For Six Lost In Maine Woods

MILLINOCKET Maine (AP)—Relays of rescue teams, hindered by deep snow and severe winter-like conditions, pushed their searches today with diminishing hopes for six persons lost in Maine's northern wilderness.

The missing including four hunters, were caught by a double blast from near-blizzard storms that battered the state on two successive days with up to one and a half feet of snow and gale-force winds.

The ground search for a woman and a park ranger in the rugged basin area of mile-high Mt. Katahdin, north of Millinocket, was reinforced today by four experienced mountain climbers from the University of Maine.

WOMEN WERE MISSING

The missing woman, Mrs. Margaret Ivusic, about 50, of Boston, was camping on the mountain in balmy weather last weekend with a companion, Mrs. Helen Mower, Concord, Mass.

Mrs. Ivusic became exhausted Monday and stopped on the trail while Mrs. Mower went to the Baxter State Park Camp of ranger Ralph Heath, 37, of Sherman, for assistance.

Heath traced the trail used by the two widows and once exchanged calls with Mrs. Ivusic Monday but could not locate her. He set out again Tuesday morning just before a heavy snowstorm hit the mountain and hasn't been heard from since.

CAR IS FOUND

In Van Buren, searchers found a car used by two missing airmen stationed at Loring Air Force Base in Limestone. An air and ground search, however, failed to turn up any other trace of the pair.

Airmen 2C Charles Balonis of Weymouth, Mass., and Larry Baker, of Charles City, Iowa, were caught in Tuesday's snow while hunting in woods five miles south of Van Buren, near the Canadian border.

In Edinburg, near Bangor, an estimated 50 searchers covered large sections of woodland without success for Charles A. Jellison, 69, a retired banker and postal official. Jellison has been missing since Monday when he went hunting.

Near Presque Isle a search party set out Wednesday night for John Flannery, 19, of Fort Fairfield, reported missing on a hunting trip in the Squaw Pan Lake area.

Thomas To Close His Monday Show

The 49-year-old comic, in his 11th year with a network show now listed among the top 10, said, "I know I've said I plan to retire for the past several seasons. But this time I mean it."

He said he will accept motion picture offers and that he also plans six hour-long television specials.

Why quit now? said Thomas? "I can't think of a better time than when we're still on top."

The project was advanced during five pastorates. The Rev. William Hollingsworth, now pastor at a Simpson Methodist Church at Altoona, "planted the seed" from 1932-54, a church leader said. The Rev. Mr. Steiner, now at Trinity Church in Harrisburg, continued efforts on the project in 1955 and 1956.

The work was completed during the pastorate of the Rev. Mr. Marden. The church debt was reduced during the pastorate of the late Rev. Merrell Long in 1961 and 1962. Lamont Henninger, a former district superintendent, aided the project by securing a special grant from the Board of Missions and the Methodist Church.

Friends and former members of the church are invited to attend the dedicatory service.

Faculty salary schedule will average $13,000 to $14,000 a year, it was announced.

Dr. McGrath said that the new college will "combine the best features of the nation's liberal arts colleges," and will prepare students for acceptance in the highest academic institutions in the country. The school will operate on a trimester schedule to provide a degree in three years with one trimester abroad. Upon completion the school will provide one teacher for every 20 students and plans to staff its faculty with the most outstanding teachers in the country. The committee expects to be able to accept 250 resident and 50 day students for studies in 1965 and will increase facilities as rapidly as possible to reach the 1,500 student maximum.

300-ACRE CAMPUS

While Eisenhower College will not be restricted to any denomination, it has been endowed by the United Presbyterian Church Synod of New York, which has no other academic affiliation in the state or in New England. The campus will occupy 300 acres on the northern tip of Cayuga Lake, adjacent to Seneca Falls.

The committee for the promotion of the new school comprises professional men, industrialists and businessmen in the Seneca Falls area who are dedicated to educational advancements. On Dr. McGrath's advice the school will provide 40-45 hours of instruction in each of the 17 or 18 departments to prepare students for advanced study.

Early in the proposed program General Eisenhower appointed Dr. Milton Eisenhower to work with the committee on the formation of the college which will bear his name. Weekly reports have been forwarded to the general for his information on progress.

"We wanted to name our college for General Eisenhower, for he represents to us the finest example of educational and American leadership today," a committee spokesman said.

COAST GUARD

EXAM DEC. 7

Congressman George A. Goodling of the Adams, York, Cumberland district, today announced that the competitive examination for entrance to the U. S. Coast Guard Academy will be held nationwide on Dec. 7. The examinations for area boys will be given in York, Harrisburg and Chambersburg.

Goodling emphasized the opportunity offered qualified young men who choose this four-year course which leads to a commission as a career officer in America's oldest continuous seagoing armed service and a Bachelor of Science degree.

"Appointments are made on a competitive basis; there are no separate quotas for states or districts and no special categories," he said. "I urge all qualified young men who are interested in this worthwhile profession to write for details and application by November 8, to Congressman George A. Goodling, 135 Cannon office building, Washington 25, D. C."

A candidate for the next examination for the Coast Guard Academy must be single, must have reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1964 and must be in excellent physical condition.

A high school diploma is the minimum educational requirement, although high school seniors assured of being graduated by June 30, 1964 are eligible to take the examination if they will have at least 15 credits by that time. All applicants must have three units of English, two in algebra, and one in plane geometry by graduation.

The Gettysburg High School Band as per usual custom was not entered in the competition.

The ninth band in the procession caused the judges some debate as to what classification it should have, although all agreed that it was outstanding. The "Unteachables" played the music from the "Untouchables" TV show, while "secret service men" with sub machine guns "raked down gangsters" in a getaway car from which from time to time "bodies" dropped in the continuing gun battle between the gangsters and law enforcement men.

COAST GUARD EXAM DEC. 7

Congressman George A. Goodling of the Adams, York, Cumberland district, today announced that the competitive examination for entrance to the U. S. Coast Guard Academy will be held nationwide on Dec. 7. The examinations for area boys will be given in York, Harrisburg and Chambersburg.

Goodling emphasized the opportunity offered qualified young men who choose this four-year course which leads to a commission as a career officer in America's oldest continuous seagoing armed service and a Bachelor of Science degree.

"Appointments are made on a competitive basis; there are no separate quotas for states or districts and no special categories," he said. "I urge all qualified young men who are interested in this worthwhile profession to write for details and application by November 8, to Congressman George A. Goodling, 135 Cannon office building, Washington 25, D. C."

A candidate for the next examination for the Coast Guard Academy must be single, must have reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1964 and must be in excellent physical condition. A high school diploma is the minimum educational requirement, although high school seniors assured of being graduated by June 30, 1964 are eligible to take the examination if they will have at least 15 credits by that time. All applicants must have three units of English, two in algebra, and one in plane geometry by graduation.

CORRECTION

In the account of the death and burial of Howard J. Harner, James Ave., Littlestown, the last names of a survivor and pallbearer were misspelled. A daughter, Mrs. Gladys Crone, Gettysburg R. D., survives. A son-in-law, Richard Crone was a pallbearer.

GIRL SCOUTS ARE PLANNING 2 BUS TRIPS

Girl Scout Troop 786, sponsored by St. Francis Xavier Church, is engaged in a variety of activities, the most ambitious of which is the planning of a trip to New York City at the close of the current school year. Mrs. Hallette P. Harding, leader, has announced that the bus trip for the 19 members and their chaperones will be made on June 8, 9, and 10 and will include a tour of the United Nations building, attendance at a television program, and a visit to the New York World's Fair.

On Saturday the girls will travel to Washington, D.C., where they will visit the National Shrine, and Camp Rockwood in Bethesda, Md., national Girl Scout camp, and dine at a Japanese restaurant. The trip to the shrine is a partial fulfillment of requirements for the Marion Award, Catholic service award for Scouts, toward the earning of which the members are being instructed by Mrs. Romeo Capozzi, who will accompany the girls with Mrs. Lawrence Eckert Jr., Mrs. James Sneringer, Mrs. Stanley Rogers, and Mrs. Harding.

RAISING FUNDS

Funds needed for the New York trip are being raised in part by a rummage sale to be held Nov. 8 and 9, in Xavier school, and a bake sale on Nov. 9. The sale will offer potted plants and white elephants as well. Posters advertising the sale were prepared by the troop members for distribution to local merchants and were judged for prizes by Mrs. Glenn Guise, proprietor of the Jack and Jill Shop. Awards were made to Pamela Eckert, Kay Sneringer, Linda Oylar, and Donna Asper.

At their regular meeting Tuesday the troop participated in a Halloween costume party which featured ducking for apples and telling fortunes. Costume prizes were awarded by Mrs. Leo McDermitt, judge, as follows: Prettiest, Noeren Lovett; ugliest, Freda Hankey; and most original, Maxine Hess.

METEOR PIECES FOUND BY BOY

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Bright, blue fragments found in north Coudersport, Pa., probably came from a meteor, a physics professor said today.

If so, said Dr. Lyle Borst of the State University of New York at Buffalo, they would be of "great scientific value" in obtaining information on radiation levels outside the atmosphere.

Borst said he would have to test the fragments to determine definitely whether they were spewed to earth from a meteor.

"There's a 3-1 chance that it's a meteor," he said.

The objects were found Friday night by 10-year-old Scotty Stafford as he walked on a road alongside the home of Mrs. Donald Kelsey. Borst said.

They had "a strange and remarkable bright blue color that is almost unbelievable," the professor said.

He said he saw three or four pieces, the largest of which was about the size of a walnut. Stafford had given several other fragments to friends, Borst said.

If they came from a meteor, they probably fell to earth Friday because they were in a well-traveled location and would have been discovered quickly, Borst said.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—"Of course he can't walk. He's too young," said the doctor.

So Roger Eric Beutel stood up and walked across the bed, at the age of 2 weeks.

The baby's grandmother, Mrs. Jenny Nelson, said Wednesday the young youngster can support his own weight standing, needing an adult hand only to steady him. He walks with a slight stoop and leans into an adult arm across his chest, she said.

Roger's parents Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Beutel, took the matter in stride. They say their two other children, now 6 and 3, also walked at 2 weeks.

COUNCIL OKAYS MODERN ART IN NEW CHURCHES

By BENNET M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted today to encourage the use of modern art forms in Roman Catholic Church construction and decoration.

But the document approved by the council warned against "some abstractions (in painting and sculpture) that are externally incomprehensible to Christian people and alien to their religious feeling."

The document, final chapter in the council's schema on public worship also cautioned against excessive costliness in church construction and excessive decoration with statues and images.

FUTURE VOTES

Council fathers voted 1,838 to 9 to approve the chapter, which deals with sacred art and furnishings. Another 94 fathers approved, but with reservations.

With today's vote in St. Peter's Basilica, the council fathers all but completed work on the public worship, or liturgy, schema. They still must vote on several amendments as a result of reservations expressed in votes earlier this month. But it appears likely they and Pope Paul VI will be able to promulgate the schema, with its wide reforms in Catholic worship, at a plenary session before the council recesses Dec. 4.

This would make the liturgy schema the council's first decree, and would give the green light for national bishops' conferences to carry out the reforms.

Among these are the use of modern languages, in place of Latin, in the Mass and in the sacraments, such as baptism and marriage.

HOSPITAL REPORT

4 TOP ELEVENS FACE HAZARDS OF ROAD TILTS

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

The dangers of the road face four of the nation's Top Ten college football teams this week and Navy Coach Wayne Hardin has turned psychologist in an effort to beat the hazard this Saturday at Notre Dame.

Fourth-ranked Navy, 5-1-0, is a favorite over the three-beat-ers Irish, 2-3-0, but the slick-talking coach wouldn't mind if the other way around. Underdogs have a way of coming up for these traditional battles.

Probably in the hopes of preventing a letdown by his Mid-dies, following their 24-12 conquest of all-conquering Pitt last Saturday, Hardin has painted a gloomy picture of what it means to be a visiting team playing in the shadow of the Golden Dome.

"DISADVANTAGE"

"It's a definite disadvantage to play on that campus," said Hardin Wednesday.

"You're looking for The Gipper (legendary halfback George Gipp) Knute Rockne, and others that you know aren't really there. But it still bothers you."

The coach may have been a little fanciful about South Bend, but his players are fully aware of the extra pressures of playing away from home. Only a few weeks ago, lightly regarded Southern Methodist tumbled the Mid-dies, 32-28, at Dallas.

Texas, 6-0-0, the Nation's No. 1 team and one of the four major college all-winners, faces the same SMU Mustangs in the Dallas Cotton Bowl. Third-ranked Mississippi, 4-0-1, invades the lair of the Louisiana State Tigers, 5-1-0, at Baton Rouge, La., and eight-ranked Wisconsin, 4-1-0, Journeys to East Lansing, Mich., for a joust with the resurgent Spartans, 3-1-1.

ILLINI VS. PURDUE

The other six members of the elite Top Ten are at home this week, and tickled silly the schedule gives them the break.

That's especially true for Illinois, 4-0-1, the No. 2 team, which entertains Purdue, 3-2-0, fifth-ranked Auburn, 5-0-0, which has Florida, 3-2-1, as its guest; seventh-ranked Alabama, 5-1-0, which has Mississippi State, 4-1-1, coming for a visit, and 10th-ranked Pitt, 4-1-0, which has plenty of trouble heading its way from the traveling Orangemen of Syracuse.

Ninth-ranked Ohio State, 3-1-1, probably doesn't need the advantages of home cooking against Iowa, 2-2-1, but isn't complaining. Sixth-ranked Oklahoma, 4-1-0, appears to have a softy this year in Colorado, 2-4-0, but still is glad it doesn't have to take on the Buffs in the thin air of the Rockies.

MAY ACQUIRE SHIPYARDS

NEW YORK (AP)—General Dynamics Corp. said today there have been some preliminary discussions with Bethlehem Steel Co. regarding the steel company's Quincy, Mass. shipyards.

However, a General Dynamics spokesman emphasized that the talks were "in their earliest stages" and that he couldn't even say whether they concerned a lease or some other arrangement.

"I don't think we are interested in the entire Shipbuilding Division of Bethlehem at Quincy," he added. His comment on a report that GD would like to buy the division for $150 million was, "I would like to know that we had that much money around."

The spokesman added that nothing firm had come out of the preliminary talks and that he was not sure the talks were still under way.

The Electric Boat Division of GD makes nuclear submarines. Bethlehem's New York office had no immediate comment.

World News

Palewski said the firing Wednesday was another test in an expanding French space program.

Pitchers Stan Williams and Hal Reniff of the New York Yankees are California residents. Williams was born in Enfield, N. H., and Reniff in Warren, Ohio.

Chicago Haircuts Increased To $2.25

CHICAGO (AP)—The price of haircuts in Chicago starting Nov. 18 probably will be one of the nation's highest—$2.25 daily except Saturday when a clipping will cost $2.50.

The Masters Barbers Association, by a vote of more than 3 to 1, agreed to hike the price of haircuts 25 cents, the first raise in the Chicago area since 1959.

An associate spokesman said he did not expect any decline in the barbers' business because of the raise, stating: "It is the American way to be neat and clean."

ROUT FRANKSTERS

One of the busiest spots in town Wednesday evening during the parade was Grant's Store on Chambersburg St. where boys on the roof of the building added to the excitement by dropping eggs and water on spectators below. Borough police were able to disperse the trouble-makers, but not before they had jammed the store's night bumper with toothpicks to cause it to ring continuously.

HELICOPTER CRASHES ON TEST FLIGHT

BRIDGETON, N. J. (AP)—A helicopter on a test flight over southern New Jersey crashed and burned in a wooded area today after its two occupants parachuted to safety.

The two, Pilot James Brown, 31, of Lester, Pa., and copilot, Robert Will, 29, of Secane, Pa., were taken to Bridgeton Hospital for observation. Neither was injured.

Brown said the helicopter was owned by the Boeing Co., of Morton, Pa. He declined to say what caused the craft to become disabled.

"We're just delighted that the helicopter didn't land on anybody," Brown said. "We weren't over any populated area. We knew there was nothing down there."

TWO BAIL OUT

Brown said he and Will were making a test flight from the company and were in the air about an hour when they had to bail out. The helicopter crashed in a lightly wooded area off Irving Avenue in Deerfield Township, about four miles west of here.

Brown said he and Will came down nearby in a plowed field and were taken to the hospital by state police. They left for Philadelphia International Airport, where they had taken off, after examination at the hospital.

Brown said the two have been with the company about two years.

Effects Of Drought

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The fall drought and protracted heat spell across much of the nation were as much one man's meat as they were another's poison.

In the areas where forest fires laid waste thousands of acres of tinder-dry timberland there was agreement that the loss was high. But agreement ended there in a poll taken by The Associated Press.

Some states and communities reported the unseasonably warm and dry spell ruined crops, stunted winter wardrobe sales, cut tourist travel to a low and chopped damagingly into hunting equipment sales.

BOOSTED TRAVEL
Yet, the poll showed that the same unseasonable circumstances in other states and communities resulted in bumper crops, swelled sales in summer clothing, boosted fall travel to a high and delighted the sporting goods store operators with increased sales.

Except for a few instances, estimates of losses and gains were tentative and in round figures at best. In most cases it was said the losses and gains could not be determined for weeks or months to come.

For some unexplained reason, travel agents in some sections said, the protracted heat wave sent record numbers of tourists scrambling for winter cruise reservations.

CUT HUNTING

Because of the drought and accompanying hot weather, some states canceled their hunting seasons to keep sportsmen out of the parched woodlands and fields.

This brought a cutback in the sale of guns and ammunition and in fees collected for hunting and fishing licenses.

In other areas, the hot weather drove thousands into the woodlands and recreation areas where no restrictions were placed against their use.

The same lack of rain that stunted and shriveled up some crops, was a blessing for others that thrived beyond the highest expectations of farmers.

Alabama state officials set timber losses there at more than $500,000 with an overall loss in economy due to the drought and hot weather of more than $3.5 million. But record yields were reported in cotton, corn and some other crops due to the heat.

FOREST FIRES

Pennsylvania officials reported heavy forest fires and crop losses but declined any estimate. Losses were noted in hunting license revenues and gun and ammunition sales when the season was suspended. Travel business was off 40 per cent.

A New York state agriculture department spokesman said crop loss through drought and early frost amounted to about $3 million with a "wild guess" of $100,000 in timber losses due to fires.

In Colorado, the State Agriculture Department estimated a $50-million crop loss for the entire 1963 season, much of it attributed to the heat and drought.

Crash Follows Code Violation

Damages totaled $800 shortly after midnight Wednesday night when a Newville driver failed to stop at a blinker light at the intersection of Carlisle St. and Lincoln Ave.

Mark Danner, 33, Newville R. 1, operating an automobile owned by Richard Rupp, Camp Hill, was traveling west on Lincoln Ave., failed to stop for the traffic light and struck a car operated by Harry L. Reaver, Biglerville, driving north on Carlisle St. Danner was treated at the Warner Hospital for cuts of the face and arms and was discharged. Rupp, a passenger, was unhurt.

Reaver's car, a 1965 Buick sedan, was demolished. The Rupp car, a 1963 Chevrolet, was damaged to the extent of $800.

YOUTH HONOR DAY

Pat McLaughlin, varsity end is now a patient at the hospital as the result of a fractured leg received two weeks ago.

Just Curious: A Gettysburg motorist, whose curiosity led him to follow directional signs put up by an army unit during a recent visit in the southern section of the county is still going around shaking his head and wondering what it is all about.

The motorist was driving along the Emmitsburg road on the way to Gettysburg when he saw the first of the directional signs leading into a country lane. He followed the signs on and on, along the road after driving for about three miles he came to the last of the directional signs.

It read: "Turn Around."

Reports Prisoner On Air From Japan: A short-wave radio receiving station in Hopkins, Minnesota, addressed a communication to Mrs. Harry Pecher, Fairfield R. D., advising her that it had made a recording of a broadcast from Tokyo containing a message from her son, a prisoner of the Japs.

The communication states that the Tokyo broadcast said that Sergeant Henry B. Pecher, who was reported missing August 27, 1942, and then reported a prisoner of the Japs last May, "is in fair health and well, with love, Henry."

The Minnesota station said that the message was recorded along with other messages from prisoners of war in Japan.

Today's Talk

HAVE TWO MOVES

Most of us owe our health, and often our lives, to the fact that we have reserves stored away. We must be backed continually by something. Even a loan at the bank requires something back of it in the shape of a security.

One thing I recall especially, as the advice given to me by my mother — and that was that every man should have a trade in addition to his other life work, so that in times when everything in his regular line should become difficult he would have this trade to fall back upon. How many there are who have found this a good plan these later years!

We have savings accounts and take out insurance in order to safe-guard us and make us more efficient in our work at hand. Yet how few think of storing up ideas, and setting aside reserve plans, in case those in use might fall by the wayside or become obsolete.

He who keeps his eye upon the job ahead usually has two or more moves in reserve, to assure him promotion. It is all very well to risk much upon an idea that you believe in, but it is better to have another plan in training in case the first one fails. In other words, have two moves ready when the first is made!

No matter how good an idea the other fellow may have, there is always a better one. No one can produce the last word in anything. Otherwise there would be no progress and no incentive. Everything that we do is a preparation for something better. We ought never to forget this. Life should grow happier and happier each day.

H. L. Mencken, that brilliant Baltimore writer who died in 1956, was looked down upon by many as a rather pessimistic human being, yet he wrote a book about himself telling how happy he had been, and that he would have lived the same life over again if he had had the choice.

As for myself — and I believe others share the same view as regards themselves — I would want to live the second life on a greatly improved basis. I would want my second move to be better than my first.

DUUCK HUNTER'S WIFE

October and November are Lonely days for me.
I used to fret about them, but
Now no use I see,
For when his work is over and winds are cold and harsh,
He hears the mallards calling off yonder in the marsh.

When first I heard him saying he longed to go away
Where ducks were southward winging I begged of him to stay,
But while the fit was on him,
my tears he couldn't see,
Nor could he hear me telling how long I should be.

The marsh means something to him a woman cannot know,
And when he ducks are flying,
'tis there he has to go.
I'd call it bleak and bitter; the waters cold and grim,
But he has grown to love it and it's delight for him.

Time was I used to whimper to see him go away.
I thought since we were married,
with me he ought to stay.
But men are prone to madness as women folk agree,
And now I've settled to it, though lonely I shall be.

SEEK TO FREE
5 JAILED FOR INTEGRATION

By DON MCKEE

Associated Press Staff Writer
AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — Efforts to free five integration leaders from jail moved into a federal courtroom today on petitions for an injunction against state, county and city authorities.

A legal broadside in behalf of the youthful prisoners, held nearly three months, is aimed at blocking further prosecution of charges or arrests or other interference with integration activities.

Hearing the suits are Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of Atlanta, chief judge of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, and Dist. Judges J. Robert Elliott of Columbus and Lewis R. Morgan of LaGrange.

"INJURE, OPPRESS"

Complaints filed by attorneys for the prisoners charge that officials entered into a conspiracy "to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate citizens."

Four of the youths, charged with trying to incite insurrection, have been held without bail. The use of the state's 1871 insurrection law, which carries a maximum penalty of death, is without precedent in integration disputes.

Jailed on this charge were Donald Harris, 24, of New York, a Negro graduate of Rutgers University; John Perdue, 21, of Denver, a Harvard student; Ralph W. Allen, 22, of Melrose, Mass., a student on leave from Trinity College; and Zev Aelony, 25, of Minneapolis, former University of Minnesota student.

RIOT CHARGE

The fifth prisoner is Thomas McDaniel, 19, of Americus, a Negro. He is charged with riot, unlawful assembly, assisting escape and assault with intent; bond is set at $12,000. These charges also were filed against Harris, Perdue and Allen.

McDaniel, Harris, Perdue and Allen petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court Wednesday for help in gaining release on bond. The petition was filed for them by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. It said, "There is no basis for denial of reasonable bail to these petitioners except to deprive them of their rights of freedom of speech and assembly."

No Supreme Court action is expected until state officials have submitted a reply to the petition.

The arrests last August thwarted a month-long integration drive which included picketing of a segregated movie theater and street marches.

Rain, Snow, Cloudy Skies
Cover Wide Areas Of Nation

CHICAGO (AP)—Rain, snow and cloudy skies covered Northern areas of the nation today from the Rockies into New England.

More rain and snow pelted northern New England, ending the long drought in most areas. One to three inches of fresh snow fell in eastern parts of Maine and the season's first wintry storm dumped more than 18 inches of snow in some parts of the state.

Six persons, including four hunters, were lost in northern Maine wilderness areas in near-blizzard conditions.

Snow also fell in Wyoming and Colorado, with four inches in Leadville, Colo., and smaller amounts in Lander and Casper, Wyo.

RAIN IN MIDWEST

In the Midwest, still in need of heavy, steady rains to ease drought conditions, light rain fell from southern Wisconsin westward through South Dakota and northern Nebraska as well as into northern sections of Illinois and Indiana and western Lower Michigan.

The rain and snow in New England prompted officials in Maine, Massachusetts and Rhode Island to lift restrictions on outdoor burning and the public use of woodlands. Restrictions also were lifted in most of New Hampshire but continued in Vermont and three New Hampshire counties as well as in New York and New Jersey.

Sunny skies were indicated for most of the Atlantic Coast states except Maine. But more rain was in prospect from the southern Great Lakes region and lower Ohio Valley westward into the Central Rockies.

Mostly clear weather prevailed in other parts of the nation.

There were U.S. Sen. Joseph Clark; former Govs. David L. In fact, the head table listed 70 distinguished members of the party. So many, as it turned out, that no attempt was made to introduce them all individually. They all stood for a bow and applause at one time.

All County School Teams In Action Friday Night; GHS Entertains Newport

Scholastic football, fast nearing its conclusion, hits a high peak locally Friday night when all five of the county varsities will be in action, three on home fields. All games start at 8 o'clock.

Gettysburg High (3-5) hosts Newport (0-7) in a Blue Mountain League game in the Warriors' final home game of the season.

Biglerville (4-2-1) entertains Northern (3-4) in another BML game as the feature of home-coming for the Cannons.

At McSherrystown Delone (3-5) clashes with undefeated Westminster (6-0-1).

Littlestown (4-3-1) winds up its season at Hanover (6-2) in a nonleague game.

Bermudian Springs (1-5) goes against South Huntingdon (3-3) on the latter's field.

NEWPORT AT GETTYSBURG

With five losses against three wins on their record, the warriors need a victory against the Buffalos as well as next week at Biglerville to finish with a .500 mark.

Although Gettysburg will be heavily favored to win over winless Newport, Coach Don Young and his staff are working to eliminate any thought of overconfidence.

Coach Young today announced some probable alterations in the lineup. Ronnie Plank, back, who suffered contusions of the leg last week, will be limited to part time duty at the most and will be replaced by Carl Harvey. Jim Newman, another back, has been ill this week and his status is doubtful. Young revealed that Bob Selby, end, will not play against the Buffalos.

Pete DeQuinqua is coaching Newport for the first time and is attempting to bring the Buffalos up to other team levels in a long range program. Prior to this season Newport logged a 3-2-1 record in three campaigns.

Although Newport has scored but three touchdowns this season, the Buffalos are credited with having a deceptive set of ball-handlers in the backfield but usually lack the drive when approaching scoring territory.

There are six lettermen on the Newport squad which is made up primarily of underclassmen.

NORTHERN AT BIGLERVILLE

A big turnout is expected for this game which will be the annual home-coming contest for Biglerville.

Jack Emanuel, Biglerville mentor, reports his squad in good condition for the game in which a victory would go a long way in contributing to a good season.

There will be no change in the Cannon lineup which will include Terry Taylor and Richie Fair again alternating in the backfield on the offense. Both have performed well in that capacity recently. The Biglerville staff was well pleased a week ago with the play of their line-men. Bill Gardner and Ralph Beamer were particularly efficient as replacements for Melvin Mentzer and Don Heckman.

Northern started the season impressively with three victories in four starts but since have tallied off to lose to East Pennsboro, Gettysburg, Big Spring and Camp Hill.

The Polar Bears can be expected to do most anything when on the attack and have a capable field general in Ed Danner, quarterback, whose favorite target in Rick Stevens, end, another veteran who ranks with the best in pass receiving.

WESTMINSTER AT DELONE

A big task confronts the Delone Squires for the second successive weekend when they entertain the unbeaten Westminster Owls and Coach Bucky Kempton is faced with the difficult task of having his squad "up" for the second straight time.

Last week the underdog but fired-up Squires lost a heart-breaker to powerful McDevitt 13-6 in the closing seconds of play. They will have to come up with another fine effort if they are to upset the Owls.

For the first time since their opener, the Squires will be at full strength with the return of Mike Lawrence, linebacker, who has been out since being injured in the Chambersburg game on September 20.

Delone has been improving with each week of action and Kempton expects his squad to be ready for an all-out effort.

A 20-20 tie with South Hagerstown is the lone blot on an otherwise perfect record for Westminster. The Owls have won over Gettysburg 26-6, North Hagerstown 31-20, Bel Air 14-7, Waynesboro 20-13, Boonsboro 25-0 and Martinsburg, W. Va., 54-13.

Fred Glover Adds Points To Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Over the years Fred Glover has scored hundreds of goals to set an all-time record in the American Hockey League.

The 35-year-old veteran, now in his 16th AHL season as player-coach of the Cleveland Barons, upped his goal record to 436 Wednesday night by scoring twice as the Barons edged the Pittsburgh Hornets, 3-2.

Pittsburgh, tied with Rochester for the lead in the Eastern Division, twice took the lead on goals by Bob Dillabough and Chuck Holmes. Glover came through on each occasion to tie the score before Harris' winner.

DELONE FROSH DOWN CADETS

The Delone Catholic Freshmen finished their football campaign with a 3-3 record by downing Scotland 13-0 Wednesday at McSherrystown.

In the opening period the Squires drove 55 yards for a score, Don Emig, quarterback, crashing over from the four-yard line. Frank Weishaar added the point on a run.

Delone recovered a fumble on the Cadets' 20 to open the way for its second touchdown in the final period. After a series of short gains Emig passed to Bernie Elliott for six yards to put the ball on the four and then the same duo hooked up on another pass for the TD. Emig was stopped in his attempt to run for the point.

The Squires were handicapped in the game due to the absence of three regular backs because of injuries. Emig being the lone regular in action.

Xavier Gridders Lose To Cannons

The St. Francis Xavier School football team bowed to the Seventh and Eighth Grade outfit at Biglerville Wednesday evening 13-0.

Phil Carey plunged over from the two-yard line for Biglerville in the second period and Dave Hess carried for the point. In the third period Dick Hess tallied on a 15-yard end run.

St. Francis finishes its season Sunday afternoon at 2:30 when it opposes St. Joseph's at McSherrystown in a Conewago Parochial School League game.

Biglerville winds up next Wednesday by entertaining Littlestown.

Wins First Prizes At Photo Salon

Two Gettysburg photographers were awarded top prizes for entries in the 32nd annual Cumberland Valley Photographic Salon exhibition at the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, Hagerstown.

Dr. Francis Mason won two first prizes, one in black and white pictorial and one in black and white portraits. His pictorial entry was entitled "Pamlico Net Houses," and the portrait was "Norwood."

Maurice Stoops won a second prize in the black and white pictorial with "Lonely Gull." The judges selected 76 of 111 prints for hanging in the current show. Awards will be presented Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Museum Auditorium.

Rangers' Goyette Equals NHL Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Phil Goyette and the Boston Bruins go together like ham and eggs.

Goyette, who plays for the New York Rangers in the National Hockey League, equalled a league record with four assists in one period a week ago Sunday when the Rangers beat Boston 5-1 at Madison Square Garden.

The Bruins came back to the Garden ice Wednesday night and this time Goyette scored three goals and assisted on Vic Hadfield's winning goal with only 50 seconds left. The 4-3 New York victory boosted the Rangers into a tie for third with the Montreal Canadiens who lost to the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-3.

KENNEDY SAYS CIVIL RIGHTS IS "BIPARTISAN"

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Kennedy told a Democratic rally Wednesday night in Philadelphia—where racial tensions and the current election campaign are closely interwoven—that civil rights is not a partisan issue.

He spoke at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner in support of incumbent Mayor James H. J. Tate, who is seeking election Nov. 5 to a full four-year term. Tate has accused his Republican opponent, James T. McDermott, of "playing for the white vote." McDermott, denying the charge, says Philadelphia's present social climate is "as bad as it can be," because of indecisiveness by Tate.

Kennedy, departing from his prepared text, told some 11,000 gathered in Convention Hall that civil rights "is not a partisan issue or a Republican or Democratic issue. It is a matter of concern to all Americans."

Referring to his administration's efforts to obtain passage of civil rights legislation, he added, "and with bipartisan support, and that means Republicans as well as Democrats, we are putting forward legislation which is strong, just, effective, and reasonable, to ensure all Americans the rights and opportunities which they deserve."

KEY TO ELECTION

The civil rights problems facing Kennedy are also being played out in miniature in Philadelphia, and are viewed by many observers as the key issue in the mayoralty campaign here.

Negro demands for what they term fair practices in labor and housing have created a steadily increasing pressure which has erupted in recent months into occasional picket-line violence, teen-age slash-and-run attacks, and, just last week, rioting over the shooting of a Negro shoplifting suspect by a white policeman.

Dale Boyd, Gettysburg College halfback, will be out to set new Bullet pass receiving marks when the Bullets meet Lafayette here Saturday afternoon in the annual home-coming game. Boyd, a sophomore, has established two records. He has caught 27 passes for 507 yards this season to break the former mark of 26 catches by Harry Richter in 1960 and the former yardage total of 429 set by Dom Emert in 1947.

ALLEGHENY BACK IS TOP GRID SCORER

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Little Dave Wion of Allegheny College smashed into the end zone twice last Saturday for a pair of touchdowns that brought his team victory and him the state individual collegiate scoring leadership.

The latest Associated Press weekly survey showed Wion with 62 points on 10 touchdowns and a pair of conversion points in four games. Wayne Fullerton of Waynesburg also scored twice this past weekend and moved into second place with 60 points on 10 tds in six contests.

While Wion and Fullerton were busy scoring, California State's Frank Johnson, idle with an ankle injury, slipped from the lead to third place on his 52 points.

JOHNSON IDLE

Johnson tallied eight TDs and four conversion points in his first two games and has been idled since.

Wion, a 5-foot-9, 158-pound junior out of Bellefonte High School, plunged a yard with less than two minutes left to give Allegheny a 22-21 win over Wayne State. He also scored Allegheny's first td, from the 2, and ran across with a two-point conversion.

Fullerton ran seven-yards for one score and bowled over from the two in a 34-26 Waynesburg victory over tough Westminster. Waynesburg entertains Muskingum and Allegheny plays host to Bethany in next Saturday's competition. Should Johnson be able to play for California, he faces rugged Indiana State.

SNYDER HAS 32

Wion according to his coach, J. R. Chukran, is a deceptive runner who thrives on hard work. An excellent student, Wion's fine performance, says Chukran, stems from his will ingness to practice. A wrestler and a member of the track team he's one of the college's top athletes.

The rest of the field in the scoring derby is quite a bit off the pace. With Westminster's John Bailey and Temple's Joe Petro tied with 42 points each, Toby Barkman of East Stroudsburg, with 37, Joe Morelli of Temple with 36, Susquehanna's Don Green and Ken Snyder of Gettysburg each with 32, and nine others bunched at 30 points each.

Johnston, Boyd Leaders In MAC

Gettysburg College's Vance Johnston moved into the passing lead in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference this week after raising his three-game total to 21 completions in 42 attempts.

Johnston will miss this week's game with Lafayette due to an ankle injury.

Other leads remained the same as Mike Brown of Delaware continued to set the pace in rushing, total offense and scoring. Rick Taylor of Gettysburg maintained his superiority in the punting department and Dale Boyd of Gettysburg held the No. 1 position in pass receiving.

Brown, averaging 9.3 yards a carry, has piled up 306 yards in three conference games and has crossed the goal line six times.

NAMED MANAGER

NEW YORK (AP)—Gerry Waring, 39, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is the new general manager of the Williamsport Mets of the Class AA Eastern League.

The announcement was made Wednesday by the New York Mets as the National League baseball team completed arrangements for taking over Williamsport.

Williamsport, which did not operate last season, will replace the Mets' former farm club at Quincey, Ill., in the Midwest League. Williamsport is the first Mets' farm club to be owned outright.

NEW MARK SET BY LOMBARDI; BULLETS WIN

Behind the record-smashing performance of Jim Lombardi and Ed Salmon, the Gettysburg College cross country team rolled to its ninth straight dual meet victory of the season by squashing Dickinson 22-36 Wednesday afternoon on the Carlisle course.

Lombardi toured the four-mile layout in 23:35 minutes breaking the course record of 24:02. Salmon, who also finished under the old record time, came home in 23:55. Salmon added several seconds to his time when he tripped on a tree stump towards the end of the meet. The meet was run under cold and windy conditions.

Gordie Faulkner paced the host team with a third-place time of 24:09. Jerry Staub, Bob Linders and Bob Loomis contributed to the Bullet score by taking a fourth, seventh and eighth place, respectively.

17 STRAIGHT

Gettysburg, undefeated in dual meets, has now won 17 consecutive meets over a two-year period. The Bullets, 8-0 on the season, will finish the year with three straight home meets, tangle with Lafayette Saturday afternoon on the country club course.

The results: 1, Jim Lombardi, G., 23:35; 2, Ed Salmon, G., 23:55; 3, Gordie Faulkner, D., 24:09; 4, Jerry Staub, G., 24:27; 5, Mike Nemes, D., 24:40; 6, Dave Sleeper, D., 25:03; 7, Bob Linders, G., 25:07; 8, Bob Lomis, G., 25:31; 9, Gene Bagley, D., 25:50; 12, Bill White, D., 26:08.

BUDDY DIAL IS OUT TO EARN PASSING TITLE

By LOU PRATO
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pass-catching whiz Buddy Dial of the Pittsburgh Steelers, off to the best start of his career, would like nothing better than to grab the National Football League pass-receiving crown this season—well almost nothing.

"Dadgum if Ah wouldn't like to win that (title)," Dial mused in his cheerful Texas drawl. "But Ah also want to play on a championship team and we have the chance this year."

"Ah don't know which one Ah want more," he added. "Maybe Ah can have both."

STEELERS FOURTH NOW

Maybe. But not likely. He has a better chance at the receiving honor than the Steelers have at the NFL championship.

The Steelers currently are fourth in the Eastern Division 14 games behind front-running Cleveland. They're still in contention but with games left with the league's four powers—Green Bay, Cleveland, Chicago and New York—the odds against staying there are high.

But Dial, the former Rice All-America, is in an excellent position to capture the first pass-receiving title in his sensational five-year NFL career.

SECOND TO CONRAD

After seven games, Dial, the good-looking ex-choir boy, is second in pass receptions with 36, eight less than St. Louis' Bobby Joe Conrad. But his 751 yards gained is 120 yards better than the next man in that category—fleece Bobby Mitchell of Washington.

CELTICS NEED 11 MORE WINS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The champion Boston Celtics need 11 more victories to equal the longest winning streak at the start of the season in the National Basketball Association. It's a long haul, but the way the Celtics have been going they might do it.

With Johnny Havlicek and Tommy Heinsohn leading the attack the unbeaten Celtics won their fourth straight Wednesday night with a 108-102 march over the Detroit Pistons.

In other games the Philadelphia 76ers defeated the Baltimore Bullets 111-108, the St. Louis Hawks won their fourth in a row by walloping the New York Knicks 121-104 and Cincinnati beat the Los Angeles Lakers 115-107. The defeat knocked the Lakers out of first place in the Western Division. St. Louis took over.

The old Washington club reeled off 15 straight back in November and early December, 1948, to set the record for the longest winning streak at the start of a season. Boston is playing one game at a time and not worrying about any records, but the Celtics won 17 straight during the 1960 season; so it isn't something they haven't done before.

N. ILLINOIS, DELAWARE IN LEAD WITH AP

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Northern Illinois, with its record-breaking passing and catching combination of George Bork and Hugh Rohrschneider, and the classy Delaware Mud Hens dominated the voting today in The Associated Press' weekly small college football poll.

The all-conquering Midwesterners trounced Eastern Illinois 43-0 for their seventh victory of the season and maintained a solid hold on the No. 1 spot. They received three first-place votes and five for second from the special national panel of eight selectors for a total of 85 points. A week ago Northern Illinois received 66 points. Points are counted on a basis of 10 for first, nine for second, etc.

Delaware slipped past beaten Florida A&M and took over second with 55 points. The Mud Hens, who whipped Connecticut, a major college, 26-14 for their fifth victory, received three first-place votes and were named on all eight ballots for 55 points.

3RD DESPITE DEFEAT

Florida A&M suffered its first defeat, 14-12 to Tennessee State, but still received 43 points. This was good for third place.

All of the other members of the Top Ten with the exception of unbeaten McNeese State, La., were held over for another week. Massachusetts, a powerful Eastern minor, walloped Boston University, a major team, 21-0, and gained eighth place. The Redmen have won five of six games and tied unbeaten Harvard in the other. They were not in the first ten a week ago.

SAYS DOGS CAN BE ALLERGIC

Allergies are no longer man's exclusive prerogative, for dogs can be allergic, too, the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association says.

An allergy may be developed against virtually anything, from that expensive dog blanket purchased at a fashionable department store, through flea bites and chlorinated water, to a choice cut of beef.

For reasons which are not too well understood as yet, when an allergy develops there is a change in the body's reaction to a specific agent. Subsequent exposure to this same or similar agent causes an allergic reaction. There is good evidence that nutrition, hormonal imbalance and seasonal changes are predisposing factors.

The appearance of an allergic reaction is quite typical and, as a rule, comes on suddenly. Usually there is redness of the affected areas, swelling of the skin and severe itching.

The diagnosis of an allergy is not too difficult, but tracking down its cause can be extremely difficult, time consuming and expensive.

Patience and complete cooperation with the veterinarian attending the case will produce the quickest and most satisfactory results, the association points out.

RESCUE THREE MINERS FRIDAY

BROISTEDT, Germany (AP)—Three German miners, trapped for more than a week in a flooded iron mine, will be brought to the surface Friday morning, a spokesman for the mine management said today.

There had been speculation they might get out tonight.

Difficulties in constructing an effective air seal at the top of a rescue shaft delayed the drilling of the last section.

There were still 62 feet to be bored through to the gallery where the men have been imprisoned by floodwater since last Thursday.

The three were trapped 253 feet below the surface in a pocket of air compressed by water from a broken dam which claimed the lives of 40 other miners in the pit.

HAD DIFFICULTY

Air pressure in the gallery is more than double that on the surface. Drilling halted Wednesday to permit lining of the escape route with cement and steel piping. Air locks are to prevent a sudden escape of air at the final breakthrough that would release the pent up water over the three men.

Boring of the last section was held up through midafternoon because of trouble with the air seal.

CHICAGO BEARS STIR MUSCLES

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Bears are trying to move things that won't.

Three days each week they devote a few minutes of training to isometric exercises. They exert muscular force against stationary bars and benches. The muscles contract for a few seconds to their full extent.

The objective is to heighten muscle tone and increase strength, stamina and recuperative powers, says trainer Ed Rozy.

All County School Teams In Action Friday Night; GHS Entertains Newport

Scholastic football, fast nearing its conclusion, hits a high peak locally Friday night when all five of the county varsities will be in action, three on home fields. All games start at 8 o'clock.

Gettysburg High (3-5) hosts Newport (0-7) in a Blue Mountain League game in the Warriors' final home game of the season.

Biglerville (4-2-1) entertains Northern (3-4) in another BML game as the feature of home-coming for the Canners.

At McSherrystown Delone (3-5) clashes with undefeated Westminster (6-0-1).

Littlestown (4-3-1) winds up its season at Hanover (6-2) in a nonleague game.

NEWPORT AT GETTYSBURG

With five losses against three wins on their record, the warriors need a victory against the Buffalos as well as next week at Biglerville to finish with a 5-0 mark.

Although Gettysburg will be heavily favored to win over winless Newport, Coach Don Young and his staff are working to eliminate any thought of overconfidence.

Coach Young today announced some probable alterations in the lineup. Ronnie Plank, back, who suffered contusions of the leg last week, will be limited to part time duty at the most and will be replaced by Carl Harvey. Jim Newman, another back, has been ill this week and his status is doubtful. Young revealed that Bob Selby, end, will not play against the Buffalos.

Pete DeQuinqua is coaching Newport for the first time and is attempting to bring the Buffalos up to other team levels in a long range program. Prior to this season Newport logged a 3-2-1 record in three campaigns.

Although Newport has scored but three touchdowns this season, the Buffalos are credited with having a deceptive set of ball-handlers in the backfield but usually lack the drive when approaching scoring territory.

There are six lettermen on the Newport squad which is made up primarily of underclassmen.

NORTHERN AT BIGLERVILLE

A big turnout is expected for this game which will be the annual home-coming contest for Biglerville.

Jack Emanuel, Biglerville mentor, reports his squad in good condition for the game in which a victory would go a long way in contributing to a good season.

There will be no change in the Canner lineup which will include Terry Taylor and Richie Fair again alternating in the backfield on the offense. Both have performed well in that capacity recently. The Biglerville staff was well pleased a week ago with the play of their line-men. Bill Gardner and Ralph Beamer were particularly efficient as replacements for Melvin Mentzer and Don Heckman.

Northern started the season impressively with three victories in four starts but since have been off to lose to East Pennsboro, Gettysburg, Big Spring and Camp Hill.

The Polar Bears can be expected to do most anything when on the attack and have a capable field general in Ed Danner, quarterback, whose favorite target in Rick Stevens, end, another veteran who ranks with the best in pass receiving.

WESTMINSTER AT DELONE

A big task confronts the Delone Squires for the second successive weekend when they entertain the unbeaten Westminster Owls and Coach Bucky Kempton is faced with the difficult task of having his squad "up" for the second straight time.

Last week the underdog but fired-up Squires lost a heart-breaker to powerful McDevitt 13-6 in the closing seconds of play. They will have to come up with another fine effort if they are to upset the Owls.

For the first time since their opener, the Squires will be at full strength with the return of Mike Lawrence, linebacker, who has been out since being injured in the Chambersburg game on September 20.

Delone has been improving with each week of action and Kempton expects his squad to be ready for an all-out effort.

A 20-20 tie with South Hagerstown is the lone blot on an otherwise perfect record for Westminster. The Owls have won over Gettysburg 26-6, North Hagerstown 31-20, Bel Air 14-7, Waynesboro 20-13, Boonsboro 25-0 and Martinsburg, W. Va., 54-13.

Fred Glover Adds Points To Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Over the years Fred Glover has scored hundreds of goals to set an all-time record in the American Hockey League.

The 35-year-old veteran, now in his 16th AHL season as player-coach of the Cleveland Barons, upped his goal record to 436 Wednesday night by scoring twice as the Barons edged the Pittsburgh Hornets, 3-2.

Pittsburgh, tied with Rochester for the lead in the Eastern Division, twice took the lead on goals by Bob Dillabough and Chuck Holmes. Glover came through on each occasion to tie the score before Harris' winner.

DELONE FROSH DOWN CADETS

The Delone Catholic Freshmen finished their football campaign with a 3-3 record by downing Scotland 13-0 Wednesday at McSherrystown.

In the opening period the Squires drove 55 yards for a score, Don Emig, quarterback, crashing over from the four-yard line. Frank Weishaar added the point on a run.

Delone recovered a fumble on the Cadets' 20 to open the way for its second touchdown in the final period. After a series of short gains Emig passed to Bernie Elliott for six yards to put the ball on the four and then the same duo hooked up on another pass for the TD. Emig was stopped in his attempt to run for the point.

The Squires were handicapped in the game due to the absence of three regular backs because of injuries, Emig being the lone regular in action.

Rangers' Goyette Equals NHL Mark

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Phil Goyette and the Boston Bruins go together like ham and eggs.

Goyette, who plays for the New York Rangers in the National Hockey League, equalled a league record with four assists in one period a week ago Sunday when the Rangers beat Boston 5-1 at Madison Square Garden.

The Bruins came back to the Garden ice Wednesday night and this time Goyette scored three goals and assisted on Vic Hadfield's winning goal with only 50 seconds left. The 4-3 New York victory boosted the Rangers into a tie for third with the Montreal Canadiens who lost to the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-3.

KENNEDY SAYS CIVIL RIGHTS IS "BIPARTISAN"

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Kennedy told a Democratic rally Wednesday night in Philadelphia—where racial tensions and the current election campaign are closely interwoven—that civil rights is not a partisan issue.

He spoke at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner in support of incumbent Mayor James H. J. Tate, who is seeking election Nov. 5 to a full four-year term. Tate has accused his Republican opponent, James T. McDermott, of "playing for the white vote." McDermott, denying the charge, says Philadelphia's present social climate is "as bad as it can be," because of indecisiveness by Tate.

Kennedy, departing from his prepared text, told some 11,000 gathered in Convention Hall that civil rights "is not a partisan issue or a Republican or Democratic issue. It is a matter of concern to all Americans." Referring to his administration's efforts to obtain passage of civil rights legislation, he added, "and with bipartisan support, and that means Republicans as well as Democrats, we are putting forward legislation which is strong, just, effective, and reasonable, to ensure all Americans the rights and opportunities which they deserve."

KEY TO ELECTION

The civil rights problems facing Kennedy are also being played out in miniature in Philadelphia, and are viewed by many observers as the key issue in the mayoralty campaign here.

Negro demands for what they term fair practices in labor and housing have created a steadily increasing pressure which has erupted in recent months into occasional picket-line violence, teen-age slash-and-run attacks, and just last week, rioting over the shooting of a Negro shoplifting suspect by a white policeman.

Awards Contract At Valley Forge

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Authority awarded these contracts Wednesday.

Valley Forge Park, Chester County—Construction of an addition to the maintenance building, renovations to the wash room building, restoration of revolutionary war bake ovens, restoration of the carriage house and construction of a new parking area—$94,893; general construction—Bromwell and Rossi Construction Co. Dale Boyd, Gettysburg College halfback, will be out to set new Bullets pass receiving marks when the Bullets meet Lafayette here Saturday afternoon in the annual home-coming game. Boyd, a Sophomore, has established two records. He has caught 27 passes for 507 yards this season to break the former mark of 26 catches by Harry Richter in 1960 and the former yardage total of 429 set by Dom Emert in 1949.

ALLEGHENY BACK IS TOP GRID SCORER

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

Associated Press Sports Writer PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Little Dave Wion of Allegheny College smashed into the end zone twice last Saturday for a pair of touchdowns that brought his team victory and him the state individual collegiate scoring leadership.

The latest Associated Press weekly survey showed Wion with 62 points on 10 touchdowns and a pair of conversion points in four games. Wayne Fullerton of Waynesburg also scored twice this past weekend and moved into second place with 60 points on 10 tds in six contests.

While Wion and Fullerton were busy scoring, California State's Frank Johnson, idle with an ankle injury, slipped from the lead to third place on his 52 points.

JOHNSON IDLE

Johnson tallied eight TDs and four conversion points in his first two games and has been idled since.

Wion, a 5-foot-9, 158-pound junior out of Bellefonte High School, plunged a yard with less than two minutes left to give Allegheny a 22-21 win over Wayne State. He also scored Allegheny's first td, from the 2, and ran across with a two point conversion.

Fullerton ran seven-yards for one score and bowled over from the two in a 34-26 Waynesburg victory over tough Westminster. Waynesburg entertains Muskingum and Allegheny plays host to Bethany in next Saturday's competition. Should Johnson be able to play for California, he faces rugged Indiana State.

SNYDER HAS 32

Wion according to his coach, J. R. Chuckra, is a deceptive runner who thrives on hard work. An excellent student, Wion's fine performance, says Chuckra, stems from his willingness to practice. A wrestler and a member of the track team he's one of the college's top athletes.

The rest of the field in the scoring derby is quite a bit off the pace. With Westminster's John Bailey and Temple's Joe Petro tied with 42 points each, Toby Barkman of East Stroudsburg, with 37, Joe Morelli of Temple with 36, Susquehanna's Don Green and Ken Snyder of Gettysburg each with 32, and nine others bunched at 30 points each.

Johnston, Boyd Leaders In MAC

Gettysburg College's Vance Johnston moved into the passing lead in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference this week after raising his three-game total to 21 completions in 42 attempts.

Johnston will miss this week's game with Lafayette due to an ankle injury.

Other leads remained the same as Mike Brown of Delaware continued to set the pace in rushing, total offense and scoring. Rick Taylor of Gettysburg maintained his superiority in the punting department and Dale Boyd of Gettysburg held the No. 1 position in pass receiving.

Brown, averaging 9.3 yards a carry, has piled up 306 yards in three conference games and has crossed the goal line six times.

NAMED MANAGER

NEW YORK (AP)—Gerry Waring, 39, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is the new general manager of the Williamsport Mets of the Class AA Eastern League.

The announcement was made Wednesday by the New York Mets as the National League baseball team completed arrangements for taking over Williamsport.

Williamsport, which did not operate last season will replace the Mets' former farm club at Quincey, Ill., in the Midwest League. Williamsport is the first Mets' farm club to be owned outright.

NEW MARK SET BY LOMBARDI; BULLETS WIN

Behind the record-smashing performance of Jim Lombardi and Ed Salmon, the Gettysburg College cross country team rolled to its ninth straight dual meet victory of the season by squashing Dickinson 22-36 Wednesday afternoon on the Carlisle course.

Lombardi toured the four-mile layout in 23:55 minutes breaking the course record of 24:02. Salmon, who also finished under the old record time, came home in 23:55. Salmon added several seconds to his time when he tripped on a tree stump towards the end of the meet. The meet was run under cold and windy conditions.

Gordie Faulkner paced the host team with a third-place time of 24:09. Jerry Staub, Bob Linders and Bob Loomis contributed to the Bullets score by taking a fourth, seventh and eighth place, respectively.

17 STRAIGHT

Gettysburg, undefeated in dual meets, has now won 17 consecutive meets over a two-year period. The Bullets, 8-0 on the season, will finish the year with three straight home meets, tangle with Lafayette Saturday afternoon on the country club course.

The results: 1, Jim Lombardi, G., 23:55; 2, Ed Salmon, G., 23:55; 3, Gordie Faulkner, D., 24:09; 4, Jerry Staub, G., 24:27; 5, Mike Nemec, D., 24:40; 6, Dave Sleeper, D., 25:03; 7, Bob Linders, G., 25:07; 8, Boz Lomis, G., 25:31; 9, Gene Bagley, D., 25:50; 12, Bill White, D., 26:08.

BUDDY DIAL IS OUT TO EARN PASSING TITLE

By LOU PRATO

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pass-catching whiz Buddy Dial of the Pittsburgh Steelers, off to the best start of his career, would like nothing better than to grab the National Football League pass-receiving crown this season—well almost nothing.

"Dadgum if Ah wouldn't like to win that (title)," Dial mused in his cheerful Texas drawl. "But Ah also want to play on a championship team and we have the chance this year."

"Ah don't know which one Ah want more," he added. "Maybe Ah can have both."

STEELERS FOURTH NOW

Maybe. But not likely. He has a better chance at the receiving honor than the Steelers have at the NFL championship.

The Steelers currently are fourth in the Eastern Division 1½ games behind front-running Cleveland. They're still in contention but with games left with the league's four powers—Green Bay, Cleveland, Chicago and New York—the odds against staying there are high.

But Dial, the former Rice All-America, is in an excellent position to capture the first pass-receiving title in his sensational five-year NFL career.

SECOND TO CONRAD

After seven games, Dial, the good-looking ex-choir boy, is second in pass receptions with 36, eight less than St. Louis' Bobby Joe Conrad. But his 751 yards gained is 120 yards better than the next man in that category—fleece Bobby Mitchell of Washington.

CELTICS NEED 11 MORE WINS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The champion Boston Celtics need 11 more victories to equal the longest winning streak at the start of the season in the National Basketball Association. It's a long haul, but the way the Celtics have been going they might do it.

With Johnny Havlicek and Tommy Heinsohn leading the attack the unbeaten Celtics won their fourth straight Wednesday night with a 108-102 march over the Detroit Pistons.

In other games the Philadelphia 76ers defeated the Baltimore Bullets 111-108, the St. Louis Hawks won their fourth in a row by walloping the New York Knicks 121-104 and Cincinnati beat the Los Angeles Lakers 115-107. The defeat knocked the Lakers out of first place in the Western Division. St. Louis took over.

The old Washington club reeled off 15 straight back in November and early December, 1948, to set the record for the longest winning streak at the start of a season. Boston is playing one game at a time and not worrying about any records, but the Celtics won 17 straight during the 1960 season; so it isn't something they haven't done before.

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Amy Miller, mother of nationally known harness race driver and trotting executive Delvin Miller, died Wednesday night in Washington hospital. She was 72.

CHICAGO BEARS STIR MUSCLES

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Bears are trying to move things that won't.

Three days each week they devote a few minutes of training to isometric exercises.

They exert muscular force against stationary bars and benches. The muscles contract for a few seconds to their full extent.

The objective is to heighten muscle tone and increase strength, stamina and recuperative powers, says trainer Ed Rozy.

Tackle Stan Jones says he can feel the surge of power in his legs after the exercises. Fullback Rick Casares says: "I don't think isometrics will ever replace spinach."

Just Curious: A Gettysburg motorist, whose curiosity led him to follow directional signs put up by an army unit during a recent visit in the southern section of the county is still going around shaking his head and wondering what it is all about.

The motorist was driving along the Emmitsburg road on the way to Gettysburg when he saw the first of the directional signs leading into a country lane. He followed the signs on and on, along the road after driving for about three miles he came to the last of the directional signs.
It read: "Turn Around."

Reports Prisoner On Air From Japan: A short-wave radio receiving station in Hopkins, Minnesota, addressed a communication to Mrs. Harry Pecher, Fairfield R. D., advising her that it had made a recording of a broadcast from Tokyo containing a message from her son, a prisoner of the Japs.

The communication states that the Tokyo broadcast said that Sergeant Henry B. Pecher, who was reported missing August 27, 1942, and then reported a prisoner of the Japs last May, "is in fair health and well, with love, Henry."

The Minnesota station said that the message was recorded along with other messages from prisoners of war in Japan.

HAVE TWO MOVES

Most of us owe our health, and often our lives, to the fact that we have reserves stored away. We must be backed continually by something. Even a loan at the bank requires something back of it in the shape of a security.

One thing I recall especially, as the advice given to me by my mother — and that was that every man should have a trade in addition to his other life work, so that in times when everything in his regular line should become difficult he would have this trade to fall back upon. How many there are who have found this a good plan these later years!

We have savings accounts and take out insurance in order to safeguard us and make us more efficient in our work at hand. Yet how few think of storing up ideas, and setting aside reserve plans, in case those in use might fall by the wayside or become obsolete.

He who keeps his eye upon the job ahead usually has two or more moves in reserve, to assure him promotion. It is all very well to risk much upon an idea that you believe in, but it is better to have another plan in training in case the first one fails. In other words, have two moves ready when the first is made!

No matter how good an idea the other fellow may have, there is always a better one. No one can produce the last word in anything. Otherwise there would be no progress and no incentive. Everything that we do is a preparation for something better. We ought never to forget this. Life should grow happier and happier each day.

H. L. Mencken, that brilliant Baltimore writer who died in 1966, was looked down upon by many as a rather pessimistic human being, yet he wrote a book about himself telling how happy he had been, and that he would have lived the same life over again if he had had the choice.

As for myself — and I believe others share the same view as regards themselves — I would want to live the second life on a greatly improved basis. I would want my second move to be better than my first.

DUCK HUNTER'S WIFE

October and November are lonely days for me. I used to fret about them, but now no use I see, For when his work is over and winds are cold and harsh, He hears the mallards calling off yonder in the marsh.

When first I heard him saying he longed to go away Where ducks were southward winging I begged of him to stay,

But while the fit was on him, my tears he couldn't see, Nor could he hear me telling how long I should be.

The marsh means something to him a woman cannot know, And when he ducks are flying, 'tis there he has to go. I'd call it bleak and bitter; the waters cold and grim, But he has grown to love it and it's delight for him.

Time was I used to whimper to see him go away. I thought since we were married, with me he ought to stay.

But men are prone to madness as women folk agree, And now I've settled to it, though lonely I shall be.

SEEK TO FREE 5 JAILED FOR INTEGRATION

By DON MCKEE
Associated Press Staff Writer
AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — Efforts to free five integration leaders from jail moved into a federal courtroom today on petitions for an injunction against state, county and city authorities.

A legal broadside in behalf of the youthful prisoners, held nearly three months, is aimed at blocking further prosecution of charges or arrests or other interference with integration activities.

Hearing the suits are Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of Atlanta, chief judge of the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, and Dist. Judges J. Robert Elliott of Columbus and Lewis R. Morgan of LaGrange.

"INJURE, OPPRESS"
Complaints filed by attorneys for the prisoners charge that officials entered into a conspiracy "to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate citizens."

Four of the youths, charged with trying to incite insurrection, have been held without bail. The use of the state's 1871 insurrection law, which carries a maximum penalty of death, is without precedent in integration disputes.

Jailed on this charge were Donald Harris, 24, of New York, a Negro graduate of Rutgers University; John Perdue, 21, of Denver, a Harvard student; Ralph W. Allen, 22, of Melrose, Mass., a student on leave from Trinity College; and Zev Aelony, 25, of Minneapolis, former University of Minnesota student.

RIOT CHARGE
The fifth prisoner is Thomas McDaniel, 19, of Americus, a Negro. He is charged with riot, unlawful assembly, assisting escape and assault with intent; bond is set at $12,000. These charges also were filed against Harris, Perdue and Allen.

McDaniel, Harris, Perdue and Allen petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court Wednesday for help in gaining release on bond.

The petition was filed for them by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. It said, "There is no basis for denial of reasonable bail to these petitioners except to deprive them of their rights of freedom of speech and assembly."

No Supreme Court action is expected until state officials have submitted a reply to the petition.

Rain, Snow, Cloudy Skies Cover Wide Areas Of Nation

CHICAGO (AP)—Rain, snow and cloudy skies covered Northern areas of the nation today from the Rockies into New England.

More rain and snow pelted northern New England, ending the long drought in most areas. One to three inches of fresh snow fell in eastern parts of Maine and the season's first wintry storm dumped more than 18 inches of snow in some parts of the state.

Six persons, including four hunters, were lost in northern Maine wilderness areas in near-blizzard conditions.

Snow also fell in Wyoming and Colorado, with four inches in Leadville, Colo., and smaller amounts in Lander and Casper, Wyo.

RAIN IN MIDWEST

In the Midwest, still in need of heavy, steady rains to ease drought conditions, light rain fell from southern Wisconsin westward through South Dakota and northern Nebraska as well as into northern sections of Illinois and Indiana and western Lower Michigan.

The rain and snow in New England prompted officials in Maine, Massachusetts and Rhode Island to lift restrictions on outdoor burning and the public use of woodlands. Restrictions also were lifted in most of New Hampshire but continued in Vermont and three New Hampshire counties as well as in New York and New Jersey.

Sunny skies were indicated for most of the Atlantic Coast states except Maine. But more rain was in prospect from the southern Great Lakes region and lower Ohio Valley westward into the Central Rockies.

Mostly clear weather prevailed in other parts of the nation.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A glittering array of Pennsylvania Democrats turned out Wednesday night to hear—and cheer—President Kennedy, and, of course, to boom the candidacy of Mayor James H. J. Tate for a four-year term.

There were U.S. Sen. Joseph Clark; former Govs. David L. Lawrence and George Leader; Richardson Dilworth, former mayor and the party's latest nominee for governor; Congressman Bill Green, the city Democratic boss; the party's two statewide candidates in next Tuesday's election, Paul W. ## Goldwater Calls JFK's Program 1,000-day Flop

By WALTER MEARS

Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater has called President Kennedy's economic program a 1,000-day flop—and suggested that New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller join him in attacking the Democratic administration instead of other Republicans.

The Arizona senator said Rockefeller's criticism of his stands—which has been concentrated on Goldwater foreign policy views—is not doing the Republican party any good.

He told a news conference Wednesday night Republicans should join in training their sights on Kennedy and the Democrats, not on each other.

AMERICANS BEWILDERED

In the speech that followed, Goldwater said Kennedy's economic leadership has Americans "bewildered, incredibly confused and badly defensive about the basic sources of this nation's historic economic strength."

Goldwater told some 1,500 business leaders that administration economic measures add up to "nearly a thousand days of wasted spending, wishful thinking, unwarranted interventions, wishful theories and waning confidence."

"One thousand days of barely concealed conflict with the very system of enterprise on which the nation has been built and on which much of the world must depend," Goldwater called it.

He told the banquet sponsored by the business magazine "Financial World" that under Kennedy "the dollar, which is and must remain the free world's fiscal anchor, faces its gravest challenge since the turn of the century."

AID FOR BUSINESSMEN

He said there is talk of devaluing the dollar—"and let me remind you that this devaluation could come in spite of anyone's desire not to have it happen."

Goldwater said if he won the nomination and the White House, his first economic move would be to "get off the back of American businessmen."

The senator said he would ask Congress to overhaul the nation's tax laws from top to bottom.

In his address, Goldwater said the tax structure "represses business expansion, distorts the use of resources and is today one of, if not our major, economic problems."

DESIGNERS AID HOME FASHION IN MANY WAYS

Fall is home decorating time. Major organizations of interior design field conduct busy home clinics, forums, shows throughout the country to teach women the way of home fashion.

Scope of interior design interest grows, and 30 states now designate a National Interior Design Month.

There are more than 25,000 practicing interior designers in the United States, points out the chairman of the event, Tim Gray, of the National Society of Interior Designers. It is estimated that more than 27 billion dollars is spent annually on home furnishings. One billion of it is spent by interior designers in behalf of their clients.

BIG, LITTLE JOBS

Their range of professional activities vary from providing slipcovers in a home to doing complete homes, ships, airplanes, offices, and even representing clients at auctions.

Some designers are consulted on matters of table settings, art acquisitions, party arrangements, and in the purchase of linens and garden furniture. Some even serve as fashion consultants.

One reason for the rise of the interior designer in recent years may be public awareness that the average home designer does not charge a fee, but relies on commissions made by buying furnishings at wholesale prices and charging the client retail prices, furnish floor plan, color scheme and ideas for as little as $25. The consultation often results in a savings of more than that amount, points out one interior designer.

Sometimes there is disappointment in a designer's work.

"Anyone employing an interior designer should become thoroughly acquainted with his abilities. The qualifications of professionals can be checked," says Arturo Pini di San Miniato. He is newly elected president of the National Society of Interior Designers.

Some homemakers rely upon recommendations of friends, others seek out established names in their community, and in some communities interior designers have become status symbols.

But no one need feel underprivileged if he can't afford to hire an interior designer. Trends and ideas in newspapers and magazines can be followed.

Many shows with room settings help neophytes in their selection

NEVER MISSED HOUR'S WORK IN 46 YEARS
BOSTON (AP)—William F. Dailey is precise about leaving his house at 7:10 a.m. every weekday. He's careful he doesn't miss the 7:25 a.m. commuter train from Bedford, Mass., to Boston.

At 8:30 he begins his day as general plant personnel supervisor for the New England Telephone Co. Dailey, 64, has less than two months to go to complete a working career of 46 years with a remarkable attendance record.

NEVER MISSED HOUR
Not only has he never missed

a day of work; he's never even missed an hour.

In 1919, he recalls he started early and walked more than seven miles through a raging blizzard, but he got to work on time.

Dailey credits his wife and three children for his attendance record.

He says his wife keeps him in top health by rejecting any out-of-package meals in favor of old-fashioned dinners which she starts in midafternoon.

The three children all were born on their father's day off.

Head Of Legion
Backs Project 70
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Commander Regis F. Cusick Jr. of the State American Legion is urging Pennsylvania voters to approve two measures in the general election next Tuesday. He said Wednesday the Legion would like citizens to approve Project 70, which is a plan to create and redevelop parks and recreation areas, and to approve an amendment to the state Constitution to allow the state to make loans to worthy students for higher education. "These are two of the most important issues to face Pennsylvania voters in a long time," Cusick said, "since the two amendments are making plans for the future generations of Pennsylvania."

SAYS "QUIET REVOLUTION" TAKING PLACE

By NEIL GILBRIDE

Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—A "quiet revolution" in race relations is taking place in the nation's factories and workshops, says the man who runs day-to-day operations of President Kennedy's equal employment program.

"We're not talking about race any more. We're talking about human beings," says Hobart Taylor Jr.

Taylor, 42 and a Negro lawyer from Detroit, is executive vice chairman of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity.

CORRECTIVE ACTION

The committee, which has vast power to stop discrimination in a contract or program involving the federal government, has taken corrective action in about 3,000 cases out of approximately 5,000 complaints so far in its two years of existence.

"But this does not begin to touch the number of people that have been helped," Taylor said in an interview today in his office in the Labor Department.

Taylor likes to cite as an example the committee's success in persuading U.S. Steel Corp.'s Tennessee Coal and Iron Division in Birmingham, Ala., to erase racial lines in promotion and seniority.

NO RACIAL TROUBLE

The program caused not a ripple of racial trouble, Taylor said, even though it began when Negroes were demonstrating in Birmingham earlier this year.

While only 15 Negroes in the Birmingham plant had lodged complaints, the action helped about 7,000 others who worked there. The plant has some 30 per cent Negro workers.

Taylor works under Vice President Lyndon Johnson, the committee chairman, and Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, vice chairman.

NO CANCELLATION

He estimated the equal employment program applies to some 22 million workers—those working for firms under federal contracts involving billions of dollars a year, and federal government employees.

Although the committee is the first such body to have enforcement powers, Taylor is proud of the fact that it has never had to cancel a federal contract to get compliance.

"We've been on the verge of it but never had to do it," he said.

Goldwater Calls JFK's Program 1,000-day Flop

By WALTER MEARS
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater has called President Kennedy's economic program a 1,000-day flop—and suggested that New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller join him in attacking the Democratic administration instead of other Republicans.

The Arizona senator said Rockefeller's criticism of his stands—which has been concentrated on Goldwater foreign policy views—is not doing the Republican party any good.

He told a news conference Wednesday night Republicans should join in training their sights on Kennedy and the Democrats, not on each other.

AMERICANS BEWILDERED

In the speech that followed, Goldwater said Kennedy's economic leadership has Americans "bewildered, incredibly confused and badly defensive about the basic sources of this nation's historic economic strength."

Goldwater told some 1,500 business leaders that administration economic measures add up to "nearly a thousand days of wasted spending, wishful thinking, unwarranted intervention, wistful theories and waning confidence."

"One thousand days of barely concealed conflict with the very system of enterprise on which the nation has been built and on which much of the world must depend," Goldwater called it.

He told the banquet sponsored by the business magazine "Financial World" that under Kennedy "the dollar, which is and must remain the free world's fiscal anchor, faces its gravest challenge since the turn of the century."

AID FOR BUSINESSMEN

He said there is talk of devaluing the dollar—"and let me remind you that this devaluation could come in spite of anyone's desire not to have it happen."

Goldwater said if he won the nomination and the White House, his first economic move would be to "get off the back of American businessmen."

The senator said he would ask Congress to overhaul the nation's tax laws from top to bottom.

In his address, Goldwater said the tax structure "represses business expansion, distorts the use of resources and is today one of, if not our major, economic problems."

DESIGNERS AID HOME FASHION IN MANY WAYS

Fall is home decorating time. Major organizations of interior design field conduct busy home clinics, forums, shows throughout the country to teach women the way of home fashion.

Scoops of interior design interest grows, and 30 states now designate a National Interior Design Month.

There are more than 25,000 practicing interior designers in the United States, points out the chairman of the event, Tim Gray, of the National Society of Interior Designers. It is estimated that more than 27 billion dollars is spent annually on home furnishings. One billion of it is spent by interior designers in behalf of their clients.

BIG, LITTLE JOBS

Their range of professional activities vary from providing slipcovers in a home to doing complete homes, ships, airplanes, offices, and even representing clients at auctions.

Some designers are consulted on matters of table settings, art acquisitions, party arrangements, and in the purchase of linens and garden furniture. Some even serve as fashion consultants.

One reason for the rise of the interior designer in recent years may be public awareness that the average home designer does not charge a fee, but relies on commissions made by buying furnishings at wholesale prices and charging the client retail prices, furnish floor plan, color scheme and ideas for as little as $25. The consultation often results in a savings of more than that amount, points out one interior designer.

Sometimes there is disappointment in a designer's work.

"Anyone employing an interior designer should become thoroughly acquainted with his abilities. The qualifications of professionals can be checked," says Arturo Pini di San Miniato. He is newly elected president of the National Society of Interior Designers.

Some homemakers rely upon recommendations of friends, others seek out established names in their community, and in some communities interior designers have become status symbols.

But no one need feel underprivileged if he can't afford to hire an interior designer. Trends and ideas in newspapers and magazines can be followed.

Many shows with room settings help neophytes in their selection

visor for the New England Telephone Co.

Dailey, 64, has less than two months to go to complete a working career of 46 years with a remarkable attendance record.

NEVER MISSED HOUR

Not only has he never missed

a day of work; he's never even missed an hour.

In 1919, he recalls he started early and walked more than seven miles through a raging blizzard, but he got to work on time.

Dailey credits his wife and three children for his attendance record.

He says his wife keeps him in top health by rejecting any out-of-a-package meals in favor of old-fashioned dinners which she starts in midafternoon.

The three children all were born on their father's day off.

Head Of Legion Backs Project 70

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Commander Regis F. Cusick Jr. of the State American Legion is urging Pennsylvania voters to approve two measures in the general election next Tuesday.

He said Wednesday the Legion would like citizens to approve Project 70, which is a plan to create and redevelop parks and recreation areas, and to approve an amendment to the state Constitution to allow the state to make loans to worthy students for higher education.

"These are two of the most important issues to face Pennsylvania voters in a long time," Cusick said, "since the two amendments are making plans for the future generations of Pennsylvania."

Steel Band Club Saves Youth From Delinquency

NEW YORK (AP) — The theme song in one area of the Lower East Side could well be "Those Steel Bands Are Breaking up That Old Gang of Mine."

And they are, says Murray Narell, youth director of the Educational Alliance, a community center on East Broadway. He is responsible for introducing the drums to youths who form the bands.

"It's the greatest program I've ever encountered as a delinquency preventive project," says Narell, youth worker for 15 years. Negro and Puerto Rican children have enormous identification with this type of music. We had tried just about everything in this area. But in three years with the steel bands we've achieved a goal; there is no incipient gang warfare."

NEW PAN ALLEY

Steel drum music originated in the 40s in Trinidad where it is called pan music. The drums are made from oil drums, the type used by the Navy.

Youths in Narell's area do not dig culture, he points out, so piano and violin training are a waste of time. Narell put some youths on bongos but the interest didn't last. One day he took a group to hear a steel band performance at a church. It clicked.

After acquiring drums and a few months of training, the boys were able to give minor performances. Three years ago Narell began the steel band program for the Educational Alliance.

"Ordinarily these youths don't hope to achieve anything great. They can't earn praise as students or athletes. But the drums have changed everything. They have acceptance from adult audiences and adulation from teen-age girls. For the first time on their lives they are winning he explains.

HELP FROM TRINIDAD

Narell has from 12 to 19 bands operating, and could organize 50, the demand is that great. Each band has from five to eight youths in it.

Trinidad's steel music originated — as sounds created by striking bent metal. Then the tops of discarded oil drums were manipulated to sound 30 notes and variables depending on the thickness of the metal. Some notes overlap in a band to cover nearly the full range of the piano.

The drums cost about $25 and the government of Trinidad has helped by giving the Alliance a full set. Last year Trinidad awarded a trip to the island to a winning member in a competition so that he could meet Trinidad's steel band experts. The island will make a similar award this year.

The 11 to 17-year-olds are so anxious to get in a band that the community center can make some demands on them. Thus, some of them are responding to routine and organization for the first time in their lives.

DECISIONS TO MAKE

"They must attend rehearsals regularly, be prompt, take instruction from an adult, make group decisions on songs to be played and whether to play at a free performance. They must learn to share responsibility, and carry heavy drums when necessary on trips."

The aim of the Educational Alliance is to change negative behavior patterns to more positive ones, and the steel band program meets their objective.

These youths serve others by playing at children's hospitals, psychiatric wards, institutions. They are paid for private parties. The $25 to $100 fee is split, half going to the Alliance to cover expenses, half to the band's fund group parties and trips.

The Alliance is supported by the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies and Mobilization for Youths. Though sectarian it has an open-door policy. Fifteen Chinese youths have a string quartet. There is judo, fencing, orchestra, dramatic groups and theaters. But the greatest enthusiasm is for the steel drums, Narell says.

The 1906 Athletics scored only three runs in the World Series against the Giants. They all came in the second game as Chief Bender beat Joe McGinnity, 3-0. Christy Mathewson turned in three shutouts.

INDIAN TRIBES PLAN REVIVAL OF OLD DANCES

By MURRAY SINCLAIR

TUCSON (AP) — Two ancient customs of the Papago and Pima Indians have vanished, but one may be on the verge of a revival.

The keepers of the sticks have disappeared. They were the tribal and family historians.

And the makers of the masks are inactive, but may be ready to stage a comeback.

Papago leaders are getting tired of seeing their youngsters copying the dances of the Pueblo and Plains Indians which they pick up at commercial powwows. Now, through the Boy Scouts, they may teach them the almost forgotten dances of the Papagos.

NEED MASKS

To do this they will need masks. Once the man who made the masks for the tribal religious ceremonies was a man of skill and importance.

Then, as the Indians adopted more of the ways of the white man, the mask makers went out of business. For a while, the old masks and ceremonial regalia were used. When these wore out, the dances virtually died.

"There are still people on the reservation who know how to make the masks, and there may be a resurgence of interest," Dr. Bernard Fontana, ethnologist for the Arizona State Museum at the University of Arizona, explained.

"When they start to teach the boys the traditional dances, they must also show them how to make the costumes and the masks."

STICKS GONE

But the talking sticks are gone forever.

Apparently not one is being kept on the entire reservation.

Most were kept by individuals, who carved symbols and designs on straight pieces of wood to tell of all important happenings. The sticks were broken when the owner died.

On rare occasions a son would pay tribute to his father by copying or continuing his father's stick. The Arizona State Museum has one of these. Its five-foot length embraces decades of Papago history.

The stick tells of wars with Mexicans, of raids by Apaches and the capturing of many children. Then the stick records "Apaches are now civilized. There will be no more wars." There weren't.

TELLS OF CONTEST

The stick tells of the coming of the white man, feast days, and records the great Sonoran earthquake of 1887. Late entries tell of the start of World War II, and the death of members of the family in an automobile accident.

Until recently the "living" sticks helped government census takers. The tribesmen were willing to cooperate, but couldn't give the year or exact place of their birth from memory.

So they would bring out their sticks and give details.

But the sticks became less important as the tribe became more literate. And now they are another of the red man's customs that has disappeared.

URGES MIXED POLICE TEAMS

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Integrated teams of policemen should be used to help quell racial disturbances, a Negro policeman from Philadelphia feels.

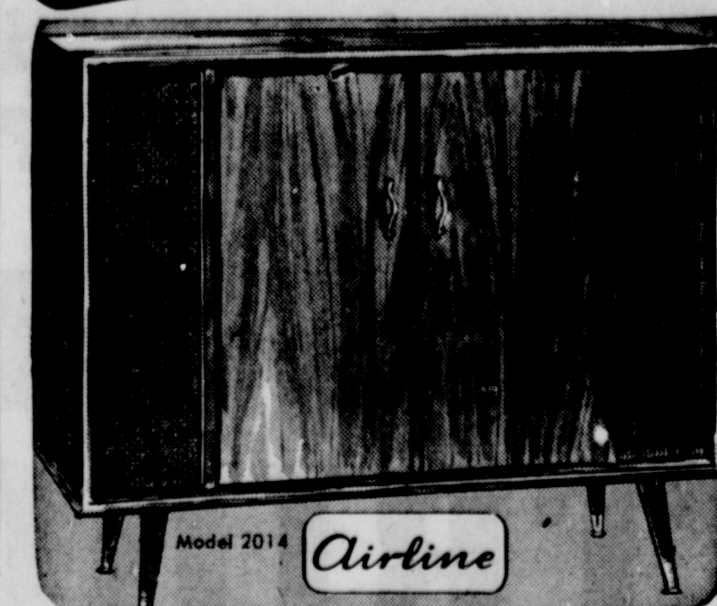

Alphonso Deal, the policeman said Tuesday that by using integrated teams, groups in racially tense areas can see "that progress is being made in the field of racial relations."

Deal, president of the Philadelphia Guardian Civic League, an organization of 150 Negro policemen and park guards, also said, "In those disputes where there is racial tension, it is easy for groups to feel that persons of another race are not giving them fair treatment."

Deal is also second vice president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

He was interviewed while attending the conference of the Council of Police Societies Inc.

U. S. Jumps Into Race To Building Supersonic Airliner

By FRANCIS STILLLEY

AP Newsfeatures Writer

The big international race to build a supersonic airliner is on at last, but there may be many a bump on the ground before the first one takes to the air.

Still, prospects seem good that passengers will be winging through the lofty skies at 50 miles an hour or better by 1970 and maybe even earlier.

The hot competition is between the United States and a British-French combination. Russia also may have similar plans in the works — and most likely does — though precise information is lacking.

JOINT UNDERTAKING

In the United States the project, fostered by President Kennedy himself, will be a joint undertaking of the government and private industry. It will be a billion dollar program directed by the Federal Aviation Agency.

In Europe the British Aircraft Corp. and Sud Aviation of France have joined forces under a $450 million subsidy of their respective governments. Their plans call for a supersonic transport or SST as the type of aircraft is designated, to be operated under the name Concorde.

TOOLING UP

The British-French work is a good deal ahead of that in the U.S. at the present time. Design drawings have been released to shops, which are in the process of tooling up.

The Concorde is scheduled to be ready for delivery to airlines before 1970. Its maximum speed is listed at 1,500 miles an hour.

American airlines and manufacturers have been generally lukewarm to the SST idea since it was first advanced by President Kennedy some months ago. With huge investments in the current supersonic jets, plus the necessity of buying more in the near future, they have warily eyed the vast costs required for the distant SST.

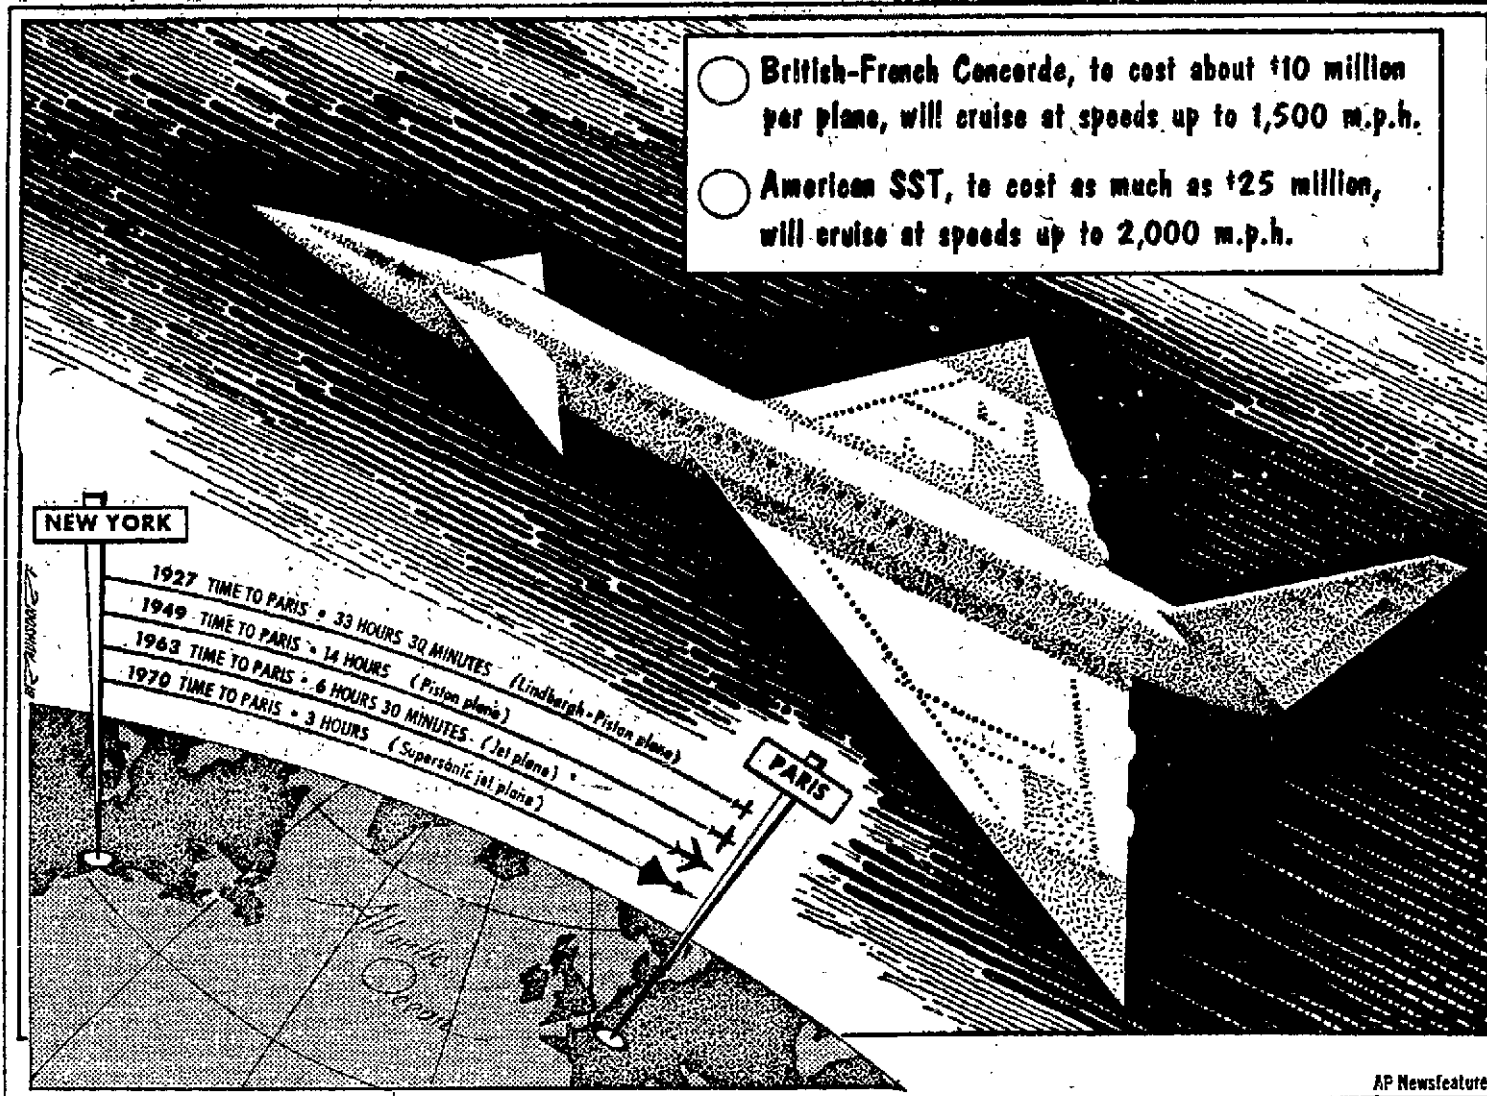

Nevertheless, a few days ago the development program finally got the impetus it needed by a shove-off from four airlines. They announced they would buy 28 SSTs.

ORDER 21 PLANES

Pan American World Airways and Trans World Airlines, two major international carriers, announced that they had deposited more than $2 million in down payments on a total of 21 planes.

American Airlines, a major domestic carrier, said it was ready to make a deposit of $1.5 million toward purchase of six craft. The Flying Tiger Line, largely a freight carrier, said it would take two SSTs.

The American SST is to be

- British-French Concorde, to cost about $10 million per plane, will cruise at speeds up to 1,500 m.p.h.
- American SST, to cost as much as $25 million, will cruise at speeds up to 2,000 m.p.h.

capable of speeds up to 1,630 miles an hour at first. Such a plane would be capable of making the trip from New York to Paris in three hours, in comparison with the present six and a half.

2,0 MILES PER HOUR

Eventually the American SST is expected to reach 2,000 miles an hour.

Three U.S. aircraft manufacturers and three airplane engine designers are engaged in preliminary SST design being conducted by the Federal Aviation Agency.

The schedule calls for an operational plane by 1973, but competition from the British-French combine most likely will bring an advancement in the date.

The Concorde is expected to sell for about $10 million per plane, whereas the American SST may cost as much as $25 million.

For competitive reasons, some American lines have had to place orders for the Concorde. Pan American has asked six, American four and Continental Airlines three. Most likely others will follow suit in time.

"A LOSER"

Alan S. Boyd, chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board, is none too happy about the economic prospects of either the Concorde or American SST.

In recent testimony before the Senate Aviation Subcommittee he termed the Concorde "a loser," and said the outlook for airline profits on the American craft was equally dismal.

"Unlike the present jets, the possibility of supersonic aircraft achieving important economies over predecessor types is dubious."

One drawback of the supersonic planes is their cost in comparison with the present big jets, which sell for about $5.5 million.

Another is the carrying capacity, which may be little if any greater than the jets.

And the saving in travel time between points is likely to prove of small economic benefit, at least at first.

Nevertheless, it seems apparent that just as the jet replaced the slower piston-engine plane the supersonic craft must succeed the jet.

President Kennedy put it this way:

KELSO WON'T RUN SATURDAY

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Kelso will be missing from Saturday's $100,000 Man O' War Stakes at Aqueduct, but one of the top grass course battles of the year shaped up today with announcement that Never Bend will meet The Axe 2nd and others in the 1 1/2-mile grind.

Capt. Harry F. Guggenheim, owner of Never Bend, and trainer Woody Stephens had deliberated between the Man O' War and the $50,000 Trenton Handicap at Garden State Park. Never Bend was the 1962 champion 2-year-old and in his last start whipped Chateaugay in the Yankee Handicap at Suffolk Downs.

A field of 10 looms for the Aqueduct event, with Never Bend and Greentree Stable's The Axe 2nd the standouts. The Axe won several major grass races this year and on Oct. 19 took the Canadian Championship at Toronto's Woodbine, breaking the course record.

Other probabilities are Hill-N-Dale Farm's Bronze Babu, one of the nation's most consistent grass specialists. F. # ADAMS COUNTY VOTERS

Should Know These Accomplishments

In order to give you an idea concerning the responsibilities of a County Commissioner I would like to cite some of the outstanding accomplishments that have been completed in the last few years by the Board of County Commissioners.

1. Conewago and Cumberland Townships were divided into two voting districts. Numerous voting places were changed, to Fire Houses where possible thus giving the revenue to the Fire Company for their important work. This plan set up a uniform scale of rent.
2. A new County Home was built without the necessity of floating a bond. This lifted the standard care of the aged to 97% of the need. Fourteen Foster Homes were set up and some are in use.
3. The Topper building next to the Courthouse was purchased directly from the Topper estate and approved by the Court. This was done as an insurance for further expansion.
4. On request of the Court, the Courtroom was soundproofed, air-conditioned and installed with new lights. On recommendation of the Grand Jury, the Jury Room was redecorated together with the Judges' Chambers.
5. The Bar Association noted that the Registrar's Office space should be enlarged. This was done along with vault and filing cabinets. Time clocks were purchased for the Offices of Prothonotary, Clerk of Courts Register and Recorder. A system to microfilm all deeds was installed. This condenses filing space and reduces the cost of secretarial staff.
6. The Child Welfare was changed to larger quarters in the Topper building. A full-time Director and Case Worker were employed bringing this department up to required standards.
7. Upon renovation of the Topper building, the Agriculture Extension office was given larger quarters which were requested by them and which they badly needed.
8. A parking lot was finished at the rear of the Topper building to accommodate the officer holders who not only worked in their office but had to travel at times over the county.
9. Mapping rooms were set up in the basement of the Courthouse to carry on the county mapping program as required by the State Equalization Board. Instead of hiring a mapping firm as some counties did, this county is doing its own work at an estimate saving of $60,000.
10. The exterior of the Courthouse was cleaned, restored and painted. The result is a Courthouse of which we can all be justly proud. We need not, therefore, build a new one at a tremendous cost as so many of our neighboring counties have done.
11. Seven new bridges were constructed and repairs made on others.
12. A new increased scale of reimbursement to Township from the County has been set up. A new bookkeeping system was installed to conform with 6th class county regulations.

These, of course, are not all the achievements of the past few years. I could cite many more. But the most outstanding fact is that all this has been done without raising your tax millage these past four years. Other taxes, OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO CONTROL, have risen but not your County tax.

A County Commissioner, as you can see, has a tremendous responsibility. He needs to know his county's needs and, then, have the qualified business ability to solve these problems.

U. S. Jumps Into Race To Building Supersonic Airliner

By FRANCIS STILLEY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The big international race to build a supersonic airliner is on at last, but there may be many a bump on the ground before the first one takes to the air.

Still, prospects seem good that passengers will be winging through the lofty skies at 50 miles an hour or better by 1970 and maybe even earlier.

The hot competition is between the United States and a British-French combination. Russia also may have similar plans in the works — and most likely does — though precise information is lacking.

JOINT UNDERTAKING

In the United States the project, fostered by President Kennedy himself, will be a joint undertaking of the government and private industry. It will be a billion dollar program directed by the Federal Aviation Agency.

In Europe the British Aircraft Corp. and Sud Aviation of France have joined forces under a $450 million subsidy of their respective governments. Their plans call for a supersonic transport or SST as the type of aircraft is designated, to be operated under the name Concorde.

TOOLING UP

The British-French work is a good deal ahead of that in the U.S. at the present time. Design drawings have been released to shops, which are in the process of tooling up.

The Concorde is scheduled to be ready for delivery to airlines before 1970. Its maximum speed is listed at 1,500 miles an hour.

American airlines and manufacturers have been generally lukewarm to the SST idea since it was first advanced by President Kennedy some months ago.

With huge investments in the current superjets plus the necessity of buying more in the near future, they have warily eyed the vast costs required for the distant SST.

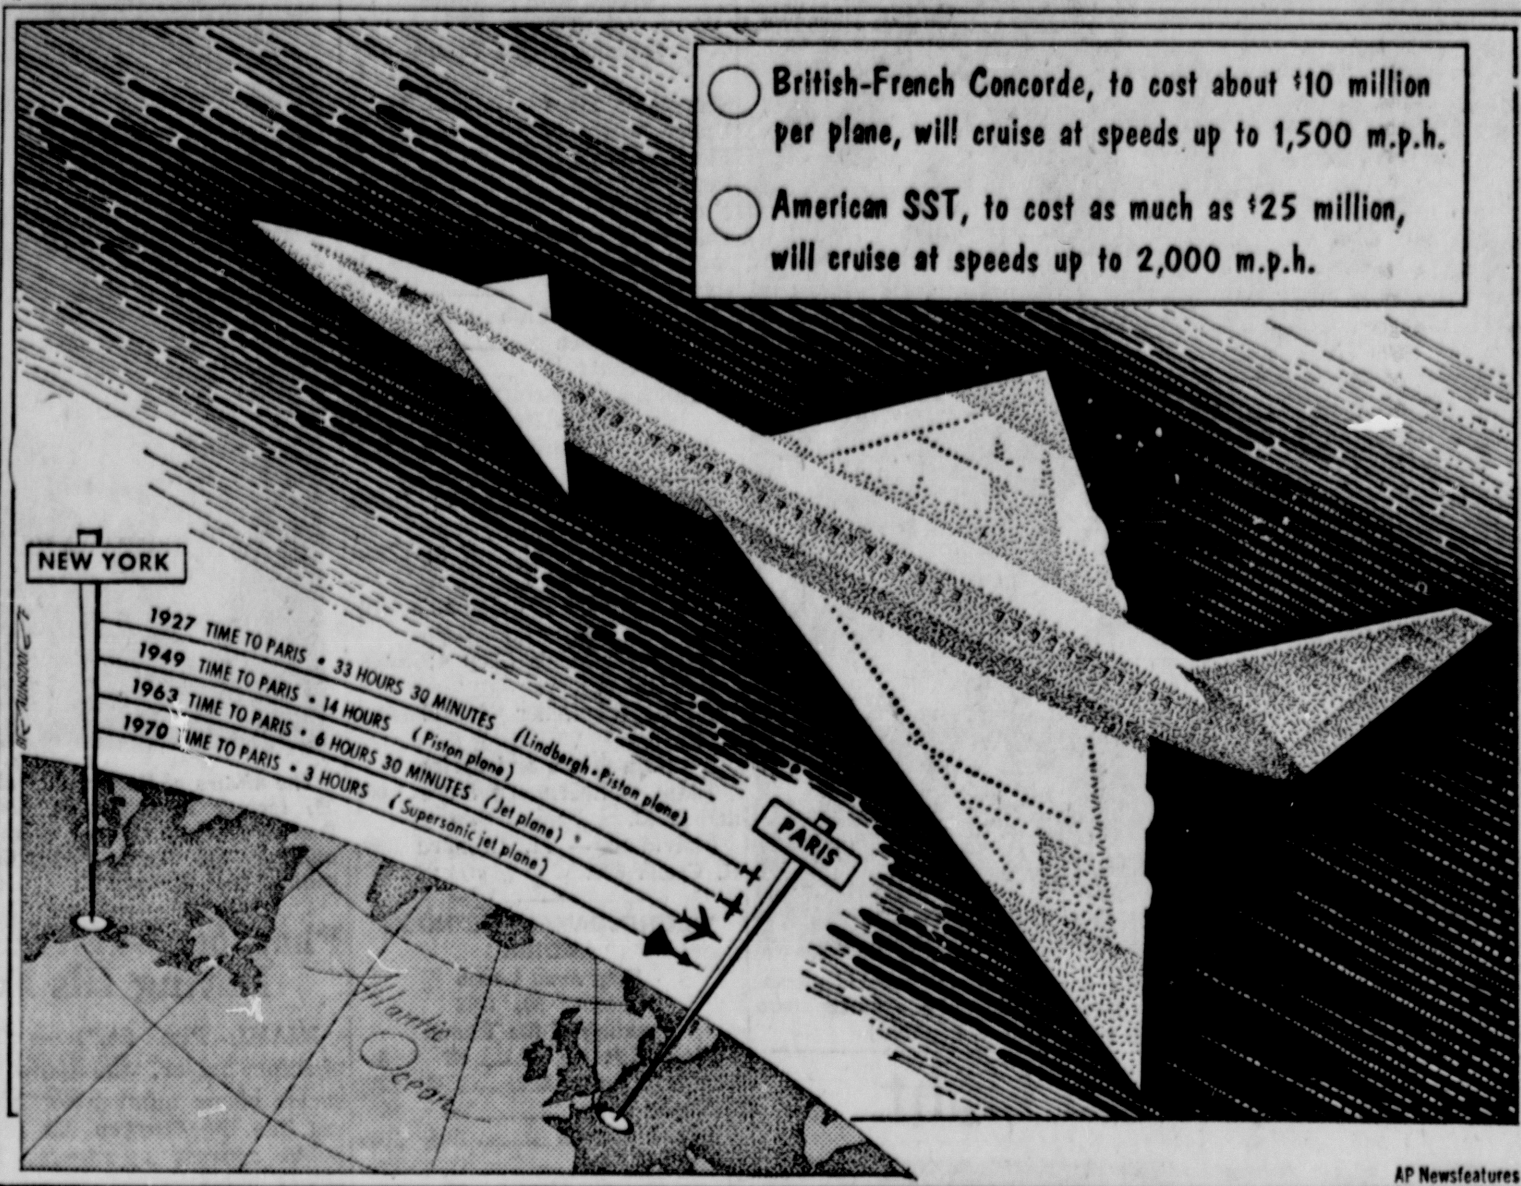

Nevertheless a few days ago the development program finally got the impetus it needed by a shove-off from four airlines. They announced they would buy 29 SSTs.

ORDER 21 PLANES

Pan American World Airways and Trans World Airlines, two major international carriers, announced that they had deposited more than $2 million in down payments on a total of 21 planes.

American Airlines, a major domestic carrier, said it was ready to make a deposit of $1.5 million toward purchase of six craft. The Flying Tiger Line, largely a freight carrier, said it would take two SSTs.

The American SST is to be capable of speeds up to 1,650 miles an hour at first. Such a plane would be capable of making the trip from New York to Paris in three hours, in comparison with the present six and a half.

2,0 MILES PER HOUR

Eventually the American SST is expected to reach 2,000 miles an hour.

Three U.S. aircraft manufacturers and three airplane engine designers are engaged in preliminary SST design being conducted by the Federal Aviation Agency.

The schedule calls for an operational plane by 1973, but competition from the British-French combine most likely will bring an advancement in the date.

The Concorde is expected to sell for about $10 million per plane, whereas the American SST may cost as much as $25 million.

For competitive reasons, some American lines have had to place orders for the Concorde. Pan American has asked six. American four and Continental Airlines three. Most likely others will follow suit in time.

"A LOSER"

Alan S. Boyd, chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board, is none too happy about the economic prospects of either the Concorde or American SST.

In recent testimony before the Senate Aviation Subcommittee he termed the Concorde "a loser," and said the outlook for airline profits on the American craft was equally dismal.

"Unlike the present jets, the possibility of supersonic aircraft achieving important economies over predecessor types is dubious."

One drawback of the supersonic planes is their cost in comparison with the present jets, which sell for about $5.5 million.

Another is the carrying capacity, which may be little if any greater than the jets. And the saving in travel time between points is likely to prove of small economic benefit, at least at first.

Nevertheless, it seems apparent that just as the jet replaced the slower piston-engine plane the supersonic craft must succeed the jet.

President Kennedy put it this way:

KELSO WON'T RUN SATURDAY

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Kelso will be missing from Saturday's $100,000 Man O' War Stakes at Aqueduct, but one of the top grass course battles of the year shaped up today with announcement that Never Bend will meet The Axe 2nd and others in the 1½-mile grind.

Capt. Harry F. Guggenheim, owner of Never Bend, and trainer Woody Stephens had deliberated between the Man O' War and the $50,000 Trenton Handicap at Garden State Park. Never Bend was the 1962 champion 2-year-old and in his last start whipped Chateaugay in the Yankee Handicap at Suffolk Downs.

A field of 10 looms for the Aqueduct event, with Never Bend and Greentree Stable's The Axe 2nd the standouts. The Axe won several major grass races this year and on Oct. 19 took the Canadian Championship at Toronto's Woodbine, breaking the course record.

Other probabilities are Hill-N-Dale Farm's Bronze Babu, one of the nation's most consistent grass specialists; F. Eugene Dixon's Will I Rule, winner of the Saratoga Cup; Flagler Farm's Charabanc, Harbor View Farm's David K., Long Island Handicap winner; Melane Farm's Hellenic Hero, who took a division of the Knickerbocker on the turf; Mrs. R. ## ADAMS COUNTY VOTERS

Should Know These Accomplishments

In order to give you an idea concerning the responsibilities of a County Commissioner I would like to cite some of the outstanding accomplishments that have been completed in the last few years by the Board of County Commissioners.

1. Conewago and Cumberland Townships were divided into two voting districts. Numerous voting places were changed, to Fire Houses where possible thus giving the revenue to the Fire Company for their important work. This plan set up a uniform scale of rent.
2. A new County Home was built without the necessity of floating a bond. This lifted the standard care of the aged to 37% of the need. Fourteen Foster Homes were set up and some are in use.
3. The Topper building next to the Courthouse was purchased directly from the Topper estate and approved by the Court. This was done as an insurance for further expansion.

Steel Band Club Saves Youth From Delinquency

NEW YORK (AP) — The theme song in one area of the Lower East Side could well be "Those Steel Bands Are Breaking Up That Old Gang of Mine."

And they are, says Murray Narell, youth director of the Educational Alliance, a community center on East Broadway. He is responsible for introducing the drums to youths who form the bands.

"It's the greatest program I've ever encountered as a delinquency preventive project," says Narell, youth worker for 15 years. Negro and Puerto Rican children have enormous identification with this type of music. We had tried just about everything in this area. But in three years with the steel bands we've achieved a goal; there is no incipient gang warfare."

NEW PAN ALLEY

Steel drum music originated in the 40s in Trinidad where it is called pan music. The drums are made from oil drums, the type used by the Navy.

Youths in Narell's area do not dig culture, he points out, so piano and violin training are a waste of time. Narell put some youths on bongos but the interest didn't last. One day he took a group to hear a steel band performance at a church. It clicked.

After acquiring drums and a few months of training, the boys were able to give minor performances. Three years ago Narell began the steel band program for the Educational Alliance.

"Ordinarily these youths don't hope to achieve anything great. They can't earn praise as students or athletes. But the drums have changed everything. They have acceptance from adult audiences and adulation from teen-age girls. For the first time on their lives they are winning he explains."

HELP FROM TRINIDAD

Narell has from 12 to 19 bands operating, and could organize 50, the demand is that great. Each band has from five to eight youths in it.

INDIAN TRIBES PLAN REVIVAL OF OLD DANCES

By MURRAY SINCLAIR

TUCSON (AP) — Two ancient customs of the Papago and Pima Indians have vanished, but one may be on the verge of a revival.

The keepers of the sticks have disappeared. They were the tribal and family historians.

And the makers of the masks are inactive, but may be ready to stage a comeback.

Papago leaders are getting tired of seeing their youngsters copying the dances of the Pueblo and Plains Indians which they pick up at commercial powwows. Now, through the Boy Scouts, they may teach them the almost-forgotten dances of the Papagos.

NEED MASKS

To do this they will need masks. Once the man who made the masks for the tribal religious ceremonies was a man of skill and importance.

Then, as the Indians adopted more of the ways of the white man, the mask makers went out of business. For a while, the old masks and ceremonial regalia were used. When these wore out, the dances virtually died.

"There are still people on the reservation who know how to make the masks, and there may be a resurgence of interest," Dr. Bernard Fontana, ethnologist at the Arizona State Museum at the University of Arizona, explained.

"When they start to teach the boys the traditional dances, they must also show them how to make the costumes and the masks."

STICKS GONE

But the talking sticks are gone forever.

Apparently not one is being kept on the entire reservation.

Most were kept by individuals, who carved symbols and designs on straight pieces of wood to tell of all important happenings. The sticks were broken when the owner died.

On rare occasions a son would pay tribute to his father by copying or continuing his father's stick. The Arizona State Museum has one of these. Its five-foot length embraces decades of Papago history.

The stick tells of wars with Mexicans, of raids by Apaches and the capturing of many children. Then the stick records "Apaches are now civilized. There will be no more wars." There weren't.

TELLS OF CONTEST

The stick tells of the coming of the white man, feast days, and records the great Sonoran earthquake of 1887. Late entries tell of the start of World War II, and the death of members of the family in an automobile accident.

Until recently the "living" sticks helped government census takers. The tribesmen were willing to cooperate, but couldn't give the year or exact place of their birth from memory.

So they would bring out their sticks and give details.

But the sticks became less important as the tribe became more literate. And now they are another of the red man's customs that has disappeared.

URGES MIXED POLICE TEAMS

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Integrated teams of policemen should be used to help quell racial disturbances, a Negro policeman from Philadelphia feels.

Alphonse Deal, the policeman said Tuesday that by using integrated teams, groups in racially tense areas can see "that progress is being made in the field of racial relations."

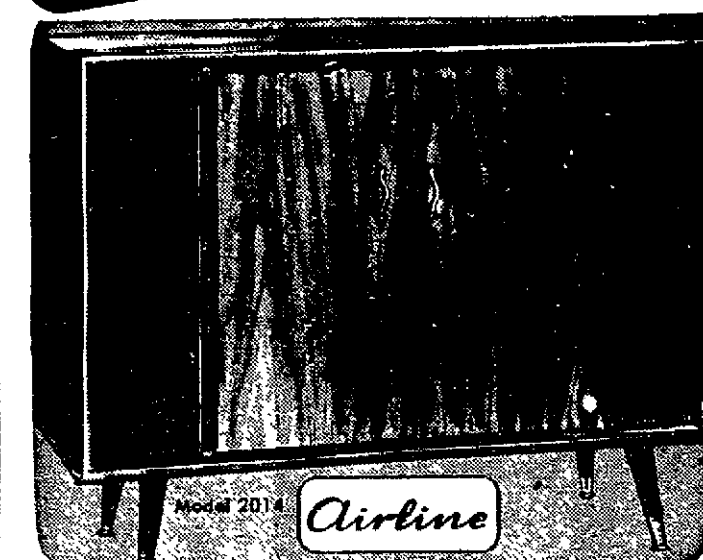

Deal, president of the Philadelphia Guardian Civic League, an organization of 150 Negro policemen and park guards, also said, "In those disputes where there is racial tension, it is easy for groups to feel that persons of another race are not giving them fair treatment."

Deal is also second vice president of the Philadelphia branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

He was interviewed while attending the conference of the Council of Police Societies Inc.

Negro Is Shot For Refusing To Leave Store

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 13-year-old Negro boy, who police said ignored demands to leave a candy store in North Philadelphia, died today after being shot by the white proprietor, homicide detectives reported.

The proprietor, William E. Rigler, 45, was charged with homicide in the shooting Wednesday night of Edward Bolden. Homicide detective Lt. Edwin Zongolowicz quoted Rigler as saying he knew the rifle was loaded "but thought the safety was on."

BANNED FROM STORE

North Philadelphia has been the scene of racial tensions in recent days, but homicide detectives indicated that Wednesday night's shooting did not have any racial overtones. They quoted Rigler as saying he told the boy not to come back to the store after banning him two weeks ago for loitering.

The police report said: "The defendant became angry when the victim came into the store and he tried to chase the boy out of the store. He would not leave Rigler picked up a rifle as the boy was running toward the door, fired one shot, hitting him in the left rear shoulder. Rigler stated he knew the rifle was loaded but thought the safety was on."

DIES IN HOSPITAL

Bolden died in Episcopal Hospital six hours after the shooting despite an emergency operation in which surgeons removed his lung.

Rigler, who is being treated for a heart condition, was in a state of shock when police arrived.

Last Saturday night, a white police officer said he shot to death a Negro while questioning him about a stolen watch. The officer said his victim lunged at him with a knife. The incident, also in North Philadelphia, touched off rioting by Negroes.

HIT AND RUN DRIVER IS HIT BY AMBULANCE

DENVER (AP)—A hit-and-run driver whose rented car fatally injured a 6-year-old boy was struck by the ambulance taking the child to a hospital Wednesday.

The woman, who had jumped in front of the ambulance waving her arms, was critically injured.

Preston H. Smith, walking home from school, was struck as he crossed a street in a marked walkway on a green light, Detective Jack Sevier said.

The car that hit him was driven from the scene. Moments later, the ambulance taking the child to a hospital struck Mrs. Marie Chapel, 33.

At a hospital Mrs. Chapel told traffic investigators Al Preble and Duane Miller that she drove the car in the accident. Miller said he would seek a manslaughter charge against her.

Search Continues For 6 Fugitives

MAYS LANDING, N. J. (AP)—Eight men who were part of a mass breakout by 14 prisoners at the Atlantic County Jail were back behind bars today. They were recaptured within 24 hours of the escape.

Heavily armed police details were continuing the search for six men still at large, concentrating mainly in the southern New Jersey area.

The getaway from the 70-year-old prison was a clean one and it was not discovered until two of the escapees were picked up in a stolen car about 30 miles away in West Berlin, Camden County, at 2 a.m. Wednesday. Six other men were recaptured, singly or in pairs, throughout the rest of the day.

Although all were considered by police to be dangerous, the captures were made without much trouble.

NASA CUTS 4 APOLLO SHOTS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is taking a detour in its space route and hopes it will be a shortcut to the moon with about $50 million less in toll charges.

It eliminated Wednesday four flights from the Apollo program — flights in which a low-powered Saturn rocket would have carried two astronauts into orbit aboard a stripped-down Apollo spacecraft.

The flights were scheduled to begin in 1965.

Skipping this step will mean a nine-month delay in the first orbital flights of Apollo astronauts. The next flights are to be the orbiting of the full three-man Apollo teams in a complete Apollo craft with a more powerful rocket system, Saturn 1-B, in 1966.

A spokesman said the space agency feels that by concentrating on the stripped-down program the United States has a better chance of putting a man on the moon by the target date of 1970.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the action would save some $50 million and help it stay within its stripped-down budget for this fiscal year — $5.35 billion.

Meanwhile the astronauts will get their training in two-man Gemini spacecraft.

BEN BELLA, HASSAN ARGUE OVER TREATY

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

BAMAKO, Mali (AP) — The cease-fire in the Algerian-Moroccan desert war doesn't take effect until midnight Friday and already the two North African neighbors disagree about what they've agreed to.

Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella and King Hassan II of Morocco signed the agreement Wednesday night with Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia and president Modibo Keita of Mali.

Based on a compromise formula drawn up by Selassie, it called for:

CEASE-FIRE PACT

1. A cease-fire all along the Moroccan-Algerian border at midnight on the night of Nov. 1-2.

2. Withdrawal of Moroccan forces from territory claimed by Algeria.

3. Demilitarization of all evacuated territory with officers of Ethiopia and Mali supervising.

4. A commission to be set up by the foreign ministers of the Organization of African Unity to determine the responsibility for the recent fighting in the Sahara, examine Morocco's territorial claim and make recommendations.

5. An immediate end to each nation's campaign of abuse against the other's leaders and political system.

BEN BELLA, HASSAN ARGUE OVER TREATY

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

BAMAKO, Mali (AP) — The cease-fire in the Algerian-Moroccan desert war doesn't take effect until midnight Friday and already the two North African neighbors disagree about what they've agreed to.

Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella and King Hassan II of Morocco signed the agreement Wednesday night with Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia and president Modibo Keita of Mali.

Based on a compromise formula drawn up by Selassie, it called for:

CEASE-FIRE PACT

1. A cease-fire all along the Moroccan-Algerian border at midnight on the night of Nov. 1-2.

2. Withdrawal of Moroccan forces from territory claimed by Algeria.

3. Demilitarization of all evacuated territory with officers of Ethiopia and Mali supervising.

4. A commission to be set up by the foreign ministers of the Organization of African Unity to determine the responsibility for the recent fighting in the Sahara, examine Morocco's territorial claim and make recommendations.

5. An immediate end to each nation's campaign of abuse against the other's leaders and political system.

Hassen and Ben Bella prepared to leave for their capitals. Haile Selassie flew to Switzerland. Then the arguments resumed.

The zone to be evacuated by the Moroccans was not precisely defined in the agreement. Algerian officials said it included Hassi Beida and Tindjoub, the focal points of the recent fighting. The Moroccans said the two outposts were not included and their forces would continue to occupy them.

A commission of Moroccan, Algerian, Ethiopian and Malian officers is to determine the limits of the demilitarized zone.

The Algerians said they had the right to administer the demilitarized zone. The Moroccans said they did not.

Negro Is Shot For Refusing To Leave Store

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 13-year-old Negro boy, who police said ignored demands to leave a candy store in North Philadelphia, died today after being shot by the white proprietor, homicide detectives reported.

The proprietor, William E. Rigger, 45, was charged with homicide in the shooting Wednesday night of Edward Bolden. Homicide detective Lt. Edwin Zongolowicz quoted Rigger as saying he knew the rifle was loaded "but thought the safety was on."

BANNED FROM STORE

North Philadelphia has been the scene of racial tensions in recent days, but homicide detectives indicated that Wednesday night's shooting did not have any racial overtones. They quoted Rigger as saying he told the boy not to come back to the store after banning him two weeks ago for loitering.

The police report said: "The defendant became angry when the victim came into the store and he tried to chase the boy out of the store. He would not leave Rigger picked up a rifle as the boy was running toward the door, fired one shot, hitting him in the left rear shoulder. Rigger stated he knew the rifle was loaded but thought the safety was on."

DIES IN HOSPITAL

Bolden died in Episcopal Hospital six hours after the shooting despite an emergency operation in which surgeons removed his lung.

Rigger, who is being treated for a heart condition, was in a state of shock when police arrived.

Last Saturday night, a white police officer said he shot to death a Negro while questioning him about a stolen watch. The officer said his victim lunged at him with a knife. The incident, also in North Philadelphia, touched off rioting by Negroes.

Gov. Wallace's Boss Speaks Up

Mrs. George Wallace, wife of the governor, spoke briefly at a hospital dedication Wednesday, then introduced the governor.

HIT AND RUN DRIVER IS HIT BY AMBULANCE

DENVER (AP)—A hit-and-run driver whose rented car fatally injured a 6-year-old boy was struck by the ambulance taking the child to a hospital Wednesday.

The woman, who had jumped in front of the ambulance waving her arms, was critically injured.

Preston H. Smith, walking home from school, was struck as he crossed a street in a marked walkway on a green light, Detective Jack Sevier said.

The car that hit him was driven from the scene. Moments later, the ambulance taking the child to a hospital struck Mrs. Marie Chapel, 33.

At a hospital, Mrs. Chapel told traffic investigators Al Preble and Duane Miller that she drove the car in the accident. Miller said he would seek a manslaughter charge against her.

Search Continues For 6 Fugitives

MAYS LANDING, N. J. (AP)—Eight men who were part of a mass breakout by 14 prisoners at the Atlantic County Jail were back behind bars today. They were recaptured within 24 hours of the escape.

Heavily armed police details were continuing the search for six men still at large, concentrating mainly in the southern New Jersey area.

The getaway from the 70-year-old prison was a clean one and it was not discovered until two of the escapees were picked up in a stolen car about 30 miles away in West Berlin, Camden County, at 2 a.m. Wednesday.

Six other men were recaptured, singly or in pairs, throughout the rest of the day.

Although all were considered by police to be dangerous, the captures were made without much trouble.

NASA CUTS 4 APOLLO SHOTS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is taking a detour in its space route and hopes it will be a shortcut to the moon with about $50 million less in toll charges.

It eliminated Wednesday four flights from the Apollo program — flights in which a low-powered Saturn rocket would have carried two astronauts into orbit aboard a stripped-down Apollo spacecraft.

The flights were scheduled to begin in 1965.

Skipping this step will mean a nine-month delay in the first orbital flights of Apollo astronauts. The next flights are to be the orbiting of the full three-man Apollo teams in a complete Apollo craft with a more powerful rocket system, Saturn 1-B, in 1966.

A spokesman said the space agency feels that by concentrating on the stripped-down program the United States has a better chance of putting a man on the moon by the target date of 1970.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the action would save some $50 million and help it stay within its stripped-down budget for this fiscal year — $5.35 billion.

Meanwhile the astronauts will get their training in two-man Gemini spacecraft.

STATE FACES THREAT TO ITS TREE INDUSTRY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Drought ravaged Pennsylvania faces a new peril today as continued dry weather threatens the state's multi-million dollar Christmas tree industry.

Worried growers fear a continuation of the dry spell could cut Christmas tree production in half this fall and send prices soaring.

The situation is "very precarious," declares Fred R. Strathmeyer, president of the Pennsylvania Christmas Tree Growers Association.

"The industry had its problems before the drought set in but now it has many more."

Meanwhile, financial losses from the drought continue to mount into countless millions of dollars. Farmers and businessmen alike are feeling the pinch.

There still is no sign of relief. "There positively, absolutely seems to be no chance of rain in the next three days and little hope beyond that," reports Paul Sutton, U.S. Weather Bureau meteorologist here.

Scores of businesses and industries are taking emergency steps to cope with the situation.

Some firms are confronted with sharp cutbacks in production because of industrial water shortages.

At the Bethlehem Steel Co. plant in Steelton, officials are exploring the possibility of digging a new channel into the low-flowing Susquehanna River.

The Pennsylvania Power & Light Co. reports that production at its hydro plants in Lancaster and Holtwood in Lancaster County and Lake Wallenpaupack in Pike County has had to be curtailed because of low water flow.

Travel bureaus also report lagging business as potential customers delay making reservations for cold weather vacations. One agency said its business is off 40 per cent, but added, "It could pick up well next week or as soon as the weather changes."

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Nine Maldivians — three men, four women and two children — died of starvation and exhaustion when their boat drifted for 16 days in the Indian Ocean, survivors reported today.

Eleven survivors were brought to Colombo after being picked up off Sumatra by a freighter.

The survivors said they had put out from one of the Maldivian Islands southwest of Ceylon.

Stormy seas pushed them off course, and they lost their water supplies and most of their food.

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — An unidentified person threw a hand grenade into a crowded fairground early today, killing eight Laotians and injuring at least 62 others. There was no indication of the motive behind bombing.

POLICE EXTEND RADAR SYTSEM TO CURB SPEED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania state police are exploring the possibility of a more efficient system for spotting radar teams on state roads and highways to control speeding.

"Our thought now is that we may be able to place radar teams at more strategic areas at more strategic times," Police Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy said Wednesday night.

In some instances now, Purdy noted, radar teams spend several hours at a position where speeding is uncommon.

Radar became a legal means of prosecuting speeders on state highways in 1961.

"We want the radar teams on duty at hours and locations where they are most urgently needed," Purdy said.

However, he added, if any changes are made, they won't be cutbacks.

He said the primary concern is more efficiency. But Pennsylvania state police also have come up with a "few more vacancies" this year, creating somewhat of a manpower problem, he said.

The main reason is that many of the men hired in 1957 when the state police merged with the Pennsylvania Motor Patrol have reached their 25th year and are retiring.

"We've got a recruiting drive on now to fill these vacancies," Purdy said.

The Dodgers won their first World Series in 1955 when they beat the Yankees in the seventh and deciding game.

Farmer Convicted Of Negro Slavery

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — An indictment charging a white Florence County farmer with holding a Negro worker in slavery and peonage was returned by a federal grand jury Wednesday.

The two-count indictment alleges that Robert Moultrie Cook, 54, used force and violence on April 27 to make Max Roy McKenzie a Negro, work against his will.

It also accuses Cook of causing the arrest of McKenzie with the intent of placing the Negro in a condition of peonage.

Convictions under the charge provide penalties of a $5,000 fine or five years imprisonment, or both.

Saturday starting at 3 p.m. Kingsdale Fire Company No. 1 will hold a public party on Friday at 8 p.m. in the engine house, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd. Prizes will be available and prizes will be awarded.

Award Contracts
At Indiantown

HARRISBURG (AP) — Unofficial low bids totaling $1,036,140 were submitted to the General State Authority Wednesday for construction of a new administration building at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation in Lebanon County.

The bids were:

General construction — H. B. Alexander and Son, Inc., Harrisburg, $628,600; heating, ventilation and air conditioning — Eshe-nau, Inc., Harrisburg, $191,889; plumbing — Lehman, Hous-er and Lutz, Inc., Harrisburg, $53,000, and electrical — Howard P. Foley Co., Harrisburg, $164,651.

STATE FACES THREAT TO ITS TREE INDUSTRY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Drought ravaged Pennsylvania faces a new peril today as continued dry weather threatens the state's three-million dollar Christmas tree industry.

Worried growers fear a continuation of the dry spell could cut Christmas tree production in half this fall and send prices soaring.

The situation is "very precarious," declares Fred R. Strathmeyer, president of the Pennsylvania Christmas Tree Growers Association.

"The industry had its problems before the drought set in but now it has many more."

Meanwhile, financial losses from the drought continue to mount into countless millions of dollars. Farmers and business-men alike are feeling the pinch.

There still is no sign of relief.

"There positively, absolutely seems to be no chance of rain in the next three days and little hope beyond that," reports Paul Sutton, U.S. Weather Bureau meteorologist here.

Scores of businesses and industries are taking emergency steps to cope with the situation.

Some firms are confronted with sharp cutbacks in production because of industrial water shortages.

CUT PRODUCTION

The Pennsylvania Power & Light Co. reports that production at its hydro plants in Safe Harbor and Holtwood in Lancaster County and Lake Wallenpaupack in Pike County has had to be curtailed because of low water flow.

Travel bureaus also report lagging business as potential customers delay making reservations for cold weather vacations. One agency said its business is off 40 per cent, but added, "It could pick up well next week or as soon as the weather changes."

POLICE EXTEND
RADAR SYTSEM TO CURB SPEED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania state police are exploring the possibility of a more efficient system for spotting radar teams on state roads and highways to control speeding.

"Our thought now is that we may be able to place radar teams at more strategic areas at more strategic times," Police Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy said Wednesday night.

In some instances now, Purdy noted, radar teams spend several hours at a position where speeding is uncommon.

Radar became a legal means of prosecuting speeders on state highways in 1961.

"We want the radar teams on duty at hours and locations where they are most urgently needed," Purdy said.

However, he added, if any changes are made, they won't be cutbacks.

He said the primary concern is more efficiency. But Pennsylvania state police also have come up with a "few more vacancies" this year, creating somewhat of a manpower problem, he said.

The main reason is that many of the men hired in 1957 when the state police merged with the Pennsylvania Motor Patrol have reached their 25th year and are retiring.

"We've got a recruiting drive on now to fill these vacancies," Purdy said.

1,000 YANKEE TROOPS WILL LEAVE S.V.N.

TOKYO (AP)—America's top military commander in South Viet Nam said today at least 1,000 of the 15,000 American troops in Viet Nam will be on their way home within two months.

The statement by Gen. Paul D. Harkins, made in Saigon to a correspondent of the Stars and Stripes, was in line with a White House announcement earlier this month.

The White House said after an inspection trip by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara to South Viet Nam that 1,000 American military personnel who have been training Vietnamese troops probably could be withdrawn by the end of this year.

Harkins told the Stars and Stripes "victory in the sense it would apply to this kind of war" is just months away.

VICTORY IS NEAR

"There won't be any victory parades as such," Harkins said, "because there will be sporadic incidents for a long time to come. But I can safely say that the end of the war is in sight."

(Communist guerrillas routed a 120-man company of crack South Vietnamese special forces 140 miles southwest of Saigon Tuesday. The guerrillas killed 20 of the government troops, wounded 30 and were believed to have taken 15 men prisoner, including all three American military advisers with the company.)

END IN 1965

Secretary McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, reported after a visit to Viet Nam last month they believed the need for major American involvement in the war there would be ended by December 1965.

Stars and Stripes correspondent Steve Stibbens said Harkins' personnel chief told him detailed plans for reduction of U.S. troops in Viet Nam have been drawn up and that approval of these is expected "within a few days" from Pacific Command headquarters at Honolulu.

Stibbens also quoted Maj. Gen. Charles J. Timmes, who commands the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group in Viet Nam, as saying he feels "we have completed" the job of training South Viet Nam's armed forces.

People In The News

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Frances Perkins, the first woman Cabinet member in the United States, says women have cleaned up American politics but not much.

Miss Perkins, 81, was secretary of labor from 1933 to 1945. Speaking at Brown University Wednesday night, she said American politics still is dirty even though not as dirty as before women entered the field.

TAIPEI (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China had a birthday today and this capital celebrated the event with a carnival spirit.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

JOBS: The Labor Department is expected to report, slightly more cheerful picture of the nation's employment situation today.

October is usually a good month and some small seasonal rise in the number of Americans with jobs is expected in the Bureau of Labor Statistics' preliminary report.

The expected rise in nonfarm payrolls from September's 58.2 million workers may also make a slight dent in last month's unemployment total of 3.5 million persons.

SECOND PLACE: Rep. Robert Taft Jr.'s reply to speculation that he may become the 1964 Republican vice presidential candidate is that neither he nor his associates have discussed the matter with Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Taft, serving his first term in the House as an at-large member from Ohio, is the son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, R-Ohio, who sought the GOP presidential nomination several times but never attained it.

Taft addressed the Yale Club of Washington Wednesday.

CIVIL RIGHTS: The Senate Labor Committee has given some consideration to an administration-backed fair employment practices bill—and decided to take no action for a couple of weeks.

The delay so that the fair employment practices section included in the House civil rights bill can be studied first was agreed to by sponsors of the Senate version, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., reported Wednesday.

NEW JOB: Katie S. Louchheim, the first woman to serve as a deputy assistant secretary of state, has been named head of a new State Department office. It is the Office of Community Advisory Services, which the department says is designed "to increase contacts between U.S. communities and the Foreign Service."

was 77. By the Western calendar he was 76.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—"Some folks seem to hate you on general principles," observed Mahalia Jackson, the famed Negro gospel singer.

"I can't understand why white folks don't ever really talk to Negroes," she continued. "If they got to talking to us, then they might be able to understand what we're all about."

Miss Jackson made the comments in an interview before a concert Wednesday night at Yale.

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP)—James Andrew, the only boy in the Fischer quintuplets and the heaviest of the babies, may go home next week.

Dr. James Berbos, who delivered the quint to Mrs. Andrew Fischer Sept. 14, said James Andrew could go home as soon as his parents are settled in the house in northeast Aberdeen. They moved into the home last Monday from their farm.

The 61st American Bowling Congress tournament will be held in Oakland, Calif., Feb. 22 through April 26.

3 RED SPIES ARE EXPELLED FROM STATES

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States is expelling three members of the Soviet U.N. delegation after accusing them of a spy plot with another Russian and an American electronics engineer.

Diplomatic immunity prevented prosecution of the three delegation members, but the U.S. government demanded their immediate departure from the country. They were expected to leave today or Friday.

The Russian government was expected to protest the expulsion order and reject the espionage charge. A member of the Soviet U.N. delegation claimed the case was a provocation to prevent further improvement of U.S.-Soviet relations.

LINK WITH SPY

The three ordered expelled were Gleb A. Pavlov, 39, an attaché; Yuri A. Romashin, 38, third secretary; and Vladimir I. Olenov, 37, identified only as a member of the Soviet delegation.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation linked the three with two persons arrested on spy charges in a railroad station parking lot in Englewood, N.J., Tuesday night—Igor A. Ivanov, 33, of New York City, Russian chauffeur for Amtorg, the Soviet government trade agency, and John William Butenko, 33, of Orange, N.J., control administrator for the International Electric Corp. of Paramus, N. J.

ARE RELEASED

The FBI said Butenko met Ivanov, Pavlov and Romashin in the parking lot and handed them a briefcase containing data on "a highly sensitive Air Force contract" being handled by International Electric.

The corporation is working on a worldwide electronic control system for the Strategic Air Command.

Romashin and Pavlov were arrested with Ivanov and Butenko but were released because of their diplomatic status.

FBI agents said they found a minute document copied that worked from a cigarette lighter in Pavlov's car.

SHELVE PLANS FOR AIR TRAVEL

By ENDRE MARTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Russia have quietly shelved the idea of establishing a direct New York-Moscow air service.

Officials declined to say why, but there were hints that neither side was too enthusiastic about it now at the end of the summer tourist season.

The two countries were near an agreement on the air route in 1961 when the Soviets built the wall in Berlin, suddenly freezing the international climate.

The issue was revived last summer when, in the wake of the limited nuclear test ban pact, the administration listed it among the bilateral problems the two countries should seek to solve.

It was proposed that Pan American World Airways and Russia's Aeroflot should have one flight a week.

The decision to shelve the idea caused some surprise, as the air route was one of the promising U.S.-Soviet issues.

REPORT VEEP MAY NOT BE RENOMINATED

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today "it is inconceivable" that Vice President Lyndon Johnson will be dumped from the 1964 Democratic ticket.

Humphrey, the assistant Democratic leader, described as "unwarranted speculation" reports that he is a possible substitute for Johnson as President Kennedy's running mate in his bid for a second term.

"It is inconceivable that the Vice President will not be renominated," the Minnesotan said in an interview. "He has done a fine job and I am for him."

Humphrey, who is expected to lead the fight in the Senate for Kennedy's civil rights legislation, noted that Johnson supports this measure and has worked and spoken for racial equality.

DIMS IN SOUTH

This activity has diminished Johnson's popularity in the South, where the former senator from Texas helped Kennedy win the presidency in 1960.

But Humphrey said he doesn't think the party would be any better off with some other vice presidential candidate either in the South or in the North.

"We won't solve our problems by temporizing with them or substituting another candidate for Johnson," he said.

President Kennedy made it clear a year ago last May in a news conference that Johnson "will be on the ticket if he chooses to run." Johnson does choose to run.

Kennedy's associates said Johnson's renomination is such an accepted fact around the White House that the President hasn't even bothered to discuss it with the vice president.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

San Blas Island Saga—Part 1

As an independent missionary, Elizabeth Purdy left New England in the 1920s and went to work among the Indians on the remote San Blas Islands off the Atlantic coast of Panama. Among her converts was a youth of faith and devotion, named Oloilipile.

She gave him the English name of Peter Miller, her favorite minister, and in 1922, brought him to the United States to be educated. After enrolling him in school at Greensboro, N. C., she returned to her work on the islands.

Mrs. Purdy died in 1928, leaving Peter with his schooling unfinished. But she had instilled in him the feeling that through faith all things are possible, and started a sequence of events that, as we shall see in the weeks to come, resulted in the continuation of her work with the Indians.

1,000 YANKEE TROOPS WILL LEAVE S.V.N.

TOKYO (AP)—America's top military commander in South Viet Nam said today at least 1,000 of the 15,000 American troops in Viet Nam will be on their way home within two months.

The statement by Gen. Paul D. Harkins, made in Saigon to a correspondent of the Stars and Stripes, was in line with a White House announcement earlier this month.

The White House said after an inspection trip by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara to South Viet Nam that 1,000 American military personnel who have been training Vietnamese troops probably could be withdrawn by the end of this year.

Harkins told the Stars and Stripes "victory in the sense it would apply to this kind of war" is just months away.

VICTORY IS NEAR

"There won't be any victory parades as such," Harkins said, "because there will be sporadic incidents for a long time to come. But I can safely say that the end of the war is in sight."

(Communist guerrillas routed a 120-man company of crack South Vietnamese special forces 140 miles southwest of Saigon Tuesday. The guerrillas killed 20 of the government troops, wounded 30 and were believed to have taken 15 men prisoner, including all three American military advisers with the company.)

END IN 1965

Secretary McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, reported after a visit to Viet Nam last month they believed the need for major American involvement in the war there would be ended by December 1965.

Stars and Stripes correspondent Steve Tibbitts said Harkins' personnel chief told him detailed plans for reduction of U.S. troops in Viet Nam have been drawn up and that approval of these is expected "within a few days" from Pacific Command headquarters at Honolulu.

Tibbitts also quoted Maj. Gen. Charles J. Timmes, who commands the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group in Viet Nam, as saying he felt "we have completed" the job of training South Viet Nam's armed forces.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Frances Perkins, the first woman Cabinet member in the United States, says women have cleaned up American politics but not much.

Miss Perkins, 81, was secretary of labor from 1933 to 1945. Speaking at Brown University Wednesday night, she said American politics still is dirty even though not as dirty as before women entered the field.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

JOBS: The Labor Department is expected to report, slightly more cheerful picture of the nation's employment situation today.

October is usually a good month and some small seasonal rise in the number of Americans with jobs is expected in the Bureau of Labor Statistics' preliminary report.

The expected rise in nonfarm payrolls from September's 58.2 million workers may also make a slight dent in last month's unemployment total of 3.5 million persons.

SECOND PLACE: Rep. Robert Taft Jr.'s reply to speculation that he may become the 1964 Republican vice presidential candidate is that neither he nor his associates have discussed the matter with Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Taft, serving his first term in the House as an at-large member from Ohio, is the son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, R-Ohio, who sought the GOP presidential nomination several times but never attained it.

Taft addressed the Yale Club of Washington Wednesday.

CIVIL RIGHTS: The Senate Labor Committee has given some consideration to an administration-backed fair employment practices bill—and decided to take no action it for a couple of weeks.

The delay so that the fair employment practices section included in the House civil rights bill can be studied first was agreed to by sponsors of the Senate version, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., reported Wednesday.

NEW JOB: Katie S. Louchheim, the first woman to serve as a deputy assistant secretary of state, has been named head of a new State Department office. It is the Office of Community Advisory Services, which the department says is designed "to increase contacts between U.S. communities and the Foreign Service."

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—"Some folks seem to hate you on general principles," observed Mahalia Jackson, the famed Negro gospel singer.

"I can't understand why white folks don't ever really talk to Negroes," she continued. "If they got to talking to us, then they might be able to understand what we're all about."

Miss Jackson made the comments in an interview before a concert Wednesday night at Yale.

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) —James Andrew, the only boy in the Fischer quintuplets and the heaviest of the babies, may go home next week.

Dr. James Berbos, who delivered the quintos to Mrs. Andrew Fischer Sept. 14, said James Andrew could go home as soon as his parents are settled in the house in northeast Aberdeen. They moved into the home last Monday from their farm.

The 61st American Bowling Congress tournament will be held in Oakland, Calif., Feb. 22 through April 26.

3 RED SPIES ARE EXPELLED FROM STATES

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

Associated Press Staff Writer UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States is expelling three members of the Soviet U.N. delegation after accusing them of a spy plot with another Russian and an American electronics engineer.

Diplomatic immunity prevented prosecution of the three delegation members, but the U.S. government demanded their immediate departure from the country. They were expected to leave today or Friday.

The Russian government was expected to protest the expulsion order and reject the espionage charge. A member of the Soviet U.N. delegation claimed the case was a provocation to prevent further improvement of U.S.-Soviet relations.

LINK WITH SPY

The three ordered expelled were Gleb A. Pavlov, 39, an attaché; Yuri A. Romashin, 38, third secretary; and Vladimir I. Olenov, 37, identified only as a member of the Soviet delegation.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation linked the three with two persons arrested on spy charges in a railroad station parking lot in Englewood, N.J., Tuesday night—Igor A. Ivanov, 33, of New York City, Russian chauffeur for Amtorg, the Soviet government trade agency, and John William Butenko, 38, of Orange, N.J., control administrator for the International Electric Corp. of Paramus, N. J.

ARE RELEASED

The FBI said Butenko met Ivanov, Pavlov and Romashin in the parking lot and handed them a briefcase containing data on "a highly sensitive Air Force contract" being handled by International Electric.

The corporation is working on a worldwide electronic control system for the Strategic Air Command.

Romashin and Pavlov were arrested with Ivanov and Butenko but were released because of their diplomatic status.

FBI agents said they found a minute document copier that worked from a cigarette lighter in Pavlov's car.

SHELVE PLANS FOR AIR TRAVEL

By ENDRE MARTON

Associated Press Staff Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and Russia have quietly shelved the idea of establishing a direct New York-Moscow air service.

Officials declined to say why, but there were hints that neither side was too enthusiastic about it now at the end of the summer tourist season.

The two countries were near an agreement on the air route in 1961 when the Soviets built the wall in Berlin, suddenly freezing the international climate.

The issue was revived last summer when, in the wake of the limited nuclear test ban pact, the administration listed it among the bilateral problems the two countries should seek to solve.

It was proposed that Pan American World Airways and Russia's Aeroflot should have one flight a week.

REPORT VEEP MAY NOT BE RENOMINATED

AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey said today "it is inconceivable" that Vice President Lyndon Johnson will be dumped from the 1964 Democratic ticket.

Humphrey, the assistant Democratic leader, described as "unwarranted speculation" reports that he is a possible substitute for Johnson as President Kennedy's running mate in his bid for a second term.

"It is inconceivable that the Vice President will not be renominated," the Minnesotan said in an interview. "He has done a fine job and I am for him."

Humphrey who is expected to lead the fight in the Senate for Kennedy's civil rights legislation, noted that Johnson supports this measure and has worked and spoken for racial equality.

DIMS IN SOUTH

This activity has diminished Johnson's popularity in the South, where the former senator from Texas helped Kennedy win the presidency in 1960.

But Humphrey said he doesn't think the party would be any better off with some other vice presidential candidate either in the South or in the North.

"We won't solve our problems by temporizing with them or substituting another candidate for Johnson," he said.

President Kennedy made it clear a year ago last May in a news conference that Johnson "will be on the ticket if he chooses to run." Johnson does choose to run.

Kennedy's associates said Johnson's renomination is such an accepted fact around the White House that the President hasn't even bothered to discuss it with the vice president.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

San Blas Island Saga—Part I

As an independent missionary, Elizabeth Purdy left New England in the 1920s and went to work among the Indians on the remote San Blas Islands off the Atlantic coast of Panama.

Among her converts was a youth of faith and devotion, named Olailipilele.

She gave him the English name of Peter Miller, her favorite minister, and in 1922, brought him to the United States to be educated. After enrolling him in school at Greensboro, N. C., she returned to her work on the islands.

Mrs. Purdy died in 1928, leaving Peter with his schooling unfinished. But she had instilled in him the feeling that through faith all things are possible, and started a sequence of events that, as we shall see in the weeks to come, resulted in the continuation of her work with the Indians.

Bishops Vote To Share In Authority Of Pope

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A big majority of the Vatican Ecumenical Council voted Wednesday in favor of a declaration that the Roman Catholic Church's bishops as a body share in the Pope's authority.

The vote was intended only as a guide to further council consideration and was not binding. But it was greater than the two-thirds majority needed in any formal ballot to turn such a statement — with its implications for Christian unity efforts — into a council decree.

VOTE 1,808 TO 336

The council voted 1,808-336 that a theological schema on the nature of the Church should state that "the body or college of bishops in its evangelizing, sanctifying and caring for its flock is the successor of the college of apostles, and that as a body, in union with its head, the Roman pontiff, and never without him, enjoys full and supreme power over the universal Church."

By a vote of 1,717-408, the prelates also approved the insertion into the schema of a statement that "this (episcopal-papal) power belongs to the college, in union with its head, by divine right."

PERMANENT DEACON

In another test vote a proposal to reconstitute the Church

rank of permanent deacon was approved 1,588-525. However, no stand was taken on whether the deacons could be married. The council approved insertion in the theological schema "De Ecclesia" the statement that "it is opportune to restore the diaconate as a distinct and permanent rank of the sacred ministry in accordance with (the desires of) various regions."

Each of the propositions was approved by such a large number of prelates that adoption is assured once formal balloting starts. That may not be until the council's next session next year.

The phrasing of today's motion on the diaconate means that national groups of bishops eventually will be allowed to decide whether they want deacons in their areas. Deacons would be allowed to perform certain services, but only priests would be permitted to celebrate Mass and hear confession.

By overwhelming votes, the council approved a document that eventually will allow the use of native music forms for Roman Catholic services in such places as Africa and Asia.

The Chicago White Sox outscored the 1959 Los Angeles Dodgers, 23 to 21, yet lost the World Series in six games.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
DON'T DRIP-DRY, QUICK-DRY. A lovely writes: I am considering the purchase of a home hairdryer. But first, I would like to know if constant use would aggravate the already dry condition of my hair. I set my hair several times a week.

The answer: There is every evidence that quick drying a set is far better for the hair than leaving it in a sodden mass for hours. A girl wouldn't do that to her nylons and her hair is much more precious. Too, left for long periods in the hair, rollers and pins cause harmful strain on both the scalp and strands. That a headful of hardware is also a strain on the eyes of the beholder—a horror committed in the name of beauty—should clinch the argument in favor of quick drying.

Efficient hairdryers do the job in about 30 minutes. Other than the reputation of the maker, the guarantees of efficiency are a roomy, well-perforated hood and three-way heat control. There's a plus in a light-weight portable model, for it enables you to move about and turn the waiting time to any number of profitable pursuits.

When using a dryer on dry or tinted hair, keep the heat control on warm until the last moments and then switch to cool. Apply a little oil to dry scalp before going under. But whatever a head's condition, take a set down as soon as it is dry. Should setting be a bedtime ritual, just don't comb it out; cover with a frilly cap. Your set will look lovely on the morrow. In the meantime, so will you!

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

Tonight's dessert, tomorrow's breakfast fruit, a meat garnish, and what to serve the bridge-club are ready now in local grocery stores in the form of two new apple products.

Whole baked apples in a can, and Dutch baked apple quarters in a jar, have the convenience, the versatility and the good taste which are certain to make them pantry regulars in many local homes.

The new whole baked apples, available two and three to a can, offer more than convenience. They taste for all the world as if you had selected just the right variety of apples to core, spice and bake. There's a nice surprise when you open the can: The natural apple shape is intact.

The Dutch baked apples, like ing tricks. Write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin.

them to be this easy to prepare. Baked Apples Encore
3 canned baked apples with syrup from can
2 tbs. raisins
2 tbs. chopped walnuts
1 tbs. brown sugar

Combine syrup from apples with raisins, chopped walnuts and brown sugar; boil 10 minutes. Place apples in baking dish, and fill with raisins and walnuts from syrup. Pour remaining syrup over apples. Heat in 400 degree oven, 5 to 10 minutes, or until syrup becomes bubbly.

The new Dutch baked apples are a quick treat with ice cream, and they can be used in all of your favorite apple recipes. They are especially good for old-fashioned dumplings, deep dish apple pie, and this apple cobbler.

Apple Puff Cobbler
1 (1 lbs. 10 oz.) jar Dutch baked apples
2 tbs. lemon juice
2 tbs. brown sugar
1 cup packaged biscuit mix
2 tbs. granulated sugar
1/4 cup light cream
2 tbs. butter or margarine
2 tbs. brown sugar
1/2 tsp. cinnamon

Remove Dutch baked apples from syrup. Place syrup in measuring cup and add enough water to make 1/4 cup liquid. Combine liquid, lemon juice and the first 2 tbs. brown sugar. Place in saucepan, mix and bring to a boil. Add the Dutch baked apples and remove from heat. Combine the biscuit mix, granulated sugar and cream to make a dough. Divide dough into four portions and drop each portion into a greased 10" x 6" x 1 1/2" baking dish. Pour the Dutch baked apples and syrup over the dough. Dot with butter or margarine. Sprinkle with the second 2 tbs. brown sugar and cinnamon. Bake at 450 degrees F for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve warm. This recipe serves four.

Try the Dutch baked quarters as a garnish or side dish for meats, too. They give a spicy apple emphasis to the taste of meats, roast pork or fowl in particular.

ORSON WELLES RECALLS PANIC OF RADIO DRAMA

By JOHN GALE

Associated Press Staff Writer
LONDON (AP)—Orson Welles choked back a chuckle and said he has not the slightest regret for his Martian invasion radio drama that panicked Americans 25 years ago last night.

"Looking back I wouldn't change a thing," the actor, now 48, told an interviewer.

Six million Americans heard Welles' broadcast of "The War of the Worlds" on Oct. 30, 1938, and one million were disturbed, researchers found.

It began at 8 p.m. on the CBS Sunday night "Mercury Theater of the Air." Interspersing H. G. Wells' 40-year-old fantasy with realistically styled news bulletins, the Mercury players created this scene:

LISTENERS FRIGHTENED

Flaming objects landed in New Jersey. "Things" emerged,

As tall as skyscrapers, they waded the Hudson River to destroy New York. A mysterious Martian ray dealt instant death.

A Pittsburgh man found his wife in the bathroom, hysterically grasping a bottle of poison and crying, "I'd rather die this way."

A San Francisco man called police, volunteering to fight "this awful thing."

Toward the end of the hour-long drama, the Martians were destroyed by some bacteriological reaction.

Recalling the circumstances of the broadcast, "Sure I had a pretty good idea it would touch off a wave of jitters, but I still went ahead."

"I just thought it was time to demonstrate that everything said on radio isn't necessarily true. The radio had been speaking ex cathedra (with authority) on every subject under the sun and I thought it needed sending up a bit."

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has won the first big round in his attempt to get a civil rights bill through Congress this year. But he may be on the ropes, with no bill passed before the year ends.

Time, because there isn't much left of 1963, and the opposition of Southern Democrats in the Senate will work against him. There have been four main steps in this struggle so far, with two more still to come.

1. There was no indication until June 19 that Kennedy intended to ask Congress for a strong, new civil rights law this year. In the spring Negro demonstrations, with accompanying violence, built up tensions.

INSTANT OPPOSITION

On June 19 he presented Congress with a fairly strong program. There was instant opposition from Southern Democrats, Republicans, or some of them, in House and Senate were rather reserved.

The bill, as a necessary preliminary before it could get to the full House for a vote, went to the House Judiciary Committee. On this committee, headed by Rep. Emmanuel Celler, D-N.Y., liberals of both parties dominate.

2. Under the urging of civil rights advocates they decided the Kennedy bill wasn't strong enough. So they scrapped Kennedy's proposal, although retaining some of it, and put together a much stronger one of their own.

It should be remembered that in this Congress, where there is a big gap between Southern and liberal Democrats, not all Republicans see eye to eye with their House leader, the conservative Charles Halleck of Indiana.

Instantly Kennedy was afraid thing. WAS too strong to pass in this overwhelmingly conservative Congress which, although run by huge Democratic majorities, has been less than ecstatic about a civil rights bill at all.

AMAZING SOLUTION

He sent his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, to Celler's committee to plead for a softer bill. This didn't make a dent. So the President himself took a hand.

3. He began calling White House conferences, a number of them over several days, of Democratic and Republican leaders to ask them to use their weight to tone down the committee bill. He finally got his way.

But it was worked out in amazing fashion.

STRONGER AND WEAKER

The Kennedy administration and Republicans in the House—but not House Democrats—worked out a compromise bill which Republicans agreed to and Democrats on the Celler committee were finally persuaded to accept.

4. So Tuesday at the House Judiciary Committee voted to scrap the strong bill its members had wanted and approved the one manufactured by the administration and the Republicans.

This is stronger than the first Kennedy bill but weaker than the one the Judiciary Committee wanted to substitute for it. It was promptly denounced as too weak by some of the leaders among the civil rights advocates.

TIME MAY BE FATAL

And—the Kennedy administration was so grateful to the Republicans that the attorney general publicly praised them. Any chance of a civil rights bill becoming law this year without their help would have been remote.

It was an astonishing admission when it is remembered that in this Congress Democrats so far outnumber Republicans they could put anything through—if they operated as a single party and stuck together. But they don't.

At this point time begins to play its vital, perhaps fatal, part in the two big remaining steps.

FILIBUSTER MAY COME

5. It is now Oct. 31. It will take the Judiciary Committee 10 days or so to draft a report on the bill. Then this goes to the Rules Committee where it may be held up for a week or more before getting to the House for a vote.

That will mean past mid-November. Allowing for other delays, and the Thanksgiving Day holiday, it may be Dec. 1 before the Senate will or can start to act even though the House approves before then. House approval seems certain.

But, in order to try to kill the bill altogether, Senate Democrats from the South will filibuster. And there will be other jockeying. A filibuster can take weeks. Then the Christmas holidays intrude.

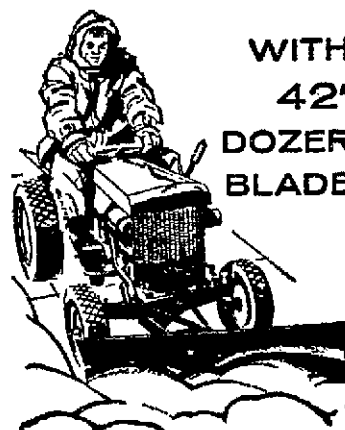

So it will be no surprise if a civil rights bill doesn't pass this year. Maybe it will in 1964.

Oklahoma won its last seven football games in 1962 then bowed to Alabama, 17-0, in the Orange Bowl.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of life's ordeals is trying to figure what to say when someone shows you snapshots of his near and dear ones.

No matter how well you know a fellow or how likeable he may be, sooner or later he will put the friendship to a strain by whipping out his wallet.

"Lemme show you a recent pitcher of my ball and chain and all our little leg irons," he will say.

SPOOK DRESS

Well, if you told him the truth he'd break your arm, for the first two things you think are: "These couldn't be real people—they must be dressed up for Halloween," and "She looks like Lon Chaney in a fright wig, and the kids look like vultures."

Liar that you must be, you stare at the snapshot as if struck dumb with the beauty of them all, then mumble in a voice husky with emotion: "Gee, they really make the long voyage home worthwhile, don't they?"

A man who wants to remain reasonably honest of soul has to keep silent and make his comment by way of sounds and gestures.

SPEAK HALF-TRUTH

He can smile, chuckle, coo, gurggle or pretend to be so affected he has to wipe away a happy tear—anything to escape telling the full truth.

The safest thing is to resort to the half-truth. Simply say, "Why she reminds me of a movie star." You don't have to add what movie star she reminds you of. Maybe Lassie—or Marie Dressler playing a witch's role.

The surest way to become a social outcast in these cases is to resort to humor. It is always out of place.

SMART ANSWER

ORSON WELLES RECALLS PANIC OF RADIO DRAMA

By JOHN GALE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON (AP)—Orson Welles choked back a chuckle and said he has not the slightest regret for his Martian invasion radio drama that panicked Americans 25 years ago last night.

"Looking back I wouldn't change a thing," the actor, now 48, told an interviewer.

Six million Americans heard Welles' broadcast of "The War of the Worlds" on Oct. 30, 1938, and one million were disturbed, researchers found.

It began at 8 p.m. on the CBS Sunday night "Mercury Theater of the Air." Interspersing H. G. Wells' 40-year-old fantasy with realistically styled news bulletins, the Mercury players created this scene:

Flaming objects landed in New Jersey. "Things" emerged.

As tall as skyscrapers, they waded the Hudson River to destroy New York. A mysterious Martian ray dealt instant death.

With Nazi Germany nibbling at the Sudetenland and America jangled by European war nerves, newspapers and radio stations were flooded by calls from frightened listeners.

A Pittsburgh man found his wife in the bathroom, hysterically grasping a bottle of poison and crying, "I'd rather die this way."

A San Francisco man called police, volunteering to fight "this awful thing."

Toward the end of the hour-long drama, the Martians were destroyed by some bacteriological reaction.

Recalling the circumstances of the broadcast, "Sure I had a pretty good idea it would touch off a wave of jitters, but I still went ahead."

"I just thought it was time to demonstrate that everything said on radio isn't necessarily true. The radio had been speaking ex cathedra (with authority) on every subject under the sun and I thought it needed sending up a bit."

Bishops Vote To Share In Authority Of Pope

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A big majority of the Vatican Ecumenical Council voted Wednesday in favor of a declaration that the Roman Catholic Church's bishops as a body share in the Pope's authority.

The vote was intended only as a guide to further council consideration and was not binding. But it was greater than the two-thirds majority needed in any formal ballot to turn such a statement — with its implications for Christian unity efforts — into a council decree.

VOTE 1,806 TO 334

The council voted 1,808-336 that a theological schema on the nature of the Church should state that "the body or college of bishops in its evangelizing, sanctifying and caring for its flock is the successor of the college of apostles, and that as a body, in union with its head, the Roman pontiff, and never without him, enjoys full and supreme power over the universal Church."

By a vote of 1,717-408, the prelates also approved the insertion into the schema of a statement that "this (episcopal) power belongs to the college, in union with its head, by divine right."

PERMANENT DEACON

In another test vote a proposal to reconstitute the Church

rank of permanent deacon was approved 1,588-525. However, no stand was taken on whether the deacons could be married.

The council approved insertion in the theological schema "De Ecclesia" the statement that "it is opportune to restore the diaconate as a distinct and permanent rank of the sacred ministry in accordance with (the desires of) various regions."

Each of the propositions was approved by such a large number of prelates that adoption is assured once formal balloting starts. That may not be until the council's next session next year.

The phrasing of today's motion on the diaconate means that national groups of bishops eventually will be allowed to decide whether they want deacons in their areas. Deacons would be allowed to perform certain services, but only priests would be permitted to celebrate Mass and hear confession.

By overwhelming votes, the council approved a document that eventually will allow the use of native music forms for Roman Catholic services in such places as Africa and Asia.

The Chicago White Sox outscored the 1959 Los Angeles Dodgers, 23 to 21, yet lost the World Series in six games.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

DON'T DRIP-DRY, QUICK-DRY. A lovely writes: I am considering the purchase of a home hairdryer. But first, I would like to know if constant use would aggravate the already dry condition of my hair. I set my hair several times a week.

The answer: There is every evidence that quick drying a set is far better for the hair than leaving it in a sodden mass for hours. A girl wouldn't do that to her nylons and her hair is much more precious.

Too, left for long periods in the hair, rollers and pins cause harmful strain on both the scalp and strands. That a headful of hardware is also a strain on the eyes of the beholder—a horror—should clinch the argument in favor of quick drying.

Efficient hairdryers do the job in about 30 minutes. Other than the reputation of the maker, the guarantees of efficiency are a roomy, well-perforated hood and three-way heat control. There's a plus in a light-weight portable model, for it enables you to move about and turn the waiting time to any number of profitable pursuits.

When using a dryer on dry or tinted hair, keep the heat control on warm until the last moments and then switch to cool. Apply a little ointment to dry scalp before going under. But whatever a head's condition, take a set down as soon as it is dry. Should setting be a bedtime ritual, just don't comb it out; cover with a frilly cap. Your set will look lovely on the morning. In the meantime, so will you!

Cooking Is Fun

By Cecily Brownstone

Tonight's dessert, tomorrow's breakfast fruit, a meat garnish, and what to serve — the bridge-club are ready now in local grocery stores in the form of two new apple products.

Whole baked apples in a can, and Dutch baked apple quarters in a jar, have the convenience, the versatility and the good taste which are certain to make them pantry regulars in many local homes.

The new whole baked apples, available two and three to a can, offer more than convenience. They taste for all the world as if you had selected just the right variety of apples to core, spice and bake. There's a nice surprise when you open the can: The natural apple shape is intact.

The Dutch baked apples, like the whole baked, are ready-to-eat. They are thick, juicy apple quarters which have been given a special spicing all their own, baked, then packed in 17 and 26-oz. jars.

Both new apple products are naturals for dessert, and you can dish them right from the can or jar. But you will also want to try them in these other ways.

Warm or chill the whole baked apples before serving with milk or cream. Or top with whipped cream and/or nuts. Actually, a sprinkling of cinnamon is enough to turn them into a special dessert.

Warm, and laced with cream, they become a fruit for breakfast that even the most rushed member of the family will take time to enjoy in the morning.

If you expect the bridge club, try the whole baked apples for Baked Apples Encore. Brimful and crowned with a crunch, nut brown topping, they look so fancy you would never expect them to be this easy to prepare.

Baked Apples Encore

3 canned baked apples with syrup from can
2 tbs. raisins
2 tbs. chopped walnuts
1 tbs. brown sugar

Combine syrup from apples with raisins, chopped walnuts and brown sugar; boil 10 minutes. Place apples in baking dish, and fill with raisins and walnuts from syrup. Pour remaining syrup over apples. Heat in 400 degree oven, 5 to 10 minutes, or until syrup becomes bubbly.

The new Dutch baked apples are a quick treat with ice cream, and they can be used in all of your favorite apple recipes. They are especially good for old-fashioned dumplings, deep dish apple pie, and this apple cobbler.

Apple Puff Cobbler

1 (1 lbs. 10 oz.) jar Dutch baked apples
2 tbs. lemon juice
2 tbs. brown sugar
1 cup packaged biscuit mix
2 tbs. granulated sugar
¼ cup light cream
2 tbs. butter or margarine
2 tbs. brown sugar
½ tsp. cinnamon

Remove Dutch baked apples from syrup. Place syrup in measuring cup and add enough water to make ¼ cup liquid. Combine liquid, lemon juice and the first 2 tbs. brown sugar. Place in saucepan, mix and bring to a boil. Add the Dutch baked apples and remove from heat. Combine the biscuit mix, granulated sugar and cream to make a dough. Divide dough into four portions and drop each portion into a greased 10" x 6" x 1½" baking dish. Pour the Dutch baked apples and syrup over the dough. Dot with butter or margarine. Sprinkle with the second 2 tbs. brown sugar and cinnamon. Bake at 450 degrees F for 15 to 20 minutes. Serve warm. This recipe serves four.

Try the Dutch baked quarters as a garnish or side dish for meats, too. They give a spicy apple emphasis to the taste of meats, roast pork or fowl in particular.

For more recipes using these new baked apples, write Lucky Leaf Test Kitchen, Peach Glen, Pa.

Whites In Southern City Hope To Solve Race Fight Without Desegregation

EDITOR'S NOTE—Racial unrest has spread from larger urban centers of the South into the smaller towns, the rural areas that make up the solidly segregated grossroots. This is one of a series of three articles taking a closeup look at these moves.

By DON McKEE

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — Racial conflict smashed the sleepy calm of this southwest Georgia town when Negroes set out four months ago to use the front door of the segregated movie theater.

The winds of racial unrest that buffeted the nation last summer had swept into tightly segregated rural Georgia.

Picketing of the theater and street marches that produced violence were met with arrests and a powerful new weapon—charges against integration leaders of trying to start a revolt against the government, an offense punishable by death.

VIOLENCE STOPS
Demonstrations stopped. White officials, momentarily at least, breathed easier. The integration drive in Americus, its 15,000 population split about equally between white and Negro, was the second in southwest Georgia. The first, a year-long struggle in nearby Albany, failed.

Cracking of racial barriers in Americus would hit at the heart of the white South's resistance, at the grassroots of segregation. While they may not be aware of the broader significance of Americus, the white townspeople have no intention of allowing integration to take place here.

"I don't think Americus is going to take any integration," said Sheriff Fred B. Chappell. "And I don't think there'll be any more trouble."

FOUR YOUTHS JAILED
Chappell and other officials

based their hopes on the jailing of four youths charged with attempting to incite insurrection. This had effectively taken the integration leaders out of circulation—unless court action freed them.

POLICE DENY CHARGE

In their denial, police said that both Perdew and Allen threw bricks at officers and that they had attacked a policeman. In another march on Aug. 17, Zev Aelony, 25, white worker for the Congress of Racial Equality, was arrested. He was charged with encouraging Negroes to march without a permit.

The charges against Perdew, Allen and Harris—a recent graduate of Rutgers University—were unlawful assembly, obstructing arrest and assaulting an officer.

Later, these three and Aelony were charged also with trying to incite insurrection under an 1871 statute. Prosecutor Stephen Pace Jr. said he did not know whether the statute had been used. Actually it had been employed many years ago in a case involving alleged Communist activities.

REFUSED BAIL

While Pace has fought bond for the four, he has said he has no intention of seeking the death penalty. He said he hoped to keep the leaders in jail to prevent further trouble.

The charge and the refusal of bail for the four youths touched off protests from several parts of the nation.

While this dispute went on in the courts, Negroes in Americus concentrated on voter registration and plans to break the color barrier at the junior college here.

There were some signs that Americus might eventually work out its problems. The white ministerial association recently asked the Chamber of Commerce to create a biracial committee.

"What the hell for?" asked a chamber director. The proposal was tabled.

Well-Known Stocks Lead Profit Increases For '62

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Increased earnings—some at record highs—are being reported daily by most of America's corporations, large and small. The profit gains delight stockholders and stock traders, enhance the life expectancy of many jobs, trim estimates of the federal Treasury deficit, assure financing of future business expansion plans.

Companies with household names lead the parade.

PROFIT INCREASES

Profits after taxes in the July-September quarter increased over last year for: General Motors, American Telephone, IBM, General Electric, Jersey Standard Oil, and for most of the steel companies, chemicals, drugs, airlines, tobacco, foods, utilities and even the long-ailing rails.

The majority predicts the year as a whole will be well ahead of 1962.

There is a minority, as always. A few individual companies in all of the industries falter. And in some industries most firms report earnings running behind a year ago. These include cement, paper, and many in the packaging industry.

Some companies much in the public eye report earnings running against the tide, often for temporary reasons. These include Ford Motors, Polaroid, Du Pont, National Cash Register, Westinghouse Electric, Martin Marietta, A&P, Brunswick and American Machine & Foundry.

But the gainers make the bigger splash.

LARGE EARNERS

General Motors' and Chrysler's notable profit increases overshadow Ford's slip.

In the chemicals Union Carbide, Allied Chemical, Olin Mathieson, American Cyanamid, Monsanto are ahead, even if Du Pont, Texas Gulf Sulphur and National Distillers & Chemicals aren't.

The steels are almost unanimous in reporting earnings running well ahead of a year ago.

Other metals also are profit gainers this year: Alcoa, Kennecott Copper, Magma Copper, St. Joseph Lead, Reynolds Metals.

The oils speak up with an all but unanimous voice.

AIRWAYS FORGE AHEAD

In the airways Pan Am, American, Western and Continental forge ahead although Delta slips behind last year's profit pace. Lockheed Douglas and McDonnell aircraft makers advance.

The rails are more mixed. Ahead this year are New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, Norfolk & Western, Seaboard Air Line, Chesapeake & Ohio, Great Northern, Western Pacific, Southern, Wabash and Missouri Pacific. Lagging are Atlantic Coast Line, Erie-Lackawanna, the Milwaukee, and Chicago-Great Western.

Behind the increased earnings are many things: increased sales in an expanding economy, automation and other labor-unit cost-cutting, increased depreciation allowances for tax purposes—even the population explosion.

And sparking the optimism about the future of profits is the expectation that corporate income taxes will be cut.

The 1965 World Series is the only one in which all five games were shutouts. The Giants beat the Athletics, four games to one.

BREAK NEAR IN KINZUA DAM

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

Associated Press Special Service

A break may be in sight in the congressional deadlock which threatened to stymie continued work at the Kinzua Dam and Reservoir in Pennsylvania New York.

But whether it will come in time to prevent at least a temporary halt of work at the big Allegheny River flood control project is still uncertain.

Chairman Clifford David, D-Tenn., of the House Public Works Subcommittee which handles river basin projects, said a conference with the Senate to iron out differences in river basin bills is "very likely."

He said nothing has been decided yet but "it's cooking now."

Chairman Pat McNamara, D-Mich., of the Senate Public Works Subcommittee, also expressed hope something could be done to break the impasse. "I'm ready to talk to anybody," he said.

BIG COMPUTER MAKES ERROR

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—

Blame it on automation. That was the verdict Wednesday in the case of the wayward $10,509 income tax refund check. Intended for Birmingham, it somehow ended up with the Rochelle Park, N.J., School Board.

A giant computer was fingered as the culprit.

The board wrote the Internal Revenue Service office in Birmingham that it doesn't pay taxes and thus has no refund. George Patterson, IRS district director, said maybe the school's Social Security report got mixed up with the income tax reports.

BLAKELY, Ga. (AP)—Members of the Blakely High School Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Club will "trick or treat" for a new purpose tonight. They plan to collect used clothing and articles for families in need in the community.

STEEL HEAD IS AGAINST FORCE IN RACE HIRING

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger M. Blough, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., rejects the idea that a corporation should use "economic compulsion" as a weapon to deal with community race relations problems.

At the same time, Blough endorsed discrimination - fighting employment and promotion practices, and leadership by business executives in outside-the-plant efforts to break down barriers between the races.

His views emerged from a discussion of U.S. Steel's role in Birmingham, Ala., scene of recent racial strife.

200,000 ON PAYROLL

"Big Steel" through its Tennessee Coal and Iron Division, is the Birmingham area's largest single employer. It ranks among the top half dozen corporate employers in the nation with nearly 200,000 on the payroll.

Asked Tuesday about criticism that the company had not used enough "economic influence" in Birmingham, Blough replied:

"For a corporation to attempt to exert economic compulsion to achieve any particular end in the social area seems to me to be quite beyond what a corporation should do and quite beyond what it can do."

Critics, among them attorney Charles Morgan of Birmingham,

ASKS REPORT ON INDUSTRY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. Harry Kramer, D-Allegheny, called on Gov. Seranton to furnish him with complete information on new or expanded industry in Pennsylvania since the beginning of the year.

Kramer, in a letter to the governor, wrote that he had observed advertisements in national magazines referring to a list of industries which will locate or expand in Pennsylvania. He wrote:

"I would like to know as a member of the House Industrial Development Committee what industries are now preparing to move into Pennsylvania, where they will locate and when and how the initial contacts were made. I would appreciate also detailed information on plant expansion and the chronology of these efforts."

Kramer said he asked for the information because he and other Democrats in the legislature "have worked hard for the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority and have done everything within our power to aid it and implement it."

Also charged with misfeasance and nonfeasance in office, Smay was released on $2,000 bond following a hearing before Alderman Harry Ashburn.

STEEL HEAD IS AGAINST FORCE IN RACE HIRING

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger M. Blough, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., rejects the idea that a corporation should use "economic compulsion" as a weapon to deal with community race relations problems.

At the same time, Blough endorsed discrimination - fighting employment and promotion practices, and leadership by business executives in outside-the-plant efforts to break down barriers between the races.

His views emerged from a discussion of U.S. Steel's role in Birmingham, Ala., scene of recent racial strife.

200,000 ON PAYROLL

"Big Steel," through its Tennessee Coal and Iron Division, is the Birmingham area's largest single employer. It ranks among the top half dozen corporate employers in the nation with nearly 200,000 on the payroll.

Asked Tuesday about criticism that the company had not used enough "economic influence" in Birmingham, Blough replied: "For a corporation to attempt to exert economic compulsion to achieve any particular end in the social area seems to me to be quite beyond what a corporation should do and quite beyond what it can do."

Critics, among them attorney Charles Morgan of Birmingham, have suggested that a corporation in awarding business should favor banks and suppliers that are committed to the goal of expanding opportunities for Negroes.

Blough said the doctrine of what he called economic force was repugnant to him and that he doubted such measures were good in principle for any corporation to employ, whether they worked or not.

He estimated that more than 10 per cent of U.S. Steel's employees nationally are Negroes, and that Negroes account for about 30 per cent of its employees in the Birmingham area.

The news conference followed the company's report on July-September quarter earnings, which were up sharply from a year ago but not as much as those reported by some other steel firms.

U.S. Steel said it cleared $46.4 million, of 74 cents a share, against $26.8 million, or 38 cents a share, in the 1962 third quarter.

The results boosted profits for the first nine months to $149.6 million, or $2.41 a share, compared with $122.8 million, or $1.92 a share, in the period last year.

ASKS REPORT ON INDUSTRY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. Harry Kramer, D-Allegheny, called on Gov. Scranton to furnish him with complete information on new or expanded industry in Pennsylvania since the beginning of the year.

Kramer, in a letter to the governor, wrote that he had observed advertisements in national magazines referring to a list of industries which will locate or expand in Pennsylvania.

He wrote:

"I would like to know as a member of the House Industrial Development Committee what industries are now preparing to move into Pennsylvania, where they will locate and when and how the initial contacts were made. I would appreciate also detailed information on plant expansion and the chronology of these efforts."

Kramer said he asked for the information because he and other Democrats in the legislature "have worked hard for the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority and have done everything within our power to aid it and implement it..." since its inception under former Gov. George M. Leader, a Democrat.

Also charged with misfeasance and nonfeasance in office, Smay was released on $2,000 bond following a hearing before Alderman Harry Ashburn.

Whites In Southern City Hope To Solve Race Fight Without Desegregation

EDITOR'S NOTE—Racial unrest has spread from larger urban centers of the South into the smaller towns, the rural areas that make up the solidly segregated South. This is one of a series of three articles taking a closeup look at these moves.

By DON McKEE

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP)—Racial conflict smashed the sleepy calm of this southwestern Georgia town when Negroes set out four months ago to use the front door of the segregated movie theater.

The winds of racial unrest that buffeted the nation last summer had swept into tightly segregated rural Georgia.

Picketing of the theater and street marches that produced violence were met with arrests and a powerful new weapon—charges against integration leaders of trying to start a revolt against the government, an offense punishable by death.

White officials, momentarily at least, breathed easier. The integration drive in Americus, its 15,000 population split about equally between white and Negro, was the second in southwestern Georgia. The first, a year-long struggle in nearby Albany, failed.

Cracking of racial barriers in Americus would hit at the heart of the white South's resistance, at the grassroots of segregation. While they may not be aware of the broader significance of Americus, the white townspeople have no intention of allowing integration to take place here.

"I don't think Americus is going to take any integration," said Sheriff Fred B. Chappell. "And I don't think there'll be any more trouble."

FOUR YOUTHS JAILED

Chappell and other officials

based their hopes on the jailing of four youths charged with attempting to incite insurrection. This had effectively taken the integration leaders out of circulation—unless court action freed them.

Across town in his office, John Barnum, wealthy Negro mortician and a persistent force in the integration drive, was on the telephone trying to mount a new attack.

Barnum was asking a Negro mother if her daughter, an honor student, would apply for admission to white Georgia Southwestern College here.

"We aren't going to quit," he said.

"We have discontinued demonstrations I think the good already has been accomplished—and the suffering is much too great. It's too hard to get out of jail."

HALT MARCHES

The climax came Aug. 8 when police halted more than 200 Negro marchers. Bricks and other missiles were thrown. Several policemen were injured; Negro leaders reported 28 injuries among the marchers. The sheriff said there was heavy property damage.

Among those jailed were Donald Harris, 24, of New York; John Perdew, 21, of Denver, Colo.; and Ralph W. Allen, 22, of Melrose, Mass. Perdew and Allen are white. All are members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

CLUB DEMONSTRATORS

Demonstrators were clubbed by policemen. The committee charged that Harris, Perdew and Allen were beaten. Police officials denied the allegations of brutality.

In a letter smuggled from his cell, Allen said he and Perdew were attacked by a policeman.

"My head was streaming blood," wrote Allen, who has been pushing Negro voter registration in this area for more than a year and has been jailed many times. He is on leave from Trinity College in Hartford, Conn.

Perdew, a national Merit Scholarship student at Harvard, corroborated Allen's charges.

POLICE DENY CHARGE

In their denial, police said that both Perdew and Allen threw bricks at officers and that they had attacked a policeman. In another march on Aug. 17, Zev Aelony, 25, white worker for the Congress of Racial Equality, was arrested. He was charged with encouraging Negroes to march without a permit.

The charges against Perdew, Allen and Harris—a recent graduate of Rutgers University—were unlawful assembly, obstructing arrest and assaulting an officer.

Later, these three and Aelony were charged also with trying to incite insurrection under an 1871 statute. Prosecutor Stephen Pace Jr. said he did not know whether the statute had ever been used. Actually it had been employed many years ago in a case involving alleged Communist activities.

REFUSED BAIL

While Pace has fought bond for the four, he has said he has no intention of seeking the death penalty. He said he hoped to keep the leaders in jail to prevent further trouble.

The charge and the refusal of bail for the four youths touched off protests from several parts of the nation.

While this dispute went on in the courts, Negroes in Americus concentrated on voter registration and plans to break the color barrier at the junior college here.

There were some signs that Americus might eventually work out its problems. The white ministerial association recently asked the Chamber of Commerce to create a biracial committee.

"What the hell for?" asked a chamber director. The proposal was tabled.

Well-Known Stocks Lead Profit Increases For '62

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Increased earnings—some at record highs—are being reported daily by most of America's corporations, large and small. The profit gains delight stockholders and stock traders, enhance the life expectancy of many jobs, trim estimates of the federal Treasury deficit, assure financing of future business expansion plans. Companies with household names lead the parade.

PROFIT INCREASES

Profits after taxes in the July-September quarter increased over last year for: General Motors, American Telephone, IBM, General Electric, Jersey Standard Oil, and for most of the steel companies, chemicals, drugs, airlines, tobacco, foods, utilities and even the long-ailing rails.

The majority predicts the year as a whole will be well ahead of 1962.

There is a minority, as always. A few individual companies in all of the industries falter. And in some industries most firms report earnings running behind a year ago. These include cement, paper, and many in the packaging industry. Some companies much in the public eye report earnings running against the tide, often for temporary reasons. These include Ford Motors, Polaroid, Du Pont, National Cash Register, Westinghouse Electric, Martin Marietta, A&P, Brunswick and American Machine & Foundry.

But the gainers make the bigger splash.

LARGE EARNERS

General Motors' and Chrysler's notable profit increases overshadow Ford's slip. In the chemicals Union Carbide, Allied Chemical, Olin Mathieson, American Cyanamid, Monsanto are ahead, even if Du Pont, Texas Gulf Sulphur and National Distillers & Chemicals aren't.

The steels are almost unanimous in reporting earnings running well ahead of a year ago.

Other metals also are profit gainers this year: Alcoa, Kennecott Copper, Magma Copper, St. Joseph Lead, Reynolds Metals.

AIRWAYS FORGE AHEAD

In the airways Pan Am, American, Western and Continental forge ahead although Delta slips behind last year's profit pace. Lockheed Douglas and McDonnell aircraft makers advance.

The rails are more mixed. Ahead this year are New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, Norfolk & Western, Seaboard Air Line, Chesapeake & Ohio, Great Northern, Western Pacific, Southern, Wabash and Missouri Pacific. Lagging are Atlantic Coast Line, Erie-Lackawanna, the Milwaukee, and Chicago-Great Western.

Behind the increased earnings are many things: increased sales in an expanding economy, automation and other labor-unit cost-cutting, increased depreciation allowances for tax purposes—even the population explosion.

And sparking the optimism about the future of profits is the expectation that corporate income taxes will be cut.

The 1965 World Series is the only one in which all five games were shutouts. The Giants beat the Athletics, four games to one.

BREAK NEAR IN KINZUA DAM

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

Associated Press Special Service

A break may be in sight in the congressional deadlock which threatened to stymie continued work at the Kinzua Dam and Reservoir in Pennsylvania.

But whether it will come in time to prevent at least a temporary halt of work at the big Allegheny River flood control project is still uncertain.

Chairman Clifford David, D-Tenn., of the House Public Works Subcommittee which handles river basin projects, said a conference with the Senate to iron out differences in river basin bills is "very likely."

He said nothing has been decided yet but "it's cooking now."

BIG COMPUTER MAKES ERROR

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

That was the verdict Wednesday in the case of the wayward $10,509 income tax refund check. Intended for Birmingham, it somehow ended up with the Rochelle Park, N.J., School Board.

A giant computer was fingered as the culprit.

Chairman Pat McNamara, D-Mich., of the Senate Public Works Subcommittee, also expressed hope something could be done to break the impasse. "I'm ready to talk to anybody," he said.

taxes and thus has no refund. George Patterson, IRS district director, said maybe the school's Social Security report got mixed up with the income tax reports.

BLAKELY, Ga. (AP)—Members of the Blakely High School Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Club will "trick or treat" for a new purpose tonight. They plan to collect used clothing and articles for families in need in the community.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Blame it on automation. That was the verdict Wednesday in the case of the wayward $10,509 income tax refund check. Intended for Birmingham, it somehow ended up with the Rochelle Park, N.J., School Board.

A giant computer was fingered as the culprit.

Drought And Forest Fires In New England Relieved By Heavy Rains, Snow Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Rain and snow eased drought conditions and forest fire hazards in sections of New England Wednesday but not much relief was reported in other parts of the dry belt from the Southern Plains to New York State.

Heavy rains along the edges of hurricane Ginny splashed southeastern New England Tuesday as the storm moved into Nova Scotia. Moderate to heavy snow fell in central and northern Maine, with 13 inches in Greenville and nearly a foot in Houlton and Caribou. Snow flurries fell throughout New England, including Boston. More than 2½ inches of rain doused Nantucket, Mass.

NOT ENOUGH RAIN

Tuesday's rain belt extended along the Atlantic Coast from South Carolina into New England. Light rain dampened scattered sections in the Great Lakes region and southeastward to the Appalachians, but amounts were too light to break the prolonged dry spell.

Snow flurries flecked the area of Bluefield, straddling the Virginia-West Virginia line.

In New York State, 12 new fires were reported with a total of 59 still burning and a total of blazes in October. Strong winds in some woodland areas increased the fire danger. State forces have been closed and outdoor burning banned since Oct. 13.

LIFT RESTRICTION

But the fresh rains in Rhode Island, up to one inch, resulted in the lifting of restrictions against starting outdoor fires. Maine also lifted a ban on smoking, starting outdoor fires or hunting in wooded areas.

Cool air covered most of the northern and eastern half of the nation today. Freezing temperatures were reported in the northeastern Great Lakes region and the Northern Rockies.

3 ARRESTED IN ARSON PROBE IN PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Three suburban Monroeville businessmen are free under bond today, awaiting further action in connection with a fire that destroyed their business places.

George C. Chronis, 27, of Penn Hills; his brother, Tasso C. Chronis, 29, of Monroeville; and Jack Greenberg, 38, of Penn Hills, posted $5,000 bond apiece Tuesday in the district attorney's office. They were released to await a hearing.

Anthony Ferraro, Allegheny County fire marshal, said formal charges against the trio will be filed when the hearing is held.

BAGS OF GASOLINE

The Silver Spur Restaurant, owned by the Chronis brothers, and the Fastgate Pharmacy, owned by Greenberg, were damaged by fire before dawn Monday.

Police Sgt. Koerth Schwartz, miller of Monroeville said the blazes were "a work of arson."

He said 17 plastic bags filled with gasoline had been planted in the front of the restaurant and four five-gallon containers of gasoline had been placed in the kitchen before the blaze started.

The restaurant and pharmacy were located in the same one-story building. Ferraro estimated the total damage at $200,000.

SEEKS $19,000 OFFICE; DRAWS LARGE PENSION

HARRISBURG (AP) — Blair F. Gunther, former Superior Court judge and now a candidate for Allegheny County commissioner, is drawing a yearly pension of $18,722 for his 24 years of state service, it was announced today.

The State Employees Retirement Board said Gunther began to draw his retirement pay last June 21, the same day he resigned his $14,000 job as prothonotary of the Superior Court.

Gunther, 60, was named to the specially created prothonotary post one year after his defeat in a 1959 bid for a 21-year term on the Supreme Court.

SERVED UNDER EARLE

He began his state service as a deputy attorney general during the Democratic administration of former Gov. George Earle.

Gunther is seeking the $19,000 post as an Allegheny County commissioner in the Nov. 5 election.

Five Men Are Held In Gambling Raid

READING, Pa. (AP) — Five men have been held in $1,000 bail on gambling charges following a raid Tuesday.

The five were arrested Tuesday before Alderman Lawrence Palmer on lottery and trafficking in lottery charges. Two of them, Samuel J. Damiano, 50, and Richard Perod, 35, were also charged with establishing a place for gambling. The police said Damiano owns the building that was raided and that Perod operates a pool hall in the first floor of the building.

The others charged were Wayne Keller, 67, Leonard McKinnon, 21, and Robert Robinson (no age available).

All are from Reading. This was the third such raid conducted recently in this area by city and state police.

Orlando Pena won only 12 games for Kansas City last season but three of them were shutouts. He lost 20 times despite a 3.69 earned run average.

NEW JOB FOR A. SEMINICK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Andy Seminick has been named manager of the Philadelphia Phillies' Chattanooga farm team in South Atlantic League, it was announced Tuesday.

Seminick, the catcher on the Phillies' last pennant winning team in 1950, replaces Jack Phillips.

Seminick managed at Miami in the Florida state circuit, and has been in the Phillies farm system since he left the parent club as a coach after the 1958 season.

He has also managed at Elmira, N.Y., Des Moines, Iowa and Williamsport, Pa.

The Phillies said they had no announcement on Phillips' new assignment, or who would succeed Seminick at Miami.

Work For National Park On Tocks Is.

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — An appeal went out today to congressmen from four states to push for passage of legislation for a national park at Tocks Island Dam.

The Delaware River Basin Commission sent letters and copies of a newspaper editorial to 92 senators and congressmen representing New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

The four states are equal partners in the commission with the federal government.

Drought And Forest Fires In New England Relieved By Heavy Rains, Snow Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Rain and snow eased drought conditions and forest fire hazards in sections of New England Wednesday but not much relief was reported in other parts of the dry belt from the Southern Plains to New York State.

Heavy rains along the edges of hurricane Ginny splashed southeastern New England Tuesday as the storm moved into Nova Scotia. Moderate to heavy snow fell in central and northern Maine, with 13 inches in Greenville and nearly a foot in Houlton and Caribou. Snow flurries fell throughout New England, including Boston. More than 2½ inches of rain doused Nantucket, Mass.

NOT ENOUGH RAIN

Tuesday's rain belt extended along the Atlantic Coast from South Carolina into New England. Light rain dampened scattered sections in the Great Lakes region and southeastward to the Appalachians, but amounts were too light to break the prolonged dry spell.

Snow flurries flecked the area of Bluefield, straddling the Virginia-West Virginia line. In New York State, 12 new fires were reported with a total of 59 still burning and a total of blazes in October. Strong winds in some woodland areas increased the fire danger. State forces have been closed and outdoor burning banned since Oct. 13.

LIFT RESTRICTION

But the fresh rains in Rhode Island, up to one inch, resulted in the lifting of restrictions against starting outdoor fires. Maine also lifted a ban on smoking, starting outdoor fires or hunting in wooded areas.

Cool air covered most of the northern and eastern half of the nation today. Freezing temperatures were reported in the northeastern Great Lakes region and the Northern Rockies.

NEW JOB FOR A. SEMINICK

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Andy Seminick has been named manager of the Philadelphia Phillies' Chattanooga farm team in South Atlantic League, it was announced Tuesday.

Seminick, the catcher on the Phillies' last pennant winning team in 1950, replaces Jack Phillips.

Seminick managed at Miami in the Florida state circuit, and has been in the Phillies farm system since he left the parent club as a coach after the 1958 season.

He has also managed at Elmira, N.Y., Des Moines, Iowa and Williamsport, Pa.

The Phillies said they had no announcement on Phillips' new assignment, or who would succeed Seminick at Miami.

Work For National Park On Tocks Is.

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — An appeal went out today to congressmen from four states to push for passage of legislation for a national park at Tocks Island Dam.

The Delaware River Basin Commission sent letters and copies of a newspaper editorial to 92 senators and congressmen representing New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

The four states are equal partners in the commission with the federal government.

3 ARRESTED IN ARSON PROBE IN PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Three suburban Monroeville businessmen are free under bond today, awaiting further action in connection with a fire that destroyed their business places.

George C. Chronis, 27, of Penn Hills; his brother, Tasso C. Chronis, 29, of Monroeville; and Jack Greenberg, 38, of Penn Hills, posted $5,000 bond apiece Tuesday in the district attorney's office. They were released to await a hearing. Anthony Ferraro, Allegheny County fire marshal, said formal charges against the trio will be filed when the hearing is held.

BAGS OF GASOLINE

The Silver Spur Restaurant, owned by the Chronis brothers, and the Eastgate Pharmacy, owned by Greenberg, were damaged by fire before dawn Monday.

Police Sgt. Koerth Schwartzmiller of Monroeville said the blazes were "a work of arson." He said 17 plastic bags filled with gasoline had been planted in the front of the restaurant and four five-gallon containers of gasoline had been placed in the kitchen before the blaze

SEEKS $19,000 OFFICE; DRAWS LARGE PENSION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Blair F. Gunther, former Superior Court judge and now a candidate for Allegheny County commissioner, is drawing a yearly pension of $18,722 for his 24 years of state service, it was announced today. The State Employees Retirement Board said Gunther began to draw his retirement pay last June 21, the same day he resigned his $14,000 job as prothonotary of the Superior Court.

SERVED UNDER EARLE

He began his state service as a deputy attorney general during the Democratic administration of former Gov. George Earle. Gunther is seeking the $19,000 post as an Allegheny County commissioner in the Nov. 5 election.

Five Men Are Held In Gambling Raid

READING, Pa. (AP) — Five men have been held in $1,000 bail on gambling charges following a raid Tuesday.

The five were arraigned Tuesday before Alderman Lawrence Palmer on lottery and trafficking in lottery charges. Two of them, Samuel J. Damiano, 50, and Richard Perod, 35, were also charged with establishing a place for gambling. The police said Damiano owns the building that was raided and that Perod operates a pool hall in the first floor of the building.

The others charged were Wayne Keller, 67, Leonard McKinnon, 21, and Robert Robinson (no age available.) All are from Reading. This was the third such raid conducted recently in this area by city and state police.

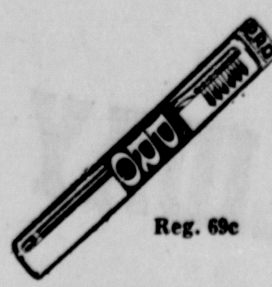

Orlando Pena won only 12 games for Kansas City last season but three of them were shutouts. He lost 20 times despite a 3.69 earned run average.
